

SUB SINKINGS BRING ABOUT STATE OF WAR

The countries of North and Central America all are already at war with the axis.

All the South American countries except Argentina and Chile have severed relations with the axis.

Brazilian notes to the foreign ministries of neighboring countries said acts of war by Germany and Italy had forced her to declare her belligerency.

The Argentine foreign ministry reported that the Brazilian note would be handed to President Ramon S. Castillo before Argentina adopted any new decision in view of the new Brazilian position.

High quarters said it was likely that Argentina would declare a state of non-belligerency regarding Brazil as she did when the United States went to war.

(Continued From Page One) at-home Americans are SHUT OUT from the drama of the war and so made to feel vaguely but effectively that fighting the war is the job of the INSIDERS and not the job of ALL the American people...

There is COMPLACENCY, of a sort, here at home. There is failure to realize how deadly serious it all is. There is pulling and hauling and advancement of selfish interests.

IF the flesh-and-blood story of the war could be told to all of us—simply, truthfully, dramatically—so as to bring it home to us in all its tremendous implications most if not all of these obstacles at home would vanish...

Tenoning Machine at Work

Merle Penhallin, of the Klamath Cabinet shop, is shown at work on a war order. He is operating a tenoning machine, tenoning rails for sash. In case you don't know, a tenon is a projecting member left by cutting away the wood around it for insertion in a mortise to make a joint.

Services for Mrs. Riley Monday; Friends Pay Tribute

Funeral services for Nellie Frances Riley, pioneer resident of Klamath Falls, will be held at Sacred Heart Catholic church on Monday. A requiem high mass will be celebrated, commencing at 9 a. m. Commitment services will follow in the family plot in Mt. Calvary memorial park.

"The many friends of the late Mrs. Nellie F. Riley were saddened recently to learn of her sudden passing at her new home on the Rogue river, near Grants Pass, Oregon.

"Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to her husband, Charles Riley, and her son, Charles Ferguson Riley of Sheppard field, Tex.

Russell Bros.' Circus Plays to a Crowded House

Before a crowded house of kids and grown-ups, too, the Russell Brothers circus came to town and went to town last night with the first of three weekend performances which should go a long way toward making Klamath Falls forget a recent succession of shows which have been regrettably more mediocre than meteoric.

From the grand inaugural procession to the final exhibition of the Seven Skyrocketing Escalantes, it was a sparkling display of customary but nonetheless fresh acts and routines from which we challenge you to pick the most outstanding.

JAP SEAPLANE BASE AT MAKIN IS DESTROYED

(Continued from Page One) and accomplished their objective of destroying seaplane installations. Following the action, the force withdrew, the admiral said, giving a different version than the Tokyo radio which broadcast that a landing force of about 200 Americans "had been repulsed."

Losses were suffered by the enemy in heavy bombing attacks dealt by their own confused aircraft which arrived from other bases to assist their beleaguered countrymen.

"Ships of our expedition gunned and sank one small transport and one gunboat," the communique said.

The surprise raid indicated that American forces are seeking out Japanese bases and strong points on some of the hundreds of enemy-held islands in the south Pacific area, for a continuous "stepping stone" offensive against the Japanese.

Little Business Plays Big Part in War Effort

TWO MARRIED MEN CHARGED WITH RAPE

Two married men have been charged here with rape and attempted rape in cases involving girls 14 and 16 years of age, District Attorney L. Orth Sisemore disclosed Saturday.

Arrested are Noble Pendleton, 28, charged with attempted rape, and William Leon Rowland, 24, charged with rape.

Pendleton and Rowland were arrested by state police Friday night after they allegedly picked up the minor girls on Shasta way and drove with them to a spot near the west side upper lake highway.

One of the girls is reported to have walked home from this place. Families of the girls, becoming concerned over their absence, notified officers who made the arrests.

The Ewauna Box company, we might add, is and has been turning out a wooden business which is going to all parts of our side of the world—speaking not geographically but beligerently.

They've established a production line system, too, we hear, that is both the envy and despair of other people in other places working on comparable orders.

What the wooden business is is a secret. We can't think of a better ending to all this talk of small factories turning out small products in a big war than the story of how the war department forces working on comparable orders.

On the Stalingrad front, the soviet radio said the red armies were launching one counter-attack after another, stemming the eight-week-old nazi power drive, and a broadcast beamed to board yesterday by the labor department.

to the Baku oil fields and the middle east.

German field headquarters said axis columns striking into the northwest Caucasus had captured the rail town of Krymskaya, only 20 miles from the Russian Black sea base at Novorossisk, while other forces dislodged the Russians from fortified mountain positions. The soviet fleet already has abandoned Novorossisk.

The nazi command described weather conditions and terrain as "extremely difficult."
