DEFENSE CALENDAR

Registration for the bomb reconnaissance school to be held in Klamath Falls Tuesday and Wednesday, September 1 and 2, will be held at KUHS at 9 a. m., September 1.

The two-day session will be devoted to discussions on how to deal with unexploded bombs; instructor will be Lt. Ehlers of the U. S. army. Section chiefs, members of the command sections, air raid wardens, auxiliary firemen and police reserves are urged to attend these classes.

There will be no fire defense school until the new motion pictures on fire defense are obtainable from the state office.

From Corvallis—The Rev. Victor E. Newman, now located at Camp Adair, Corvallis, is spending this weekend with his family and plans to leave Monday by train for Boston, Mass., where he will remain until October 1, attending chaplain school conducted for those serving in this branch of the service. Rev. Newman was rector of St. Paul's here. Mrs. Newman and son, Dick, drove home from Corvallis with Rev. Newman Friday after a brief visit at Camp Adair.

Recovering—Madeline Beals, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Beals of South Sixth street, is recovering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Holloway on Crescent avenue, following a tonsillectomy this week. Miss Beals plans to resume her teaching position at Wasco, Ore., this month.

To Shipyards—C. E. Newcom of Allamont drive, is leaving this week for Portland, where he will take a position in the shipyards. His wife and daughters are remaining here, where Mrs. Newcom will manage their grocery store on Allamont drive.

Return Home—Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke and Dr. and Mrs. James Hilton and their families returned this weekend from a holiday spent at Crescent lake. The Roenickes came home Thursday, the Hiltons on Friday.

Sold By the Name

The farmer boy standing along side fixed his eye on the hand saw.

You see the name Adkins on this saw?

The boy nodded. Well, you can call for an Adkins saw anywhere in the world and that name Adkins means that the saw will stand up. Same with Disston, another make of saw. So with Ivory Soap, Frigidaires and a lot more that we turn out. Made in the USA and good anywhere on earth.

Do you know of any other name that stands high, the world over?

The boy tried to think.

How about this name, The Lord Jesus Christ?

The fellow nodded. He had heard of Christ. So next in order came the words of the Apostle Paul—"I know WHOM I have delivered," said Paul, WHOM, mind you. A Living Person, WHOM. Then the chap listened to the verse in full—"I know WHOM I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day."

And did the boy also believe in Christ and had he committed all to the Lord? Had he turned the sentence of death that was upon him, over for Christ to handle? For all have sinned and the wages of sin is death. The boy looked puzzled at all this. He seemed never to have thought of Christ becoming so personal to a fellow. So a bit more for that lad and all of us turn over to Christ the page of life, soiled by many a sin and the blood of Christ will cleanse it. That done, surrender over the whole life for Him to use when and where He will.

SUM IT UP—Christ who knew no sin was born into this world to become sin for us. Elect Him to save you from the curse of the broken law. Take forgiveness and count your life-page cleansed in God's holy eyes. Then let Him be enthroned in your heart. He will abide with you and set up His Peace—Joy—Love. Peace that passeth understanding. Heaven's own joy. Love, even to loving your enemies.

With body scarred from stonings and lashings; with days of hunger and thirst, with cold and nakedness filling the chapter, we hear Paul shout—I know WHOM I have believed. If daily you will die to self and let Christ have the throne, you too will have that shout of VICTORY.

MAJOR BOWYER TO LEAVE HERE MONDAY

Salvation Army advisory board members bade farewell Saturday morning to Major and Mrs. Norman Bowyer, who will leave Monday for Phoenix, Ariz.

The advisory board met for breakfast at the Salvation Army hall, Fourth street and Klamath avenue. John Johnston, chairman of the board, presented Major Bowyer with a traveling bag and Mrs. Bowyer with a tablecloth as gifts from the group.

Major Bowyer said he would remain here until Monday in order to welcome his successor here, Major W. C. Currey, who comes here from Chicago. Major Currey formerly lived in Canada, and has been in the United States about 10 years.

Major and Mrs. Bowyer will be in charge of young people's work for the Army in Arizona and New Mexico.

At the breakfast meeting, Major Bowyer told the board that it had a reputation as being the best advisory board in Salvation Army work on the Pacific coast.
