Putnam Appeals for Teacher Return in Face of Shortage

SALEM, Aug. 6 (AP)—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Rex Putnam appealed yesterday to all former teachers to come back to their jobs to alleviate a severe shortage of teachers in Oregon schools. Putnam said many teachers, because of the small salaries paid them, have gone into defense industries or to teach in other states.

GLIDER SUCCESSFUL
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6 (AP)—An all-plywood plastic trainer glider, designed for a speed of 112 miles an hour, has been put through successful flights.

Norman Larsen, general manager of Bowlius Sailplanes, Inc., is non-magnetic and would be army approval, said the glider, made of non-strategic materials is non-magnetic and would be almost impossible for enemy listening devices to detect in flight.
