

ROAD DECLINE CLIPS GAINS FROM LEADERS

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, July 29 (AP)—After idling through four sessions with an extremely narrow area, the stock market today entered a fairly broad decline with leaders giving up fractions to a point or more.

Somewhat more depressed than the average were U. S. Steel, Weavinghouse, Douglas Aircraft, Case, Allied Chemical, Standard Oil (N.J.) and Texas Co. Declines were general in all the key groups in the final hour. An exceptional firm spot was Loew's, at the highest since 1939.

Transactions totaled about 275,000 shares.

Pressure on Standard Oil (N.J.) was accentuated a bit by reports that underwriting firms would offer publicly 100,000 shares after the market's close.

Bonds were irregularly lower.

The Favorite Psalm In Lovely Stitchery

7287 by Alice Brooks

The beloved Twenty-third Psalm has comforted many through the ages. Now you can illustrate it in simple embroidery you'll enjoy. Use rich colors for this biblical panel. Pattern 7287 contains a transfer pattern for a picture 12 x 16 inches; illustrations of stitches; materials needed; color chart.

To obtain this pattern send 11 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture, but keep it and the number for reference. Be sure to wrap coin securely, as a loose coin often slips out of the envelope. Requests for patterns should read, "Send pattern No. 7287 to _____ followed by your name and address."

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, July 29 (AP-USDA)—The Boston wool market continued quiet today with sales in small quantities and price quotations nominal. Interest in medium wools has shifted from quarter blood to three-eighths, both scoured and in the grease. Some bright three-eighths wool was sold at 50 cents, delivered, grease basis. Territory wools are being delivered in large volume on old orders.

SPUD PRICES UP OVER YEAR AGO

CHICAGO, July 29 (AP)—Potato prices in both spot and futures markets today held at levels sharply above those of a year ago.

Spot California Long Whites were up 5 to 10 cents per hundred pounds compared with yesterday. Some other types were unchanged while still others declined slightly. No sales of Idaho Russets were reported after the second car of the season brought a new peak of $4.30 yesterday.

Agricultural market administration experts said potato prices have been weaker the past few days after a good advance a week ago, which reflected crop losses in Missouri and Kansas as a result of rains, good consumer demand and the government's program to increase production of dehydrated food. There were reports that yields have been running lighter than anticipated on Triumphs in some parts of Idaho and that blight has appeared in the northeast.

California Long Whites were quoted at $4.35 to $4.40 per hundredweight compared with $2.20 a year ago; Idaho Bliss Triumphs $2.25-2.65 compared with $1.35-1.65; Nebraska Red Warbas $2.15-2.25 against $1.25; Missouri Cobblers $1.50-1.75 against 50 to 60 cents.

In the futures market Idaho potatoes for November delivery closed at $2.82 per hundredweight, off a cent.
