

REASONS WHY
Klamath county sportsmen, usually poitobed about something, are poitobed presently about fishing — or mostly no fishing—in Crater lake.

The gentlemen have been insinuating that, just because national park travel has been slashed over 50 per cent, the lack of possible profits has caused the summer park management to forego usual boat service to those anglers relieving. Who are mostly Klamath county anglers.

Slightly ugly has grown the talk.

This week Jovial, Elmer Myers, Sportsmen's association prexy, invited National Park S. P. Leavitt to drop around and explain all to the association meeting Friday night.

E. P. said he couldn't make it but penned a three-page note in reply, giving several answers.

Briefly, they are:

(1) Last fall's heavy rains washed a portion of the rimstone's edge trail away. Shortage of labor has made it impossible to complete repairs. Therefore the trail is still closed to the public.

(2) When the gasoline problem became acute this spring, counsel for the national park company—the summer concession operators—advised them not to plan operation of launches. Without launches it's considered too dangerous to have unpowered boats afloat in the event of sudden storms.

(3) "Another very important factor is that it has not been demonstrated so far that there would be enough business to justify the boat operation on Crater lake this year." Park travel in May was down 50 per cent; in June was down 85 per cent. It has been found necessary to close the cafeteria and curtail other expenses. Continued lack of travel and consequent business may make other changes necessary as the summer advances.

Which seem to be reasons enough.

Apparently there's not to be any boat fishing in Crater lake this summer.

However, the old Wineglass trail on the north side of the lake is dangerous but passable and some fishermen have been getting good catches from the shore.

Leavitt goes on to say that at soon as the main trail to the lake is repaired to point where it is safe to use, it will be opened to the public and fishing from the shore permitted.

The situation seems to affirm right of a private enterprise to curtail outgo when income slips.

It is a fatal mistake to believe that the state is the highest expression of divinity.—Count Konrad von Preysing, Catholic bishop of Berlin.

Long-Tailed Whirlaway Cracks Seabiscuit's Money Mark With $50,000 Victory at Suffolk

Wright Star Nearing Half Million Total

Massachusetts Handicap Purse Brings Earnings to $454,366; Arlington Eyed

By BILL KING
BOSTON, July 16 (AP)—A stretch-running flash of lightning known as Whirlaway today loomed as the first half-million-dollar winning prospect in the history of the turf.

Fresh from his record-smashing triumph yesterday in the Massachusetts $50,000-added handicap, Whirlaway was pointed today by his trainer, Ben Jones, for the $25,000-added Arlington handicap at Chicago's Arlington park on August 1.

The smashing victory that Whirlaway, owned by Wright, scored in the Suffolk Downs feature boosted the horse's winnings to $454,366—or $16,636 more than the previous top earnings mark, amassed by Seabiscuit.

Giving every indication that he must be considered as one of the top handicap performers of all time, Whirlaway ran a field of six speedy opponents into the earth in almost nonchalant fashion under a smart ride by George Woolf before a big crowd of almost 33,000.

New Englanders, seeing "Mr. Bigtail" for the first time, still were pop-eyed today at the blaze of speed the champion turned on as he headed for the wire to win by about two and a half lengths over the Valinda Farms' Irish-bred Rouder.

Whirlaway broke well and then gave his supporters, who had backed him down to even money, a taste of the jitters by trailing the field by a good 10 lengths for at least half the journey.

Then Woolf gave him the nod and he showed why the rates among the all-time greats. With one burst he jumped up to fourth place and in another moment he was out in front.

He ran away the stretch like a runaway locomotive and flashed across the wire in 1:48 1/5 to crack the track record for the mile and one-eighth distance, previously held by War Relic, by two-fifths of a second.

Whirlaway paid $4, $3 and $2.20. Rounders $6.60 and $3.80, and Mrs. Parker Corning's Attention, which finished third, $3.40.

you how Seabiscuit would have been a bigger money winner if he hadn't missed those two Santa Anita hundred-grands by a couple of noses, just remind 'em that the Biscuit had three cracks at the big pot . . . And Whirlaway never even had one . . . Uncle Art Ross, boss-man of Boston's hockey Bruins, is hollering for hockey to operate in a no-profit principal . . . Club owners shouldn't make a nickel, players should perform for coffee and cakes and rink owners should slice rents until it hurts . . . And then, says Uncle Art, there'll be some excuse for hockey next winter . . . Uncle Art happens to have two sons in the Royal Canadian air force, incidentally—and feels mean because they won't let him in too . . .

By SID FEDER (Pinch-Hitting for Hugh Fullerton)

BOSTON, July 16 (Wide World)—Those red-faced guys around your village today are the "experts" who said Whirlaway wasn't a great hoss because he had only "one run" in him in any race and that wasn't good enough to knock off the speed colts . . . Well, the charts won't show it, but Mr. Bigtail ran the second quarter of yesterday's Massachusetts in 23 4/5 seconds . . . And if you think that's a soft touch, try it yourself . . . Incidentally, Warren Wright, who only owns Whirlaway, didn't make the trip to Suffolk to see his cold break the Biscuit's record because he wasn't sure whether Whirlaway would win . . . Listen, Warren, he would have won this one if they'd have put an outboard motor and five gallons of gas in the others . . .

JINGLE, JANGLE, JINGLE
The Biscuit's record is now with Whirlaway.

He didn't, we will admit, run early.

But when Mr. Bigtail really got surly, Y'shoulda had a deuce on him, girly.

IN GOOD WITH THE BOSS
The day King Peter of Yugoslavia turned out in Yankee stadium last week, Walt Judnich, the Browns' outfielder, who is a Yugoslav, shook hands with the ruler and then ended Hank Borowoy's bid for a no-hitter with a single in the fourth . . . Nothing like doing it when the head man's around . . .

LET'S-BELT-THE-BUMS-DEPT.
Casey Stengel, the poor man's Fred Allen, is getting "awful sick" of them Dodgers and their rough-riding . . . So, says Case, all the National league outfits are going to throw everything they've got against the Bums . . . "Wish I had something to throw," Case prays . . . Meantime, Joe Cronin's looking for something to throw at the Yanks . . . How about a set of crocheted hand grenades, Joe? . . .

Dudley Named to Ryder Team for Weekend Matches With Hagens

By WATSON SPOELSTRA
DETROIT, July 16 (AP)—Big Ed Dudley, 40-year-old veteran from Colorado Springs who played with three American Ryder cup golf teams but never on American soil, gets his big chance this weekend as substitute for Slammin' Sammy Snead in the Red Cross relief matches.

Dudley, originally named to Walter Hagen's challenge squad, was shifted to the coppers yesterday when Snead was unable to arrange leave from the Norfolk, Va., base where he is in training with the navy. Sgt. Jim Turner of Fort Dix, N. J., runner-up to Snead for the recent national PGA championship, will replace Dudley on the challenge squad.

There were no other changes, although Hagen announced he had received permission from Craig Wood, cup captain, to split a 36-hole assignment with Al Watrous of Detroit in foursome matches Saturday. Singles competition is scheduled Sunday.

Hagen is expected to return from Rochester, N. Y., where his father, William, is seriously ill, before the lineups are announced tomorrow on the eve of the matches. Melvin (Chick) Harbert, winter circuit sensation from Battle Creek, Mich., probably will be held out of foursome play but will replace one of his team mates in the singles.

With ticket sales meeting expectations for $25,000 in proceeds, Fred Corcoran, PGA tournament chairman, said the matches would produce the largest single contribution by golf to charity. Two previous matches here yielded a total of $30,000.

The New Champ

Long-tailed Whirlaway, 1941 Kentucky derby champion and the nation's top handicap runner, exceeded Seabiscuit's all-time earnings record yesterday with a victory worth $50,000 in the Massachusetts handicaps at Suffolk Downs. The win boosted Whirlaway's winnings to $454,366, some $16,000 over the retired Biscuit's mark.

Bad blood has been flowing between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs for two or more years in one of the most vicious feuds in baseball annals and the situation is getting stormier.

Yesterday the boys were so busy throwing bean balls at each other they almost forgot the ball game, but the Dodgers, operating in their element, captured a 10-5 verdict from the confused Cubs, who made five errors and used five pitchers to give 13 hits.

This encounter dwarfed other developments of the day in the majors leagues, although Chet Laabs of the St. Louis Browns, currently on a batting spree, attracted attention at Philadelphia by driving five runs as the Browns beat the Athletics, 7-4, in a night game. He hit a homer, his 13th of the year, with the bases loaded in the second inning and then in the third frame lined to the corner of center field in Shibe park and was thrown out at the plate trying to get four bases on it.

The New York Yankees extended their American league lead to 6½ games by scoring their second straight shutout, 4-0, against the Cleveland Indians on the four-hit hurling of Atley Donald.

The Boston Red Sox split with the Chicago White Sox. Tex Highman beat unlucky Ed Smith in the opener, 10-1, for Smith's 15th setback. Then the Chisox took the nightcap, 11-6, although Ted Williams hit his 19th homer.

Washington fared out the best of the Red Sox, 6-2, in 11 innings in a night game when Jimmy Pafah singled with two on for the winning marker.

Rip Sewell pitched six-hit ball and Vince DiMaggio hit a three-run double to spark Pittsburgh to a 6-2 triumph over the New York Giants. The St. Louis Cardinals swept a doubleheader from the Phils, 7-3 and 9-4.

Cincinnati and the Boston Braves divided their double bill, with Bucky Walters winning the opener for the Reds, 6-2, on five-hit pitching and Manny Salvo retaliating with a seven-hit performance as the Braves bagged the second game, 7-2, with Clyde Klutz batting in three runs with a double.

Caps Capture, Tiges Tipped, Lead Lessened

By The Associated Press

The Tacoma Tigers gave away a six run lead to the Spokane Indians and took a 12-9 drubbing last night while the Vancouver Caplans were defeating Salem 1-0, thereby reducing the Tigers' Western International Baseball league lead to a scant game.

The Tigers, playing on their home grounds, jumped on Bill Garland for six runs off five hits and two walks in the first inning and appeared headed for their eighth home field victory over the Indians this season.

The Caps, playing at Vancouver, pushed over the lone tally of the game in the first inning on a single, a double and a sacrifice fly.

From there on the Caps, connected for only two more safeties while the Senators got nine useless bingles spread through the game.

The Portland Beavers continued their determined efforts to pull themselves out of the Pacific Coast Baseball league cellar last night and handed the Oakland Oaks their third straight lacing, 4-2.

The game, a seven-inning affair intended to be the first half of a doubleheader, was featured by two homers, Johnny Gill hitting the round-tripper for Portland and Wally Westlake for Oakland. The second game was called after the second inning.

The Beavers converted four hits into three runs in the second inning to sew up the game, while limiting the Oaks to single frames in the second and fourth innings. The game was played at Seattle.

At Portland, rookie chucker Mike Budnick scored his third straight shutout over Hollywood in less than two weeks with a 3 to 0 nightcap victory after his teammate Hal Turpin won the opener, 2 to 1.

Budnick yielded the three safeties in the final three innings to make a total of only 11 the Stars have been able to get off his delivery in three games. Seattle clinched the tilt in the fourth inning when Bill Matheson drove Lynn King home.

Los Angeles batsmen are threatening to blast the Sacramento Solons out of the top spot in Pacific Coast league baseball and the scene is set for the explosion tonight.

The Angels, who lead the league on basehits, slammed out 15 safeties including two home runs to wallop the Solons, 8 to 4, last night and edge within a half-game of the pacesetters.

Eddie Waitkus, first sacker whom the Angels are afraid they are going to lose to Uncle Sam, started things off last night with a two-run homer in the first inning.

There was also some heavy-hitting at San Francisco where the San Diego Padres won, 6 to 4, from the Seals in ten innings. Ed Stutz, who hurled 7 innings allowed the Padres four runs on ten hits and two walks. Then his reliever, Al Epperly, yielded the other two San Diego tallies on four hits and a base on balls, to be charged with
