Return From East—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyton returned from a three weeks' trip which took them as far east as Chicago. During that time, Peyton, exalted ruler of the Klamath Falls Elks lodge, attended the Elks convention in Omaha, Neb. They made the trip by train and visited en route home with relatives in Yakima, Wash., and in Portland.

Receives Honor—Herman Lofdahl, drillmaster and military adviser of the Klamath platoon of the Oregon Women's Ambulance corps, has received word that he has been commissioned lieutenant-at-arms to the national commander of the Disabled American Veterans, Laurence Melton.

Visits Grandparents—Billie Ann Cheyne has returned to her home in Portland after spending some time visiting here with her grandparents, Mrs. Fannie M. Cheyne and Mr. and Mrs. W. Milkey of High street. Billie Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Cheyne.

Chaperones Girls—Mrs. Vincent Lawler is spending this week at Diamond lake, where she is chaperoning a number of American Legion Junior auxiliary girls who are enjoying a stay at the Don Chase summer home there.

Grass Fires—The two calls made by the fire department today were both for grass fires with no damage resulting. One was at 7:04 p. m. to East 4th and Applegate streets, the other at 8:09 p. m. to 260 La-juna street.

Townsend Entertainment—There will be a social meeting of the Townsend club Friday, July 31, at the KC hall. Cards and Chinese checkers will be played. The social meeting will be followed by an apron and over-all dance.

Visitors Here—Sergeant Robert Yancey and wife were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Matts. Sergeant Yancey is stationed at the Chico flying school. Mrs. Yancey is the former Betty Madsen of Mountain View, Calif.

Accepts Position—Mrs. Mahr Meyers has accepted a position with the Lorenz company for the summer months.

Make Good Records—Paul R. Winter and Martin Swanson of Klamath Falls made high records with the New York Life Insurance company in the past year, it was reported by B. M. Downie, agency manager. Winter wrote $211,368 worth of business in the year and was the only agent in Oregon to qualify for the Nylc Top club. Swanson led the entire agency for the club championship and qualified for club membership.

Fluhrer Commissioned—William H. Fluhrer, well known southern Oregon baker and owner of a bakery and other property in Klamath Falls, has received notification of his commission as a captain in the U. S. army air force. Captain Fluhrer will report to Miami Beach, Fla., this week. He heads Fluhrer's bakeries, which have plants in Klamath Falls, Medford, Eureka and Yreka.

Short Court—The session of police court was over in a hurry this morning, with only one person appearing, charged with drunk and disorderly conduct. Two traffic law violators were listed, one paying a fine and the other to appear for a hearing on a plea of innocent to a charge of violating the basic rule.

Auto Stamp Stolen—Jessie Bryant, nurse at Klamath Valley hospital, reported to police that the auto tax stamp had been removed from the windshield of her car when it was parked on North Fourth street beside the hospital.

To Visit Sister—Ellen Upp, employed with the First National bank, plans to leave the first of the month for a two weeks' vacation during which she will visit with her sister, Mrs. John Kollas of Fall Creek, Ore.
