

Elizabeth Baker Bride on Tuesday

Klamath Girl Weds L. Orth Sisemore in Morning Service at Sacred Heart Church

Elizabeth Baker, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite G. Baker of San Diego, became the bride of Mr. L. Orth Sisemore of this city in a simple ceremony read at ten o'clock Tuesday morning, August the fourth, in Sacred Heart church with the Rev. Father Timothy Casey officiating.

The bride chose a frock of sand crepe with a redingote of the same material with coffee brown trim. Her small felt sailor was of sand with brown trim and she wore a shoulder corsage of talisman roses and bouvardia.

Mrs. J. Truman Runyan was the bride's attendant. She wore a cactus green crepe frock with a matching felt hat, black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mr. J. Emmett Sisemore was his brother's best man.

Immediately after the service a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Humble where covers were laid for fourteen. Yellow, roses and white sweetpeas centered the table with crystal candlesticks holding tall white candles. The five-tiered cake centered the buffet and was placed on a lovely silver tray, an heirloom in the bride's family. Tall white candles in silver sticks completed the arrangement. Salmon pink gladioli were used in the living room.

Guests at the breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Sisemore, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sisemore, Mrs. Alexander J. Lyle, Mrs. J. Truman Runyan, Mr. J. Emmett Sisemore, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkerson of Medford, Rev. Timothy Casey, Mrs. Marjorie Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs. James Pelton and Mr. and Mrs. Humble.

Mr. and Mrs. Sisemore left for Diamond lake to spend the remainder of the week and they will return late Saturday to be at home on Lakeshore drive.

The bride has served as executive secretary of the American Red Cross, Klamath county chairman. She is a former student of the University of California and the University of Nebraska and for the past year has made her home in this city. Mr. Sisemore is a member of a pioneer Klamath county family, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Linsy Sisemore, and serves as district attorney.

MRS. ELLINGSON HONOR GUEST ON FRIDAY

Mrs. Roy Whitlatch and Miss Margaret West entertained Friday evening of last week for Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., when a group of friends presented her with a shower of gifts. The affair was given at the Whitlatch home, 1122 North Eighth street.

Bridge was played with high score held by Mrs. Melvin McCollum, low by Miss Dorothea Ellingson.

Guests honoring Mrs. Ellingson were Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Sr., Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, Mrs. Melvin McCollum, Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Thomas B. Waters, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, Miss Dorothy Buchanan, Miss Ruth Dunning and the hostesses.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED WITH PICNIC

Ramon Bell, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bell of Portland street, observed his birthday anniversary on July the twenty-eighth when he asked a group of young friends to Moore park for a picnic and wiener roast. The large table was decorated with flags and military toys. Ramon's guests were Donnie Sowell, David Maxwell, Roger Klahn, Paul Schraeder and Rodney Bell.

Mrs. Rosa Parkhurst of Springfield, South Dakota, has been here for the past month visiting at the home of her son, Mr. Harlan M. Parkhurst, 703 Mitchell street. She plans to leave Thursday for her home.

Miss Rose Macartney is spending this week as the guest of Miss Winifred Lamm at the W. E. Lamm home at Modoc Point.

Mrs. Lucille Kinderdick of Denver, Colorado, is here for a two months' visit at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick of Lavey street.

Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke and children spent the past week at Lake o' the Woods camping.

Home For Duration

Mrs. George Flitcraft
Leaves Puerto Rico in Late July

Greeted in Klamath Falls following a lengthy absence is Mrs. George Flitcraft, the former Marjane Daggett, daughter of Mrs. C. H. Daggett of Washington street. Mrs. Flitcraft arrived Friday morning of last week, flying from Puerto Rico to Miami, Florida, and continuing west over the southern route.

Mrs. Flitcraft has been with her husband, Sergeant Flitcraft of the United States air corps, weather division. She and other wives and families of men in the service have been evacuated from the Puerto Rico bases. Mrs. Flitcraft will be here for the duration at the Daggett home.

The Flitcrafts were married at nine o'clock in the evening on December the twenty-second of this past year at Losey Field chapel by Captain Charles Lack, chaplain. Since that time they have made their home in Ponce.

BERMANS HONORED BY FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Berman have been complimented at several informal affairs during the past week prior to their departure for LaCrosse, Wisconsin where they will make their home after residing here for more than two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Panning entertained at dinner last Saturday evening for the Bermans. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bertram were hosts at steak fry at their home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clement, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Panning and Mr. and Mrs. Max McKenzie. On Thursday evening the employees of Craig's entertained for the Bermans at Lakeshore where dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Max McKenzie will entertain with a Sunday morning breakfast for the Bermans, and on Friday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Watz at their home, 519 Eldorado.

PORTLAND VISITOR RETURNS NORTH

Miss Anne Avery of Portland, formerly of this city, left Friday evening for her home after spending a week in Klamath Falls as the guest of Miss Nora Rinker.

Miss Avery was entertained at a number of informal luncheons and on Tuesday evening was honored with a picnic supper on Upper Klamath lake. She was the honor guest at a meeting of TNT bridge club held at the home of Mrs. Phil Brixner on Lakeshore drive Wednesday evening.

The visitor has been in San Francisco during the month of July attending the term of court with Judge Claude H. McCollum.

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Merriman Jr., are spending this week on the northern California and southern Oregon beaches.

CAROL ANN

Little Carol Ann Colvin is the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colvin of 616 Conger avenue.

—Kennell-Ellis.

WEDDING DATE TOLD

Marjorie Lekberg will become the bride of Lieutenant Roy Rukhala of Rocklin, California, on August the sixteenth, it was learned at an announcement party given this week.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Betrothal Told at Party Wednesday

Marjorie Lekberg to Wed Lieut. Roy Rukhala on August the Sixteenth

The younger set was interested to learn of the forthcoming marriage of Marjorie Lekberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lekberg of 1930 Erie street, whose engagement to Lieutenant Roy Rukhala, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Rukhala of Rocklin, California, was made known at a party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Stewart Patty at her home, 346 Pacific Terrace.

The wedding date has been set for August the sixteenth in the First Covenant church here. Following their marriage the young couple will live in Berkeley until Lieutenant Rukhala receives orders.

The bride-elect attended Oregon State college and will complete her senior year when she returns to school in September. Lieutenant Rukhala was graduated from Oregon State college in June, 1942, after majoring at the school of forestry.

Mrs. Patty invited a group of friends to her home where she was assisted by Mrs. Charles Ollmann. Court whist was played during the evening with honors going to Miss Pat Butler and Mrs. Lowell Netzer. A buffet supper was served from a cleverly appointed table where colors were white and blue and the military motif was stressed. Announcements were written on small scrolls tied with bright bows.

Guests included Mrs. Don Digney, Mrs. Earl Sanders, Mrs. Lowell Netzer, Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Charles Ollmann, Mrs. Hilding Anderson of Mowich, Mrs. Fred Lekberg, Miss Faith Hunziker, Miss Barbara Sellers, Miss Ida Giovannini, Miss Clara Oetjen, Miss Pat Butler, Miss Virginia Morin, Miss Gloria Owens, Miss Dorothy Gilchrist, Miss Lekberg and the hostess.

FORMER RESIDENT IN SEATTLE

Friends of Mrs. Scott Milligan, the former Elizabeth Graham of this city, will be interested to learn she is contributing toward the national defense program by accepting a position in the Boeing Aircraft plant in Seattle. Mrs. Milligan is in the department now directed by another Klamath girl, Leota Beall.

Scott Milligan, former University of Oregon athlete, coach at Longview high school and assistant principal there, has enlisted in the navy program; physical training corps for naval air cadets. He expects to be called within a very short time.

Luncheon Date Set

Library Club To Have
Interesting Programs
For Year

August is wheeling by on well oiled wheels and after several months in which club work has been shelved for other efforts, those interested in the success of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club are thinking about the coming year's schedule.

The first meeting of the organization, largest women's group in the city, is scheduled for Monday, September fourteenth, in the Willard hotel, at which time the regular fall luncheon and flower show will be held. Mrs. Andrew M. Collier and Mrs. Harry Goeller are luncheon chairmen, Mrs. R. E. Oakes in charge of the flower show, according to Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Library club president.

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, program chairman, will present the 1942-43 program at this time. Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Sr., membership chairman, is going to open the membership campaign early in order that the club open the year in full force. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Ellingson's committee will meet at her home on Pacific Terrace to discuss plans.

Library club is open to all women of the county.

PARTY FOR GUESTS SATURDAY

Complimenting her daughter, Mrs. Shelby Calhoun of Los Angeles, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold King of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Mrs. J. F. King invited friends to a morning party on Saturday with luncheon served at one o'clock.

Those enjoying the affair included Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. King, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Guy Harmon, Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick, Mrs. B. M. Brabant, Mrs. Harry J. Land and Mrs. Luella Kinderdick of Denver, Colorado.

COPPAGES RETURN FROM MID-WEST TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Coppage and young son, John, returned late last week from a visit in the middle west. Mrs. Coppage and young John left in June for Omaha, Nebraska to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King. They continued to Minneapolis to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Coppage where they were joined by Mr. Coppage.

The visitors were also guests at the home of Mrs. Coppage's sister, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Gerretson of Willmar, Minnesota. En route west the Coppages were met at Glacier National park by Mr. and Mrs. John M. Budd and two sons, John and Bill, formerly of this city. They also spent one day with the Budds at their home in Whitefish, Montana.

Mrs. Russell Moshier of Sacramento, who has been the houseguest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitlock of North Sixth street, left for the south Thursday after a fortnight here. During her stay Mrs. Moshier was a guest at the Whitlock cabin at Odell lake.

SACRAMENTO VISITOR RETURNS SOUTH

Mrs. Moshier and her four young daughters, Marjorie, Patty, Marilyn and Betty, were evacuated from Honolulu one week after Pearl Harbor. Mr. Moshier, retired navy man, remained in Hawaii. Betty is now employed at the Mather Field air base in Sacramento where her family resides.

Mrs. William W. Norton, the former Hillis McCall, left recently for his home in Eugene after visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McCall of the Midland highway. Mrs. Norton was accompanied here by her three children, Jean, Jo Ann and John. Jean remained here for a visit with her grandparents and on Wednesday with Mrs. McCall and daughter, Mrs. Ernest M. MacBeth, (Jean McCall), motored to Eugene for a brief visit.

WEDS IN NORTH

Mrs. John G. Swan is the former Rachel Applegate Good of this city, member of a pioneer Klamath family. Mr. and Mrs. Swan will reside in Junction City.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Club Women Still Work

Red Cross Project
Completed by Golf
Members

Women of Reames Golf and Country club have not neglected their golf or their Red Cross work either, as evidenced by the amount of completed material they are turning out each Thursday when they meet to sew at the Merryman home. Next week they plan to start on hospital shirts after completing a number of women's blouses.

September the fourth, which falls on Friday, is the opening date for the fall playing schedule at Reames. This will be guest day and luncheon and cards are planned. There will be a sweepstakes tournament, best nine out of eighteen holes. Hostesses will be Mrs. E. P. Brosterhouse, Mrs. L. D. Stephens and Mrs. T. Frederick Farley.

During the past month of July, and during the month of August, the women have been playing and they will turn in their five best golf scores for these two months to the tournament chairman, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger. Regular play will be resumed in September.

The programs issued in the spring will be followed, the last meeting planned for October the thirtieth at which time there will be the annual election and fall luncheon.

REUNION ATTENDED IN ALBANY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg returned Monday afternoon from Albany where they attended the thirteenth annual reunion of the Murphy-Davidson clan, held Sunday, August the second, at the beautiful country home of C. H. Davidson, near Albany.

Members of the clan are direct descendants of Elijah Davidson and his wife, Margaret Murphy, who came to Oregon in 1850, and took up a donation land claim west of the present site of Monmouth. Elijah Davidson was one of the founders of the Christian College at Monmouth, which became the Monmouth Normal school, and is now called the Oregon State Teachers' college. Mr. Davidson was the great grandfather of Mrs. Wattenburg.

Through this Davidson-Murphy line Mrs. Wattenburg is a direct descendant of Francis Cook, the Pilgrim, who came in the Mayflower, and was one of the signers of the famous compact.

Mrs. Alberta McMurry, Eugene, past grand worthy matron of the Eastern Star for Oregon, is president for life of the clan organization. O. E. Davidson, Harrisburg, is secretary. About sixty were present at the Sunday gathering, coming from Seattle, Portland, Spokane, and other coast cities. A basket dinner was served cafeteria style in the grounds of the pioneer home. An interesting article on exhibit was a tie carrying the colors of the green and red plaid of this ancient Scottish, Davidson clan. The afternoon was pleasantly spent making and receiving introductions, listening to tales of earlier times, and to accounts of the services now being given by members of the clan in the present world war.

Dinner for Guests Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Long entertained at dinner Thursday evening at Lakeshore for Mrs. Lloyd Eldon Legg of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Butler, newcomers to Klamath Falls. Also a guest was Mrs. Harry J. Land. Cocktails were served at the Long home on Lakeshore drive before dinner.

Mrs. William W. Norton, the former Hillis McCall, left recently for his home in Eugene after visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McCall of the Midland highway. Mrs. Norton was accompanied here by her three children, Jean, Jo Ann and John. Jean remained here for a visit with her grandparents and on Wednesday with Mrs. McCall and daughter, Mrs. Ernest M. MacBeth, (Jean McCall), motored to Eugene for a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brandt and two children, Marilyn and George, are spending this week in Redwood City, California, with Mrs. Brandt's mother, Mrs. Clark.

Edward C. Lamm of Danville, Illinois, who has been the summer guest at the home of his uncle, W. E. Lamm of Modoc Point, plans to return to his home on Tuesday evening of this coming week.

Bridge Luncheon Given on Friday

Mrs. Tennant Hostess to Guests From South at Party in Pelican Room

One of the largest summer parties of the week was the luncheon and afternoon of bridge given Friday at half past one o'clock in the Pelican party room when Mrs. A. Douglas Tennant of Dorris entertained for the pleasure of Mrs. Harold King of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and Mrs. Shelby Calhoun of Los Angeles.

SYLVIA DEE ANN

Attractive little Sylvia Dee Ann Baker is the seven-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, formerly of this city and now residing in Bremerton, Washington. Mrs. Baker and her daughter are visiting at the home of her father, Mr. Jack Malatchi and friends. They will be here a fortnight.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MRS. WEST

Miss Barbara Sellers and Miss Margaret West entertained Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn, 1935 Huron street, with a bridal shower, complimenting Mrs. Don West, the former Dorothy Teed. In the absence of the recent bride, the gifts were presented her upon her arrival here this week from Louisville, Kentucky.

Bridge and ping pong were played with supper served at a late hour to Mrs. Byron K. Teed, Mrs. Cecil Whitby, Mrs. George Allenworth, Mrs. Hjalmer Johnson, Mrs. Walter Jendrzewski, Mrs. Earl Sanders, Mrs. Ernest Breithaupt, Mrs. Dwan McDonald, Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Klahn, Miss Dorothy Buchanan, Miss Maxine Johnson, Miss Beverly Siemens, Miss Frances Foster, Miss Patricia Clark, Miss Faith Hunziker, Miss Betty Ann Prudhomme, Miss Joyce Leach and the two hostesses.

Mrs. Frank Winchester of Seattle is visiting for a time at the home of her sisters, Mrs. Gerald West of Malin, Mrs. Claire Arnold of Klamath Falls, and her brothers, Thomas and Robert Elliott of this city.

Mrs. King flew to Medford Monday to spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Tennant. Mrs. Calhoun is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King of Alameda street.

Luncheon was served at one long table centered with red geum and gladioli and white asters. In bridge high score was held by Mrs. Fred Schweitzer, second by Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick and low by Mrs. Junior Wagner.

Those bidden were Mrs. King, Mrs. Calhoun, Mrs. B. M. Brabant, Mrs. Paul Peterson of Weed, Mrs. Opal Olson of Dorris, Mrs. Junior Wagner, Mrs. W. L. Owen of Weed, Mrs. J. F. King, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick, Mrs. Fred Schweitzer of Weed, Mrs. Nels Israelson, Mrs. Claude Olson, Mrs. Agnes Shaw, Mrs. John Olson, Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. Enoch Israelson, Mrs. Charles Flobert, Mrs. Less Chass, all of Dorris.

PARTIES HONOR VISITOR

Mrs. Elmer Kinderdick of Lavey street asked several friends in for luncheon on Thursday including Mrs. Stanley Ramage of Salinas, California, and Mrs. Lloyd Eldon Legg of Portland and Mrs. Harry J. Land.

Mrs. Ramage is a guest at the Willard while her husband transacts business here. They are former residents of this city. A number of informal affairs have been given for her during the past week. They were dinner guests at the Kinderdick home on Sunday and on Thursday evening the Ramages observed their ninth wedding anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Moty their thirtieth anniversary at a dinner at the Moty home. Mrs. Moty asked a few friends in on Saturday for luncheon honoring Mrs. Ramage.

Miss Jean Hilton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James F. Hilton, is the guest of Miss Ruth Landry at the Paul O. Landry summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

WANTED!
WOMEN COOKS!
To work in one of Klamath's best equipped kitchens. Must have experience in restaurant work. Apply in person.
MOLATORE'S

You Can Help Make Telephone Service Meet Demands of War

By keeping conversations BREF.
By being sure of your number before you call.
By using Long Distance for essential messages ONLY.
By using station-to-station service wherever possible for toll calls.

Your cooperation will aid in this national emergency because the demands of war have loaded our long distance lines and many of our local facilities to capacity and beyond.

Materials required to increase circuits and switchboards cannot be obtained—they must go into the making of weapons and munitions. It is not now possible to build more plant.

Therefore, we all are confronted with the necessity of getting the most out of what we have. In following the above suggestions, you can save yourself time and expense and you will help us keep the way clear for War Messages That Must Go Through.

We appreciate your splendid response in helping to meet these problems which involve the safety and security of us all.