

Garden Group Announces Program

Members Receive Schedule Including Events Through Spring of 1943

Flag decorated programs were mailed to members of the garden group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club and a schedule of events which will continue through May promised those interested in the work of the organization an interesting time.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, president; Mrs. Horace E. Getz, first vice president; Mrs. W. L. Scott, second vice president; Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. G. A. Krause and Mrs. W. W. Wood, directors.

Committee chairmen have been announced by Mrs. Hamilton as follows: Mrs. Horace E. Getz, program; Mrs. R. E. Oakes, radio publicity; Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, newspaper publicity; Mrs. William Scott, calling; Mrs. K. G. Cummings, calling; Mrs. J. I. Beard, membership.

The June meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Warren Hunt when a garden party and visit to the iris beds was enjoyed by members. The July program included a garden tour and lunch under the direction of Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook.

Members are looking forward to the meeting on Monday, August twenty fourth, when a weed show will be held with Mrs. William Scott and Mrs. Ralph Porter as co-chairmen. "Care of Victory Garden Surpluses" will also be included in the August program.

September the fourteenth is the date set for the fall flower show which is always an outstanding affair for library club members as it is usually in connection with the fall luncheon and last meeting of the year. Mrs. Roland E. Oakes is chairman of the September show.

One day following the fall flower show there will be an interesting lecture on flower arrangements given by Mrs. Laurence Aske. More concerning this program will be heard later.

The chrysanthemum show will be held on October twenty-sixth with Mrs. Karl G. Cummings as chairman. There will also be an interesting discussion on "putting your garden to bed for the winter."

"Laboratory Day on Holiday Arrangements" is slated for November twenty-third with a potluck luncheon also planned on that day. Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb is chairman of this program.

There will be no December or January meetings of

DAR State Regent To Pay Visit Here

Mrs. William Horsfall to Be Honored at Luncheon Monday Afternoon

Members of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, are looking forward to the official visit of the Oregon State regent, Mrs. William Horsfall of Marshfield, who will arrive early Monday as guest of the group. Mrs. Horsfall will be accompanied by her daughter, Marian.

At a quarter to one o'clock there will be a luncheon given by the chapter for Mrs. Horsfall, the affair slated for the Pelican party room for all members and prospective members. A large attendance is anticipated.

Program Slated

Parties Planned for Wives of Realtors in Session Here

A number of delightful affairs for women folk who will accompany their husbands here on August the sixth, seventh and eighth for the annual convention of the Oregon Association of Real Estate Boards, have been planned by those outlining a program which will show the visitors as much of the Klamath country and its hospitality as is possible during their brief stay.

On Thursday afternoon visitors will enjoy a motor boat trip on Upper Klamath lake, this made possible through the cooperation of private craft owners and the California Oregon Power company.

The pine paneled room of the Elks lodge will be the scene of a tea to be given by wives of local realtors for the visitors. This party will follow a showing of natural colored moving pictures of Alaska by Senator Marshall E. Cornett. That same afternoon there will be a motor trip for those who wish to drive through the southern section of the county and into the Tulare lake district.

Many of the visitors are coming to Klamath Falls for the first time and included in the program is a Saturday motor trip to Crater Lake national park.

Mrs. Horsfall is on a tour of the southern section of the state and although all chapters are now observing the vacation period, called meetings have been ordered in her honor.

Reservations for the party may be made by calling Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, 6444, or Mrs. Thomas Hampton, 4349. Mrs. Dixon, regent of Eulalona chapter, will preside at the luncheon.

Mrs. Horsfall is well known in Klamath Falls where she has visited frequently both in the interests of DAR and the American Legion auxiliary. This spring, at the annual state conference of Daughters of the American Revolution, held in Klamath Falls, Mrs. Horsfall was elected to the post of state regent. A short time later she attended the National Congress held in Chicago.

Banquets for both realtors and their wives are planned for Thursday and Saturday evenings. Convention headquarters are located in the Willard hotel.

Friends are greeting Mrs. George Burger of High street who returned Thursday from a summer spent in Bakerville and San Francisco.

WEDDING PLANS TOLD

Attractive Barbara Bell will become the bride of Mr. Rex Hiatt in a ceremony to be read in the First Methodist church in mid-September. Announcement was made at a party given Friday evening.
