

Young Couple Wed In Church Rites

Anna Mae Sharpe of Ashland Weds Leo C. Wine in Service at Klamath Revival Center

Miss Anna Mae Sharpe of Ashland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sharpe of Concord, North Carolina, became the bride of Mr. Leo C. Wine of Ashland, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Wine, 1116 Iowa street, of that city, in a beautiful wedding ceremony here in Klamath Falls at the Klamath Revival Center Sunday afternoon, July the twenty-sixth. The ceremony was read by the father of the groom, Rev. E. J. Wine, pastor of the United Brethren church of Ashland, and was attended by many friends and relatives.

Miss Ruby Sharpe, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Emory Wine, brother of the groom, was the best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor McCool and Miss Patricia Jordan, both of Klamath Falls, while the attendants to the groom were Keith Wine of Ashland, brother of the groom, and Melvin Griffith of this city.

The bride wore a white taffeta frock with a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The maid of honor wore a light green net formal. Miss McCool wore pink and Miss Jordan was dressed in old rose. The maid of honor and bridesmaids carried bouquets alike composed of baby breath, larkspur, roses and sweet peas.

Also in the procession were young Jasper Wine, ringbearer, and Esther Wine, flower girl, brother and sister of the groom.

Preceding the ceremony, Warren Combs of Klamath Falls sang "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me."

Mr. Wine was graduated from Ashland high school in 1939, and the bride received her education in Statesville, North Carolina, before coming to Ashland just a year ago. Both are graduates of the Apostolic Bible school in Bradenton, Florida, and will continue to be engaged in gospel work. At the present, they will make their home in Ashland.
