

DEWEY MAKES SECOND BID FOR GOVERNOR

By The Associated Press
Voters in California, Mississippi and South Carolina chose their candidates for state and congressional offices today, as Thomas E. Dewey renounced his 1944 presidential aspirations in his second bid for the governorship of New York.

Dewey, the former Manhattan district attorney who ran a close but losing race for the empire state's highest office in 1938 and who was a contender for the republican presidential nomination two years later, again became his party's candidate for governor at the state convention at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., last night.

Opposes Bennett
Opposing him will be John J. Bennett, Jr., state attorney general since 1931 who won the democratic nomination over U. S. Senator James M. Mead, and Dean Alfango, of the American labor party.

The labor party added 419,979 votes to the democratic total for Herbert Lehman when the latter defeated Dewey in 1938 by 2,391,286 to 2,326,892.

War Issue
California saw the pre-Pearl Harbor issue crop up again when opponents of six of the 19 congressmen seeking renomination accused them of going against the president's foreign policies before the war. Congressional candidates also will be chosen for three new districts created since the 1940 census.

Attorney General Earl Warren, seeking the governorship nomination on the republican, democratic and progressive tickets, attacked the defense program of Governor Culbert L. Olson, who sought renomination as a democrat. Other candidates for Olson's job were Fred Dyster, a critic of the closed shop, and Alonzo J. Riggs, proponent of free health service.

Drying Foods Is Economical, Satisfactory

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series of weekly articles on the preservation of foods, released through the cooperation of the Klamath county nutrition committee and the Klamath county home demonstration agent's office.)

Drying is one of the most economical and satisfactory methods of preserving. Drying consists of removing so much moisture from the product that spoilage organisms, even though present in the living condition, are not able to grow and multiply in it.

Only fresh, ripe, firm and perfectly clean food that is free from decay should be used in drying. The food should be washed and sliced or cut into 1/4 or 1/2 inch pieces for vegetables and 1/4 inch pieces for fruit. If the pieces are of uniform size they will dry more evenly.

Blanched
Most vegetables should be blanched in boiling water. To do this, four gallons of water should be heated to boiling point in a large kettle. Place one quart of prepared vegetables in a sugar sack or calender and immerse in boiling water for the time specified for each individual vegetable. The vegetables should be kept covered and should be agitated during blanching. They should then be removed from the boiling water and placed under cold running water until they are thoroughly chilled. Place prepared fruits or vegetables in thin single layers, not overlapping, on racks, trays or plates to dry.

Food is best dried by artificial heat, the desired temperatures being 140 degrees to 150 degrees F. for fruits and 140 degrees to 155 degrees for vegetables. Vegetables require a more steady uniform heat than do fruits since fruits are protected from spoilage to a certain extent by their acid and sugar content.

Time Varies
The drying time varies with the thickness and texture of the food. To obtain a uniform product stir and turn the product and trays several times during the drying process. Test the dried product by breaking a section in-

Make this jiffy knit of cotton (it costs about two dollars) or make it of knitting worsted. It's just the thing for that occasional jacket that's so serviceable at any time or for the campus wardrobe. Pattern 7388 contains instructions for jacket in sizes 12-14, 16-18; stitches; materials needed.

To obtain this pattern send 11 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture, but keep it and the number for reference. Be sure to wrap coin securely, as a loose coin often slips out of the envelope. Requests for patterns should read, "Send pattern No. _____, to _____, followed by your name and address."

to at the thickest part and squeeze from the broken end. If there is no moisture, the food is sufficiently dried.

Dried fruit should be leathery and pliable, and dried vegetables should be brittle when properly prepared. A variety of drying trays or cabinets can be made at home from old pieces of seasoned lumber, boxes and tin cans. Information on making of dryers and length of time to dry various foods may be obtained at home demonstration agent's office.

"Iowa" Will Make Debut Thursday

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—The greatest battleship ever wrought by American rivet hammers makes its debut Thursday when the 45,000-ton Iowa is launched.

Heavier by 10,000 tons than any other American man-of-war, the 880-foot battleship will go down the ways at the navy yard in Brooklyn seven months ahead of schedule. Its keel was laid on June 27, 1940.

INDIA SUBSIDIES
BOMBAY, Aug. 25 (AP)—Isolated flare-ups in the central provinces have caused another four deaths but in many important areas of the Bihar provinces, in the Ganges river region of the northeast, violence over India's drive for independence has subsided sharply, a British communique said today.

This day next year we may turn on the radio and hear that the Chinese Air Force bombed Tokyo in the morning, the U. S. Army Air Force bombed Tokyo at noon, and the RAF completed the day's job in the evening.—Gen. Ho Kuo Kwang, Chinese air defense commander.

Ask Paul O. Landry this question:

"With the cost of automobile repairs and replacements going higher every day, one traffic accident might damage my car so severely that the expense of repairing it would take all my savings. If I take a Deductible Collision policy on my car, will the insurance company stand the cost of all repairs above the deductible amount?"
