 The Seattle Rainiers were not playing the weak and helpless Portland Beavers, Rainier fans might be encouraged by the fact from fifth to third place the Rainiers have made this week.

Pitted against a stronger team, however, the Rainiers might not have done so well and fans are not yet conjuring visions of another late season rally such as marked the Rainiers' drive to the Pacific Coast Baseball league title.

Newly established in third place, the Rainiers won their second straight game from Portland 4 to 2, last night but the victory was costly, for Catcher Bob Collins suffered a broken finger in attempting to handle a foul tip.

Coast league fans are learning to expect anything of the San Francisco Seals, one of the loop's no-nonsense in-and-out clubs.

Last night the unpredictable trounced Oakland, 6 to 1, in the same score by which the Seals lost to the Oaks on the previous night.

The win kept the San Francisco Seals in the lead for the fourth with the San Diego Padres, who also came back after a loss to defeat Sacramento, 7 to 4.

Hitting turned the trick for the Padres who pounded three Solon hurlers for 15 safeties, while Sacramento's league-leading batters collected but seven hits, one a three-run homer by Deb Garmis in the eighth.

Los Angeles continued its league-leading pace with a 3 to 1 win over Hollywood. The Angels have won their last 14 of 17.

Jackie Cooper Wins Cheyenne Bronco Riding

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 23 (AP)—Jackie Cooper of Newhall, Calif., brought a plunging, rearing bucking horse named Stardust down to earth, winning top honors in professional bronco riding for the first two days of the Frontier Days rodeo.

Money winners for the first go-round of the 46th annual show were announced as other of the nation's top cowhands hitched up their belts to compete in the second go-round late today.

Cooper's ride was Tuesday on the rodeo's opening day.

First money for amateur riding went to Bud Cooper of Sturdivant, D.

 MECHORD FIELD, July 23 (AP)—A unit of quartermaster troops have gone into training to learn "dirty combat tactics" which will enable them to better meet "the most ruthless soldier in the world—the Jap"—officials at the air field said today.

The troops receiving the commando-type training—and all soldiers in the army will eventually get the same tutoring—will someday be used as advance troops of the quartermaster section for the establishment of supply depots and air fields in enemy territory.

"You can't fight fair when you're fighting the most ruthless soldier in the world—the Jap," Lieut. L. A. Rogers, instructor in special services, told his students, who make up one of the first groups in the army to receive this type of instruction.

Rogers has just returned from a special service school at Fort Meade where he was taught victim jabs two rigid fingers into the strangler's wind pipe. Also, plain and fancy methods of tying up a sentry so he will struggle free if he tries to struggle free are some of the items a soldier learns in the commando training.

Jimmy Double-X, Novikoff Blame Suits for Cub's Spot

BOSTON, July 23 (AP)—Jimmy Foxx, who frightened many a pitcher by throwing out his chest and flexing his mighty biceps as he stepped to the plate, has yet to intimidate any of the National league hurlers.

"It's this monkey suit," Double-X complained, referring to the Chicago Cubs' sleeveless uniform that has been compared unfavorably with a gay 90's bathing suit. "The fabric is so thin that I feel like a skinned rabbit in it."

Masonic Lodges Confer Degree

TULELAKE—Fort Crook Masonic lodge of Fall River Mills was a guest of Canby Cross lodge of Tulelake Saturday night for conferring of the third degree following a 6:30 p. m. banquet in the annex of the Presbyterian church. Places were marked at the dinner for 45, with Otis Roper, senior warden, acting for Fred Fisher, worshipful master, who is in the service immediately following his induction into office.

The dinner was served by the community guild of the Presbyterian church.

Oregon's Tiger Is Home—and Class 1-A in Draft

YAMHILL, Ore., July 23 (AP)—Oregon's most famous ace of the Burma-China battleskies, AVG Flight Leader Ken Jernstedt, came home today, and found himself eligible for the draft.

Which his friends thought a little odd for an ex-flying Tiger with an official battlebag of 10 Mitsubishi Zeros and an unofficial count of at least a score more. But there he was—in an American volunteer group uniform, wearing a Chinese decoration—and just as 1-A as they come.

The reason—Jernstedt, like many another AVG'er, was left without rank or military attachment when the Tigers were absorbed by the army in China. He resigned his marine commission a year ago to enter the famous Burma-China flying outfit.

However, Oregon's lone Tiger won't wait for the draft.

"As soon as I've had a little rest I want to fly again," he said. "With the army this time, I think, I'd like to do it in Australia."

 Knights of Columbus vs. Big Lakes, 7 p. m. Recreation field.

Big Lakes' boxers last night gained a half-game on the league leading Knights of Columbus softball squad by nipping Matt Finnigan's high school boys, 4-3, in a protested game on Recreation field.

The Irishmen charged after the game that refereeing had been poor in the extreme, to a point where Gillette, Big Lakes hurler, found it impossible to pitch anything but strikes. They also protested a seventh inning decision at the plate which cost them the tying run.

Each team splashed four hits off the opposition. The Boxers piled up six errors while the Finnigans bobbled five chances.

'Jackets Threaten Pelicans

Strong Dorris Nine Plays Pair Here This Weekend

With Medford facing the unusual opposition usually furnished by Grants Pass and a virtual cinch to win two weekend tilts, Klamath's Pelicans today looked forward with something resembling trepidation to a pair of toughies versus Dorris' always strong Lumberjackets.

The "subway" series will unfold Saturday night at 7 o'clock on Recreation field. Second edition will start at 1:30 Sunday.

Winner of seven and loser of nine, Dorris has always been a linch for the Bigbills, particularly when Clyde Carlstrom does the flinging. And he'll do part of it this weekend.

Additionally, the 'Jacks have signed Rex Cecil, ex-Coast leaguer and recently of the California loop and Pioneer circuit. Cecil pitched for Mt. Shasta several years ago after leaving Portland and was regarded as one of the best bush hurlers seen in these parts.

Manager Ernie Bishop will probably use Virg Haynes who sports a 6 to 1 record and Ken Benham who has won three while dropping two.

With two Medford victories practically in the bag against GP, the Pelicans must win both from Dorris to stick within a game of the Craters.

Paul Gehrman Still Pacing PCL Hurlers

LOS ANGELES, July 23 (AP)—He didn't win or lose a game this week, but big Paul Gehrman of Los Angeles still sits atop the Pacific league pitching list with seven wins against no defeats.

Among the regulars Seattle's veteran Hal Turpin boasts the best record, 16-4, followed by Ray Prim of Los Angeles with a 14-4 score.

Sacramento's Blix Donnelly leads the strike-out department with 116.

Bill Introduced To Aid Tourist Business Operators

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Legislation designed to give financial relief to operators of tourist and vacation businesses hit by the gasoline and rubber shortage was introduced Wednesday by Sen. McNary (R-Ore.).

His bill would authorize the reconstruction finance corporation to make loans up to 75 per cent of the value of such properties, with interest not to exceed 3 per cent, and no payment due on either principal or interest until two years after the end of the present emergency was proclaimed by the president.

The loans would be issued only where it could be shown that 50 per cent or more of a normal business arrived by private motor carrier and was not replaceable by common carrier.

Confusion Reigns at 'Shanter

Tournament Enters Fourth, Or Futile, Stage in Chicago

By GAYLE TALBOT
 CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—With-out much doubt the most confused golf tournament in history, the Tam O'Shanter open and amateur, unlimited, proceeded today into its fourth or completely unintelligible stage—the one just before they bring out the padded wagon and say, "Take it easy, pal, sure you're Napoleon."

On today's program, as someone explained it, was the first 18 holes of the Tam O'Shanter $15,000 medal play open. Also scheduled were two rounds of match play in the All-American amateur championship, these being the third and fourth rounds of this particular championship.

The man who explained this disappeared before his name was obtained, but his version may be taken as fairly authentic.

Today, 136 professionals began battling for $2500 first money in the 72-hole open championship. The 16 surviving amateurs from yesterday's shambles tied up in two match play rounds, while at the same time competing in the open. All of the amateurs who were eliminated yesterday—48 of 'em—continued to compete in the open, boyoboy!

Caps Pad Lead Over Tacoma With 7-5 Win

By The Associated Press
 Another full game was added to the healthy lead held by the Vancouver Capilanos on Western International Baseball league standings last night as the Caps took the measure of the Tacoma Tigers for the third straight time and won, 7-5.

Bounced out of the league lead after a prolonged losing streak, the Tigers are now three full games behind the team with which they have traded places in standings a number of times already this year.

Meanwhile, at Salem the Senators also took their third straight game from the last place Spokane Indians with a smashing 14 hit attack that gave them an 11-8 victory.

Eugene Tramples Albany Alcos, 7-1

EUGENE, July 23 (AP)—With Bud Brewer and Red Miller limping Albany to five hits, Eugene took a State league baseball victory last night 7-1.

The sixth was Eugene's big inning, five runs being scored off Lou Eagleson. Don Kirsch made three of the winner's eight hits.

 Associated Press Sports Writer
 All the people who for weeks devoted themselves industriously to trying to solve the slump of the New York Yankees probably are busy now figuring out reasons for the sliding of the Boston Red Sox and the Detroit Tigers.

This is a thankless task, but nevertheless a form of endeavor in which there never is any unemployment. Somebody always is in a slump and right now both the Red Sox and the Tigers have it bad. Boston has lost four in a row and nine of its last 11 games while Detroit has dropped 11 out of 14 and has fallen from the first division.

The Red Sox were shut out 2-0 yesterday by Lee (Buck) Ross of the Chicago White Sox. One of Chicago's blows was a two-run double by Luke Appling in the sixth inning.

The Tigers were tamed 2-1 by the Washington Senators on the five-hit hurling of Sid Hudson. Here again the winners were kept in check by the losing pitcher, Washington getting just eight hits off Tommy Bridges, but one of them was a two-run homer by Roy Cullenbine.

Meanwhile the New York Yankees squeezed to their 11th consecutive victory and extended their American league lead to 12 full games by blasting across four unearned runs in the tenth inning to beat the Cleveland Indians 5-1.

Joe DiMaggio's hitting streak was stopped at 18 games by Lefty Al Milnar, but Rollie Hemsley made four hits, including two doubles, and Charley Keller hit his 12th home run.

The St. Louis Browns blew a 6-0 lead attained in the first four frames and lost an 11-8 decision to the Philadelphia Athletics. Sparked by Chet Laabs' 18th circuit clout, the Browns scored five runs in the fourth.

In the National league, the Brooklyn Dodgers disposed of the Cincinnati Reds without trouble, 5-1, with Kirby Higbe pitching five-hit ball and he and his teammates tagging Ray Starr
