

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

MRS. GUY PAGE of Grants Pass is standing in the doorway of the Alfred D. Collier home on LeRoy street visiting with Miss Phyllis Foster. Both assisted at the tea given Thursday afternoon for Miss Eleanor Collier. —Pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

GUESTS WERE GREETED by this attractive group of cousins at the tea given by Mrs. Alfred D. Collier on Thursday when the engagement of her daughter, Eleanor, to Lieutenant Frederick Ehlers was made known. Left to right, Dorothy, Phyllis, Eleanor and Carolyn Collier. Eleanor and Dorothy are daughters of the Alfred Colliers, Phyllis and Carolyn daughters of the Andrew Colliers.

Betrothal Told at Party in Portland

Lisbeth Ann Daggett to Wed Prineville Resident in Early November Here

A betrothal of much interest in Klamath Falls is that of Lisbeth Ann Daggett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett of Prineville and formerly of this city, and Walter Lidstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lidstrom, also of Prineville.

The engagement was made known in Portland when Mary Louise Vincent entertained for a group of Miss Daggett's Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters with an evening party. The news was told when guests found a lovely bank of gladioli over the fireplace and from each flower stem a pink ribbon held an engagement and wedding ring. In one ring was a small scroll with the names, "Lisbeth and Walt," and in the wedding ring the date which has been set for early November.

It is understood the wedding will take place in Klamath Falls where the Daggett family lived for many years.

Miss Virginia Bubb returned Thursday morning from Prineville for the announcement party.

Both Miss Daggett and her fiancé are University of Oregon students, Mr. Lidstrom a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. At the present he is with the Alexander Yawkey Lumber company at Prineville where the young couple will reside.

Miss Winifred Lamm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm of Modoc Point, leaves September the ninth for a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Edith Lamm of San Diego, before returning to Stanford to resume her studies.

Teddy Igl, young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl of North Third street, is improving at the family home following an automobile accident on the Lake o' the Woods road. Teddy may have visitors according to his parents.

Entertain At Home

Reeves Ask Friends to Call on Occasion of Anniversary

One of the gayest affairs of the week was the cocktail party given Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Reeves asked a large group to their home at 1825 Melrose street. The party observed the twentieth wedding anniversary of the hosts.

Fifty called between the hours of eight and twelve o'clock. Mrs. Reeves was assisted by Mrs. Paul Campbell and Mrs. Raymond Reeves, and Mr. Reeves was assisted at the punch bowl by Mr. Raymond Reeves, his brother. Red roses were used about the rooms.

MACKS TO MAKE HOME IN PORTLAND

Joining the ranks of the "going aways" are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack and young daughter, Rebecca, who will soon make their home in Portland. Mr. Mack leaves this weekend for the north where he has accepted a position in the defense program. Mrs. Mack and "Becky" will join him later although the Macks will keep their residence here.

The young couple have made their home at 521 Jefferson street and their many friends sincerely regret their departure for the north.

Miss Burton Weds in South

Klamath Girl Is Bride Of Lieut. Taylor at Texas Wedding

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth L. Burton and Second Lieutenant Ralph Pendleton Taylor, both of this city, was solemnized in one of the chapels at Camp Swift near Austin, Texas on Saturday afternoon, August the eighth, at one o'clock.

The Episcopal ring service was read by Lieutenant-Colonel J. August Borles, who was in the same regiment with Lieutenant Taylor at Seaford barracks in the Hawaiian islands. The traditional wedding march was played on the chapel organ by Sergeant Harrison, formerly of the Chicago opera.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. George Burton, and joined the groom and his best man, Captain Vogel Victor, at the altar. For her wedding the bride wore a sheer afternoon frock of shell pink, fashioned with long full sleeves, with hat and other accessories of white. For something old she carried an embroidered handkerchief of sheer linen, pink bordered, that was carried by her maternal grandmother at her wedding in 1884.

The young couple have taken a residence in Austin where they will make their home during the time that Lieutenant Taylor is stationed at the camp.

Mrs. Taylor who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Burton of 919 High street, is a talented violinist and appeared on numerous programs while attending school here. Lieutenant Taylor who also received his education in the Klamath schools is the son of Mrs. May Taylor of Klamath Falls and of Mr. George P. Taylor of Salem.

Engagement Announced

At one of the early fall's loveliest teas the engagement of Miss Eleanor Collier and Lieutenant Frederick Ehlers was made known when friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Collier, 1965 LeRoy street, on Thursday afternoon. Tea hours were from three to six o'clock.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Dorothy Collier, wearing a pink lace and net frock, greeted guests at the door and receiving were Mrs. Collier and Eleanor. Miss Phyllis Collier, cousin of the bride-elect, presented callers with small white cards on which were tied Cecil Brunner rosebuds and the names of the couple printed in gold.

For her betrothal party, Eleanor wore a blue net frock with bands of lace on the full skirt and a single lavender orchid at her shoulder.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt, Mrs. Andrew M. Collier, Carolyn and Phyllis Collier, Margaret DeBolt, Phyllis Foster, Janice and Virginia Bubb.

The tea table, centered with a bowl of Cecil Brunner roses and bouvardia, was lighted by white candles in crystal candlesticks. Presiding during the afternoon were Mrs. George McIntyre, Mrs. Victor O'Neill, and Mrs. Edward A. Coary.

Among the out-of-town guests was Mrs. Guy Page of Grants Pass, sister of Lieutenant Ehlers.

The bride-elect, who was graduated from the University of Oregon, this year completed her graduate work at Stanford university and will teach English in the Salinas high school this winter. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Lieutenant Ehlers is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers of Redmond, Oregon, and also attended the University of Oregon where he is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. At the present time he is stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco, and arrived this weekend to accompany the Colliers to Diamond lake.

EVENING PARTY FOR MRS. MERRYMAN

A delightful affair of Thursday evening was the bridge party and coffee given for Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr., who leaves Klamath Falls soon. The party was given at the home of Mrs. John Coppage with Mrs. John Shaw as assisting hostess.

Guests included Mrs. Merryman, Mrs. J. C. Lemire, Mrs. Charles G. Hovey, Mrs. James Busch, Mrs. J. Truman Runyan, Mrs. Frank P. Drew of Portland and Mrs. Greer Drew.

PORTLAND VISITOR IS JOHNSON GUEST

Miss Barbara Johnson will entertain this weekend at the E. D. Johnson summer home at Lake o' the Woods for the pleasure of her house guest, Miss Katherine Thompson of Portland, daughter of Mrs. Lair Thompson of that city. The two drove to the lake early Friday.

Other guests at the Johnson cabin will be Miss Phyllis Foster and Miss Carolyn Collier. Miss Thompson will return to Portland Tuesday.

Millers To Portland

Farewell Party Given Thursday at Hastings Home

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Miller and their two sons, Tom and David, who have made their home on Roseway drive for a number of years, will leave early Monday by motor for Portland where they will reside.

Honoring Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Rahlen C. Hastings and Mrs. Neal Stewart entertained at the home of the former on Lakeshore drive Thursday evening with cards. High score was held by Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, second by Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, and low by Mrs. Dick Reeder. Mrs. Miller was presented with a gift by the group.

Guests included Mrs. Miller, Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. Ted Shoop, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. George Clark of Portland, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Steiger, Mrs. Paul Foster, Mrs. Howard Hanville, Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, Mrs. George Auxier Myers, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Charles V. Rugh, Mrs. Dick Reeder and Mrs. Neil F. Black.

On Saturday, evening Mr. and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg and their family entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their sons at their home on Washington street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been active in civic affairs here and will be greatly missed by their many friends.

"What is Integrated Culture?" will be the topic of discussion at the first meeting of the year for Delphin club to be held at the home of Mrs. F. L. Weaver on Auburn street. Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt will be the leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt have returned from a week's holiday spent at Divinity beach, Waldport.

Mrs. Ferguson Returns From East

Well Known Klamath Falls Resident Greeted by Many Friends After Lengthy Absence

With so many nice people leaving Klamath Falls to make their homes all over the country, one place or another, it was delightful to greet Mrs. Twyla Ferguson who returned early Thursday morning after an absence of many months. Mrs. Ferguson came directly from Washington, D. C., to this city. She left here on April 18, 1941, and has enjoyed stays in many interesting places on the Atlantic coast.

Mrs. Ferguson is the house guest of Mrs. Rose M. Poole at her home on Conger avenue. She spent the past six weeks at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, and hopes to spend as much time at her summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

On Tuesday afternoon of next week, at one o'clock, Mrs. William Ganong will entertain at luncheon for Mrs. Ferguson in the Pelican party room.

HOUSE PARTY AT SUMMER RESIDENCE

Miss Jean Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Underwood of Seventh street, entertained for a group of the younger set at the family's summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

The group motored to the lake Friday and remained through Sunday. Jean's guests were Betty Lou Dalton of Malin, Ann Stevenson, Barbara Palmer, Barbara Brosterhaus, Mary Ann Grafton, Bonnie Hauger, Nancy Bennet and Joy Kent.

Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns and children, "Perky" and Frances, returned Thursday from Lake o' the Woods where they have enjoyed the greater part of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford and Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg are enjoying a vacation and motor trip in the south.