

SUIT FILED FOR RELEASE FROM NEWELL CENTER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15 (AP)—The right of the government to intern an American citizen without a hearing when no law violation is charged was under challenge in federal district court here Tuesday.

The case, believed first on record here, involves Miss Mitsuye Endo, 22, former state department of employment worker at Sacramento.

Through her attorney, William E. Ferriter, San Francisco, Miss Endo instituted habeas corpus proceedings to secure her release from the Tulelake reception center at Newell, Calif. She charged army officials had caused her to be detained illegally, had violated her civil rights, affected her property right and prevented her from performing her rightful duties.

In addition, she pointed out, her brother, Kuni Endo, is now in the army and this would exempt her from detention if she were of Italian or German descent, instead of Japanese.

Others Dismissed
Ferriter said 67 other Japanese state employees, all citizens, were dismissed from the state civil service at the same time as Miss Endo and under similar conditions.

In court, James C. Purcell, another attorney for Miss Endo, told Federal Judge Michael J. Roche that the girl's underlying complaint is that she, an American citizen, is being held prisoner under armed guard without any charge having been filed against her.

Judge Roche said he realized the case was one not to be considered lightly, and that he wanted more time in which to consider it. He recessed the hearing until Monday.

Assistant U. S. Attorney A. J. Zirpoll, representing the government, contended the effect of issuing a writ of habeas corpus for Miss Endo would be to challenge the authority of the commanding general of this military area to exclude persons of Japanese ancestry. He urged that the residential order designated military commanders to prescribe military areas and make such rules and regulations as they saw fit.

New Deal Champion Wins Renomination

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 15 (AP)—Josh Lee, 59-year-old senator and unreserved new deal champion, won democratic renomination over nine opponents by a clear majority in unofficial returns from yesterday's primary election.

He defeated 72-year-old W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray, former governor and congressman. Murray ran third behind Orel Bushby, Ada attorney who played for the Lee protest vote. Bushby conceded Lee's renomination.

Great Northerners Launch Bond Campaign

A big campaign to enlist Klamath Falls' Great Northern employees as 10 per cent war bond buyers was opened this week, and this picture shows activity at the start of the campaign. Harry Wayne, general agent, is shown in the foreground, buying a bond. The girls are Marion Sexton, Mary Lou Sexton and Peggy Proulx, who is visiting here from St. Paul. Others in the picture are H. R. Liletoe, C. E. Dennis, J. A. Belcom, E. L. Cloose, Don T. Bradley, all of the GN, and Merle Adams and Varne Owens of the county bond committee.

FBI NABS FORMER COAST GUARDSMAN

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—A German-born former American coast guardsman with a fancy name and a loose tongue was held on $25,000 bail today on espionage charges.

Assistant FBI Director P. E. Foxworth said the accused spy, Washington Glendale Spiegelberg, 35, had on his person plans of the B-24 type bomber when arrested in a Long Island bar Sunday.

In Detroit, where he was known as plain Alex Spiegelberg, a partner in the Donnelly Engineering corporation said last night that the spy suspect "had full access to all drawings" of the four-engine bomber, manufactured by Ford, during his employment as a process engineer with the Donnelly firm for the first four months of this year.

The Donnelly official, Alex Sobodoski, said Spiegelberg spent his entire time there in work on the Ford bomber plant machinery and "was in between Ford and us and had full access to all drawings and everything else."

The prisoner, born in Berlin while his father was in the U. S. consular service and therefore an American citizen, was found in possession of 18 plans, diagrams, drawings or blueprints of essential bomber parts when seized in a Hempstead, N. Y., drinking place on the tip of an army corporal who overheard him talking about them, Foxworth said. The FBI said Spiegelberg was a fisherman, miner and sailor in Alaska from 1929 to 1935.

IT WORKS, ANYHOW

TOPEKA, Kans. (AP)—Horace Anthony Holstrom, husky 18-year-old athlete, passed his preliminary naval examination.

Then he happened to recall that an X-ray taken when he was a baby showed his heart was on his right side instead of his left.

Recruiting officers, bewildered, said they'd consult higher authority before accepting him.

LIGHT PROFIT SELLING STALLS MARKET GAIN

By VICTOR EUBANK
NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Stocks turned irregular today after light profit selling stalled an early advance.

The list retained a good quota of moderate gains in the final hour, but steels, motors, rails and rubbers yielded their morning advantage and in a few cases dipped under the previous final. The five-hour volume was approximately 400,000 shares.

As in recent sessions inflationary ideas tended to offset adverse war reports from Russia as a speculative influence.

Holding modest plus marks were Sears Roebuck, Woolworth, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry, Glenn Martin, American Telephone, American Can and J. C. Penney. Dow Chemical pushed up around 2 on a small turnover. American Smelting and Southern Railway were a bit soft.

Car Loadings For June Top 1929 Record

SEATTLE, July 15 (AP)—The Pacific northwest advisory board said today car loadings in this area in June totaled 113,926 cars, highest for the month since 1929.

Forest products took 40,853 cars and grain 6850 cars, largest for the month in the board's records, which start in 1924. Fruit loadings were down to 1842 cars, compared with 2321 the same month last year.

The six month's loadings this year amounted to 637,273 cars, also the largest for the period since 1929.

The loadings cover Washington, Oregon, the panhandle of northern Idaho and the western row of counties in Montana.

CHICAGO WHEAT

CHICAGO, July 15 (AP)—Wheat prices declined today following house approval of a senate proposal to allow sales of government wheat at prices below parity. Other grains followed the bread cereal downward.

The action of the house surprised many traders, because the house previously had been firm in its demand that no sales be permitted below 100 per cent of parity. The senate proposal had the support of President Roosevelt.

Approval of the senate's measure meant that 125,000,000 bushels of wheat could be sold for feeding purposes at not less than about 83 cents a bushel. Under the house's previous measure, providing for sales at not less than parity for wheat, the minimum figure was about $1.35 a bushel.

After dipping more than a cent from the previous close, wheat rallied at the finish to reduce extreme losses. Wheat closed at 83c lower, July $1.19, September $1.21; corn was unchanged to 8c down, July 88c, September 90c.
