

Clubs to Resume Fall Session Soon

Merrill, Malin and Tulelake Groups Make Plans For Opening of September Meetings

MERRILL—Clubs and service organizations of the south end communities will swing into fall activities soon after the opening next month, energies to be centered largely on war relief work and the maintenance of projects that must be carried on in spite of world conditions.

The Merrill Library club, largest of the service organizations and responsible for continuance of the Merrill library, begins its fall session on September the third at the home of Mrs. Hugh O'Conner. The guests will gather on the spacious lawn and plans for the yearly program will be taken up.

The book committee following the summer lull will again function after the first meeting. Mrs. M. A. Bowman, president, announces that Velma Jean Bowman is serving as librarian succeeding the late Millie Stukel.

Mrs. Madge Carey, worthy matron of the Malin chapter, called a meeting for Thursday, September the tenth with the social club of the order to meet soon after that date.

September the second is the date set for the first fall meeting of the Altar society of St. Augustine's church at the home of Mrs. Jess Dieter, past president. The annual Christmas bazaar and entertainment that highlights the holiday season each winter will be planned.

The Lost River Garden club will visit the garden of Mrs. W. C. Bailey on Tuesday, August the twenty-fifth where the regular business session will be conducted, the members to cross the road to the Willard L. Smith home later for a tour of that delightful garden spot. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Bailey will be co-hostesses.

At Malin the Helping Hand society, which continues meetings both summer and winter, will center efforts on Red Cross work after part of the members return from "huckleberrying." Mrs. Charles Hamilton will be hostess on September the second. The society has just completed seventeen pairs of pajamas besides bedshirts, hospital gowns and girls' skirts.

Madeline Rossner, president of the state Rebekah assembly will pay her official visit to Merrill, September the fourth, visiting the Klamath Falls lodge also on September the third.

On the California side of the line the Winema club meets Thursday afternoon September the seventeenth, weather permitting, on the lawn of the Almo Newton home with Mrs. Willard L. Smith as co-hostess. Mrs. James Stevenson Jr., is president. Legion auxiliaries and church societies have continued work during the summer months.

CIRCLE MEETS AT BERRY HOME

The senior circle of the Community Congregational church held its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. S. R. Berry, 2105 Reclamation avenue, on Friday afternoon, August the twenty-first. Dessert was served at half past one, followed by the business meeting. Members present were Mrs. L. R. Harvey, Mrs. William L. Larson, Mrs. J. O. Harvey, Mrs. H. C. Brown, Mrs. Alta Randall, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. W. R. Nelson, Mrs. J. C. Marin, Mrs. Glenn Stivers, and Barbara, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. H. O. Lohr, Mrs. E. V. Haynes, Mary Eckstein, Mrs. James Lampropoulos, Florence and Nicky, Mrs. Lee Sutton, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell and Mrs. Berry.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. H. C. Brown and Mrs. E. S. Mitchell.

The next meeting will be on the third Friday in September (September eighteenth) with Mrs. Lee Sutton.

Past Matrons To Meet Friday

The final social meeting for the summer season of the Past Matrons club will be held Friday afternoon, August the twenty-eighth, at the Masonic temple and will be a dessert bridge.

Mrs. J. H. Poppy will serve as chairman for the meeting, assisted by the president of the club, Mrs. E. E. Smith.

The Thimble club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet next Tuesday, August the twenty-fifth, with Mrs. Anna McDonald, at 426 Michigan avenue at two o'clock. The afternoon will be spent at pinocle.

Daughter Born In Portland

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ray of this city are parents of a daughter, Sandra Jo, born at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland on Tuesday, August the eighteenth. The young arrival tipped hospital scales at six pounds and thirteen ounces. Both mother and infant are doing nicely. Sandra Jo's father is completing his training with the United States army air corps at Roswell, New Mexico. The infant's grandmother is Mrs. Ruth Turner who left Tuesday for Portland, and great-grandmother is Mrs. Clara Shaw of this city.

Friends have received word from Mrs. Eugene Williams telling of her arrival Wednesday evening in Wichita Falls, Texas, where she will spend a week with her husband who is in officers training at that post.

The Juvenile Neighbors of Woodcraft met Monday, August the seventeenth, at the home of Mrs. C. O. Dryden, 610 North Eleventh street. There will be no meeting on September the seventh as that will be Labor day, so the next meeting will be September the twenty-first.

SOJOURNERS TO HAVE ANNUAL PICNIC

Sojourners, their husbands and guests, will enjoy their annual outdoor dinner next Wednesday evening, August the twenty-sixth, at Moore park. The committee has planned an interesting evening starting with dinner at half past six o'clock.

In charge of the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Elliot, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Selby, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Long, Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Glascoe, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Pinnig, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Costello, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Marvyn Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Allan T. Fletcher, and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Yates.

Those planning to attend should telephone their reservations to Mrs. Elliot or Mrs. Harmon before Tuesday noon, August the twenty-fifth. Anyone desiring transportation to the park should also get in touch with Mrs. Elliot or Mrs. Harmon.

PRE-SCHOOL RUMMAGE SALE PLANNED

Plans are complete for the "back to school" rummage sale which women of St. Paul's Guild will sponsor on Saturday, August the twenty-ninth. The location will be announced Monday, according to Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, chairman.

Mrs. Kuykendall will be assisted by Mrs. R. Henry Anderson as cashier, and saleswomen Mrs. John Cashin, Mrs. Jeannette Ott, Mrs. R. S. Hopkins, Mrs. LeRoy Tyrrell, Mrs. Victor E. Newman and Mrs. Thomas Hampton.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met in the Knights of Columbus hall Monday evening, August the seventeenth, at eight o'clock. Following the business meeting the members and guests played Bingo, and a Dutch Treat lunch was enjoyed. There will be no meeting on September the seventh, as that will be Labor day. The next meeting will be on September the twenty-first.

BETROTHED

Beatrice Marchant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Marchant of Kerby, will wed Mr. Ray Jones of this city her parents have announced. The wedding will take place next spring. Until recently Miss Marchant lived in Langell Valley where she spent the past twelve years.

MISS M'CRA Y BRIDE IN PORTLAND

Miss Lucile McCray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. McCray of 1778 Gary street, became the bride of Mr. E. G. "Jack" Whitcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitcomb of Portland, in a ceremony read by the Rev. Earl B. Horsell at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Guerratz, 6645 SE 52nd street, Portland, on Saturday evening, August the fifteenth. A reception Sunday evening was held in the garden of the Guerratz home.

Miss Ann Whitcomb of Portland and Mr. Guerratz were attendants. The bride wore a coral silk jersey frock fashioned with a draped bodice and long skirt, and she carried a bouquet of fall flowers. The young couple will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. McCray has been employed with the Southern Pacific in Albany. Her husband is in defense work in Portland.

MRS. FIALA HONORED BY COURT KLAMATH

Catholic Daughters of America met Monday evening at the parish hall to honor Mrs. Charles Fiala, grand regent, who leaves this week for Vallejo, California, to join Mr. Fiala. Mrs. R. A. LaLonde was elected to the office of grand regent to replace Mrs. Fiala.

The honor guest was presented with a gift from the Klamath court. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Samuel P. Miller, Mrs. Stanley Pleser and Mrs. Otto Smith. The refreshment table was prettily appointed for the occasion and a social hour was enjoyed following the brief business session.

NILE CLUB TO HOLD MEETING SEPTEMBER 1ST

Resumption of activities by the Klamath Falls Nile club will take place at noon on the first Tuesday of September at the Masonic temple where a twelve o'clock luncheon will be served.

Members of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, who reside in the valley have been invited as special guests as this is one of the club's annual events. Bridge has been planned for the afternoon.

Serving as hostesses will be Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold, the president, Mrs. Harry Wayne, vice president, Mrs. Jerry Ricker, secretary, and Mrs. J. H. Poppy, a past president of the club.
