

PICTURE NEWS of the WEEK

COURTHOUSE ANNEX—Above are three views of the Legion hall, Fourth street and Klamath avenue, which was occupied this week following a remodeling program to provide quarters for various offices now using the courthouse. The upper picture shows an exterior view of the building. The other pictures show the Legion assembly room on the second floor, and a hall scene on the lower floor.

DUTCH QUEEN ADDRESSES U. S. CONGRESS—Describing the resistance of her people, Queen Wilhelmina told a joint session of Congress in Washington that "the fight goes on." To her left on the rostrum is Senator Alben W. Barkley (D-Ky.) and to her right Representative Sol Bloom (D-N.Y.), speaker pro-tem, and Vice President Henry A. Wallace. The man at the extreme left is an unidentified senate attache.

WEEDING ONIONS—This is the summer vocation of Iva Jane Haskins and Betty Kilpatrick of Merrill who are shown hard at work in the field of Don Hubble. They are paid 60 cents an hour for the work which they have undertaken in order to do their bit in view of the shortage of farm labor this year. Miss Haskins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Haskins. Miss Kilpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, is home for the summer from OSC where she is a junior majoring in home economics.

AN ALL-AMERICAN PARTY—You've seen lots of pictures of bombs being loaded on planes but this is the first picture you've seen of American airmen in England loading an American-made bomb on an American-built bomber for a hop over Germany. By now this 2000-pound bomb probably has already made its mark on German soil.

BOND BUYER—Charles Roberts, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Roberts of Weyerhaeuser camp 4 is shown with a $100 bond purchased from money saved during his year's service with the Herald and News as a carrier boy.

RECREATION CIRCUS PERFORMERS—This picture was taken last weekend at Victory House, Eighth at Main streets, and it shows performers from the recreation program circus doing their stuff on the Victory House program.

NAVY'S NEW LONG-RANGE FLYING BOAT—Maintenance men work on the Sea Ranger, new two-motored experimental long range Navy flying boat. Designated by the Navy as the XPBB-1, the Sea Ranger is heavily armed and is expected to have a longer range than any Navy plane now in service.
