DEFENSE CALENDAR

An advanced first aid class is slated for Friday, July 24. This class will also meet Monday, July 27 and will finish Tuesday, July 28. It is to be held in room 208 at Klamath Union high school from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. Anyone holding a standard certificate or just completing the standard Red Cross first aid course is eligible to enroll. A. H. Mead will instruct.

Police Court—Three culprits charged with drunkenness, three with disorderly conduct, one with vagrancy and one with illegal possession of liquor were handled in police court this morning by Police Judge Leigh Ackerman. Four traffic violators paid fines and Ellis Warner paid $1 for a taxi driver's license.

Change Residences—Mr. and Mrs. Russell McElroy and children moved this week from 1415 East Main street to the 2400 block on Eberlein avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Owings and family have moved from South Sixth street to the address on East Main street recently vacated by the McElroys.

Field Inspection—Professor G. R. Hyslop, head of the division of plant industries will head quarters at OSC, and J. R. McCambridge, assistant county agent, are making the first field inspection of potatoes for certification this week.

Sister Visits—Miss Minerva Bridge is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bridge of Sargent street for a month or more this summer. Miss Bridge, whose home is in Portland, is Recreation Officer Bridge's sister.

Released from Hospital—Dr. J. H. Clamahan, who has been under medical care at Klamath Valley hospital since July 16, was able to return to his home Wednesday.

Returns to Home—Mrs. Martha Goerte, who was called here by the serious illness and death of her sister, the late Melissa Hammel, has returned to her home in Idaho.

Goehring's Arrive—Dr. and Mrs. David Goehring and daughter, Beverly, arrived Thursday morning from Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif., after receiving word of the death of Mrs. Goehring's father, D. A. Kenyon, well known pioneer businessman of this city, which occurred in Grants Pass on Wednesday.

District Conference—Earl Gardner, rural rehabilitation supervisor, accompanied by Mary Belle Beswick and Margaret Payne of the FSA offices, were in Corvallis Monday attending a district conference of the farm security administration.

From San Francisco—Mrs. Harry Isensee returned Sunday from San Francisco, where she has been under medical care at the Stanford hospital. She is manager of Katherine's Beauty salon. Margie Laverty has been in charge during her absence.

Returns From Vacation—Mary Belle Beswick has returned from a week's vacation from her duties in the FSA offices, during which she spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Frank Beswick, near Astoria.

Visitors Leave—Mrs. Arnold Hasle and son, David, have left for their home at Burbank, Calif., after visiting with Mrs. Hasle's sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds.

Visiting in South—Mrs. Beulah Kelsey and daughter, Ann, are visiting in Los Angeles where they are guests of Mrs. Kelsey's brother, Dr. Fites.
