

Midland Empire News

CIC CLUB MEETS AT FORT KLAMATH

FORT KLAMATH—The regular meeting of the Civic Improvement club was held in the clubhouse on Friday afternoon, August 21, with Mrs. Frank Denton, president, in the chair and a good attendance of members and visitors present.

Following a short routine business session, a social hour was enjoyed, with the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. Charles Noah and Mrs. Edith Moon, serving refreshments to Mrs. Lee Ferguson and son John of Sand Creek, Mrs. M. L. Ferguson, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Bertha Pittman, Mrs. William Page, Mrs. Guss Page, Mrs. Lee Denton, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson and daughter Marie, Mrs. R. O. Varum and daughter Audrey, Mrs. William C. Hacker, Mrs. Art Nichols, Mrs. Fred C. Bishop, Mrs. Ray S. Loosley and daughter Joan, Mrs. Bert Gray and daughter Ann, Mrs. Carl Wilson, Mrs. Clara Beall, Mrs. William Brewer and Mrs. D. F. Lawton.

The next regular meeting of the club will be on the afternoon of September 4. Every Friday afternoon in the month except the first and third Fridays, which are regular meeting dates of the club members, are devoted by local women to sewing and knitting for the Red Cross. All women interested in this work are urged to attend and lend their help.

Fort Klamath

Mrs. Frank Edwards has returned to her home in Fort Klamath after spending some weeks visiting relatives in North Dakota.

Local people have been making trips to Huckleberry mountain for huckleberries during the past two weeks, and have returned with large quantities. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilmer, Mr. and Mrs. Guss Page and son Gene, were among those going to the mountain this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Knox arrived Monday to visit for a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilmer, while Knox is recuperating from an accident incurred while logging near Salem. His leg was badly hurt when caught between two logs, and he is on crutches as a result of the accident. Mr. and Mrs. Knox and his mother, accompanied by Mrs. Orville Schroeder and daughter Jacqueline, were in Klamath Falls Wednesday.

Guss Page of the Rainbow garage, was in Klamath Falls Monday for medical attention for removal of several pieces of steel from his eye. His wife accompanied him to Klamath Falls, and Page is back at work again.

C. J. Brisco and H. L. Wimer returned Monday evening from a week's trip to various coastal points. Brisco left again Tuesday for Seattle for a stay with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brisco, and Wimer returned to the coast Wednesday accompanied by his son, Donald. Both men suffer from bronchial asthma during this season of the year in Fort Klamath and have been ordered by their doctors to go to the coast for a time.

Langell Valley

Mrs. Ruby Brown and Mrs. Wes Dearborn and children, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and new daughter, Deanna.

Miss Frances Jones is visiting friends in Roseburg. Miss Dorothy Jones just returned from Seattle, where she has been visiting her brother Herbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Webb and family of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Moon of Bonanza, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Ora Johnson and Mrs. Anderson and Joyce of Langell valley visited on Saturday at the Al Dearborn home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burton and son Dickie of Albany, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Toner. Mrs. Toner is Mrs. Burton's aunt.

Clyde Johnson of Yuba City, Calif., is spending a month at the Harry Frazier home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brown and children were Sunday dinner guests of the Barney Browns.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Minnick, who have a new son, born at Klamath Valley hospital.

Martin Gift is recovering from a bruised foot and ankle, hurt by a ditcher going over the lot.

Alec Bradburn of Coos Bay, spent a few days with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Bradburn. He bought 40 tons of hay in the valley to have shipped to his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Murray

LAKEVIEW ELKS TO RECRUIT FOR NAVY

Under arrangements completed this week, the Elks lodge of Lakeview has agreed to act as volunteer U. S. navy recruiting station in that community.

Details were worked out by Chief Gunners Mate F. R. Duncan, recruiting officer for Klamath and Lake counties, and Dick Johns, exalted ruler of the Lakeview lodge.

The Lakeview lodge will provide information on the navy to interested men in Lake county, as well as preliminary papers. Transportation to the station will be furnished so that the enlistment may be completed, according to Duncan.

Thornton Gale of the Lakeview Examiner has agreed that the Examiner office can be used as a volunteer recruiting station.

Olene

John Sweeney has returned to southern California after a 10-day visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. E. Sweeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Brown and son Barton spent a weekend in Medford attending a rodeo which was held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Faith Grimes returned recently from Portland where they had taken their little daughter, Sue Ann, for a week of observation at Doernbecher hospital.

Mrs. Adah Brown, Mrs. Ida Grimes and Elizabeth Saunders spent Friday visiting at the home of Mrs. Joe Shirk at Willamson river. Mrs. Shirk is recuperating at her home, having just returned from St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, where she submitted to a major operation. Her many friends will be happy to know she is getting along nicely.

Miss Lella Sullivan is now residing in Medford. She is employed as a PBX operator for the Southern Pacific company.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Gebhardt and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes were dinner guests on Sunday evening of the Boyd Bruners at Henley.

Raymond Peart recently returned from a trip to Seattle. He accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Howard Grossen of Klamath Falls.

ANTIQUES ON ORDER

KANSAS CITY (AP)—W. C. Helmers, treasurer of a local manufacturing company, was puzzled by numbers and descriptions in an order from C. W. Empson, Russell Springs, Kas.

Customer Empson, it turned out, was using a catalog 40 years old.

Spool Pool

Evelyn Barton, Westinghouse office worker, carries armload of little things which help win the war. Salvaging typewriter ribbon spools by the thousands frees much metal for war production.

en leg last Monday when the horse he was riding fell with him.

Mrs. Hazel Schmoie of Harrah, Wash., left for her home on Friday afternoon after visiting relatives here for several days.

Mrs. Mary Slagle of Wapiti, Wash., arrived here last Tuesday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schmoie and relatives for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Horsley are the proud parents of a baby girl, born last week. This is their second child.

Dairy

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lee of West Dairy are the proud parents of a boy, born on Monday, Aug. 17.

Mrs. Sid Hall and Mrs. Virgil Schmoie and daughters Louise and Virgie Lee returned home Monday evening from Greenville, Calif., where they had taken Mrs. Eric Johnson. Mrs. Johnson spent two weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schmoie. Her mother has been seriously ill. While south, they all enjoyed a business trip to Reno, Nev.

Mrs. Claud Fraley has received word from her husband, who was called to duty with the naval reserve some time ago, at Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Harry Kolb, who has been taking care of her mother, Mrs. E. B. Schmoie, during her recent illness, was called to her home in Potosi, Calif., on Friday morning because of the sudden illness of her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Horsley entertained with a double birthday and wedding anniversary dinner at their home on Sunday, Aug. 16, in honor of their daughter Juanita and son-in-law, Leland Stoeshler of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Fred Hellbronner Sr., of Klamath Falls, enjoyed a several days' visit with her friends Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rueck.

Frank Tofell suffered a brok-

Sprague River

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Looper and children left the first of the week for Oklahoma, where they will spend a few weeks. Rev. T. Cole drove them in his car and will go on to Kansas City for a visit.

Miss Delores Cody of Klamath Falls is a guest of Miss Elsie Lively this week.

Miss Mary Gillette of Quincy has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Looper.

Mrs. Etta Kilgore entertained her brother, John Chastain of Portland, and her two daughters, Mrs. T. L. Bryant of Portland and Mrs. Guy Harky of Stockton, this week.

Mrs. Cowbrough returned last week from Shafter, Calif., where she was called by the death of her mother.

Roy Kilgore, who is stationed at Fort Ord, has been made technical sergeant.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parazzo spent last weekend at the huckleberry patch.

Lomer Detwiler, William Welford and Mike Short are enjoying a trip to Portland and the coast this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cadega and children spent the weekend in Reno.

The following women employees were initiated into the AFL carpenters' and joiners' union last Sunday: Nona Short, Johnny Lively, Dorothy Stone, Bessie Young, Martha Hayes, Bertha Gray, Leona Short, Ruth Premo and Helen Hansen. Mrs. Lively was named to serve on the advisory committee.

The local union is sponsoring a community picnic with everyone invited, to be held west of Sprague River August 30.

Donald Stanton is spending the week in Prineville with friends and relatives.

Jimmie Short, who has been employed on the Klum ranch all summer, is taking a vacation in Medford and Dorris before school starts.

Miss Ruth Seright is employed at the Glenger grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederic and sons of San Carlos, Calif., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Short.

Jim and Maurice O'Keefe shipped lambs from Sprague River Friday. Cox Bros. shipped a bunch last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Christensen and son moved to Portland Thursday, where Christensen will be employed in the shipyards.

Eathan Parrish is working in the ship yards in Portland.

Mrs. Charles Larcey and children have returned from near Portland, where they picked berries all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Heidrich and son of The Dalles, spent the weekend here. Gary Heidrich, who spent a month in Dallas, returned home with them.

CRIME PAYS—THE VICTIM

BEND, Ore. (AP)—Allen Grant thought it would be quite a chore to get the 17 cords of firewood he'd cut to his home 18 miles away.

Someone stole it, though, before he got it moved.

And when the thieves were caught, the court made them deliver the wood to Grant's house.

Mt. Laki

Irvin Dixon spent the past week with his mother, Mrs. Bessie Dixon. Young Dixon was on furlough from Fort Stevens, Ore.

In the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. Hugh Bronson, Sunday morning, a deputation team from the Christian Endeavor had charge of the services. The representatives were Geraldine Manning, Roberta Anderson, Joyce Landrum and Mickey Pearson. Rev. Bronson is attending a Christian Endeavor conference at Turner.

Mrs. Emma Keady has returned home from a nine-day visit with relatives at Aberdeen, Wash.

HE-MAN'S LITERARY CIRCLE

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Servicemen at ease in the USO recreation center were afraid they'd be called sissies. They refused to read women's magazines.

"We outwit them," confides Mrs. B. F. Raynes, USO secretary.

"We cut up the women's magazines, paste the articles in scrap books and the boys—all unknowing—read them avidly."

Benefit Dance Will Raise Funds for Fire Equipment

FORT KLAMATH—An event scheduled for Saturday evening, September 5, will be a benefit dance to be held in Guss Page's community hall, under sponsorship of the local Civic Improvement club.

The proceeds from the affair will be used to purchase fire-fighting equipment for protection of Fort Klamath property. At present, there is no equipment of any kind.

Use of the hall will be donated by Page, and the Swingerettes orchestra of Chiloquin has offered to play free of charge for the evening. Dancing will begin at 10 o'clock.

CAN'T STOP THE MARINES

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The marines have the situation well in hand on the recruiting front, too. They enlisted Irving Paul Adams and Shannon Lowell Doss after the two had worked six months as civilian clerks in the army's recruiting office here.

Quality Counts

Where Your Priceless Eyes Are Concerned

Only the best is good enough for your precious eyes! The finest lenses, frames and mountings from world-famous "Houses of Quality" are used in Standard Guaranteed Eye-Glasses—giving you the hidden quality so important to complete visual comfort. Be SAFE... be SURE! See the capable, registered Optometrist here for a complete eye examination NOW!

Shaw Stationery

WE HAVE
GRADE SCHOOL LISTS
Get Your Grade Supplies Early

Zipper Note Books
Note Book Filler Paper
Rulers
Triangles
Drawing Boards
2 Ring Covers
3 Ring Covers

Esterbrook Pens $1
Parker Pens $5 to $10
Pencils
Pencil Boxes
T Squares
Drawing Pencils
Drawing Ink

All School Supplies
Grade and High Schools

SHAW STATIONERY CO.

729 Main

Dial 5602

Stylish GUARANTEED EYE-GLASSES

PAY
NOTHING
DOWN

ONLY
$1.
A WEEK

NO INTEREST

NO EXTRAS

NO RED TAPE

You'll Be Frankly Told If Glasses Are Not Needed!

STANDARD OPTICAL CO.

The West's Largest
Manufacturing and Dispensing Opticians

OREGON . . . WASHINGTON . . . UTAH . . . IDAHO

715 MAIN STREET — Klamath Falls

DR. WILLIAM B. SIDDENS, REGISTERED OPTOMETRIST IN CHARGE