

Frances Foster To Be Sunday Bride

Attractive Klamath Maid Will Become Mrs. James Howard in Medford Presbyterian Church

Miss Frances Foster, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herman Foster of this city, will become the bride of Mr. James Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo James Howard of Klamath Falls, in a ceremony to be read at high noon Sunday, August the thirtieth, in the Presbyterian church at Medford.

The bride, one of the most attractive of the younger set, will be given in marriage by her father. She has chosen a dressmaker suit of wheat brown with plum accessories, a small pompadour hat and her flowers will be pinned to the lapel of her jacket.

Mrs. Dwayne McDonald, the former Yvonne Peterstener, will attend the bride. She will wear a sky blue wool suit with darker blue accessories and a shoulder corsage.

Mr. Charles Foster, brother of the bride, will be the best man.

Only a small number of friends and relatives will attend the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne McDonald, Mrs. Walter Beane and her daughter, Barbara, and Charles Foster will motor to the valley for the service. From out-of-town will come the bride's aunts, Mrs. Frances Beeson of Salinas, California, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Merrill of Seattle, and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Murphy of Eugene.

Following a wedding breakfast to the young couple will motor to Crescent City and then south over the Redwood highway where they will make their home.

During the past few weeks Miss Foster has been honored at a number of pre-nuptial affairs, including a shower in the Pelican party room Thursday evening of last week at which Mrs. Floyd Larson, Miss Mary Jane Metter and Miss Phyllis Aubrey were hostesses. Coffee was served from a table centered with flaming red gladioli. Guests included Miss Foster, Mrs. Jay Mayhew, Mrs. Dwayne McDonald, Miss Mary Louise Perdue, Miss Ethel McNulty, Miss Mary Ellen Hotchkiss, Miss Barbara Sellers, Miss Janice Bubb, Miss Virginia Ellen Smith, Miss Barbara Beane, Miss June Michelson, Miss Suzanne Michelson, Miss Wilmae Lehto, Miss Patty Schupp, Miss Betty Merrill, Miss Gloria Peterstener, Miss Betty Jane Sanders, Miss Jean Wiesendanger and Miss June Van.

A gay picnic supper and shower were arranged for the pleasure of Miss Foster on Friday evening of last week when Miss Jean Wiesendanger, Miss Patty Schupp and Miss Betty Merrill entertained at the Wiesendanger home on Earle street. Guests included Miss June Michelson, Miss Suzanne Michelson, Miss June Van, Miss Virginia Ellen Smith, Miss Phyllis Aubrey, Miss Wilmae Lehto, Miss Barbara Beane, Miss Mary Jane Metter, Miss Janice Bubb, Miss Joanne Siemens, Miss Patty Croup and Mrs. Floyd Larson.

Also given for Miss Foster recently was a kitchen shower at which Mrs. Alfred Peterstener and her daughter, Mrs. Dwayne McDonald, were hostesses at the home of the former. A buffet supper was followed by cards and the presentation of gifts. Honoring the bride-elect were Mrs. C. H. Foster, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. George Stevens, Mrs. Victor Palmer, Mrs. Harry Sprague, Mrs. Leo Howard, Mrs. Willard Dryden, Mrs. Guy Quackenbush, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. A. N. Wenner, Mrs. Byron K. Teed, Mrs. Nettie Wallan, Mrs. F. C. Clark, Mrs. Jay Mayhew, Mrs. Henry Shapleigh and Miss Gloria Peterstener.

Mrs. Kathryn Mervin of Los Angeles is the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Lorenz of High street. Mrs. Mervin, who teaches in the Los Angeles schools, will leave the first of the week for her home.

Mrs. E. M. Igl entertained informally for Mrs. Mervin when she asked several to luncheon at one o'clock. Mrs. Igl, Mrs. Lorenz and son, Glenn, and Ted Igl, enjoyed ten days at Lake o' the Woods at the Igl home, and were later joined by Mrs. Mervin.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Reeves entertained at their home, 1825 Melrose street, for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simmons of Eugene who were their dinner guests. Also present were Ted and Fred, the Reeves' twin sons.

Ceremony On Friday

Sprague River Girl Weds Soldier in Church Services

The Sprague River tabernacle was the scene of an eight o'clock wedding Friday, August the fourteenth, when Miss Olive Louetta Henke, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Tompkins of Sprague River, became the bride of Sergeant John Douglas Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lewis of Hazelton, Idaho.

The church was attractively decorated with a bank of fall flowers in the background. The service was read by the Rev. W. C. Cole before a large number of friends and relatives.

Given in marriage by her uncle, the bride chose a white net and taffeta gown for her wedding, the gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, short puffed sleeves and a full length veil held by a tara of pink rosebuds.

Miss Gloria Carnini was the maid of honor and wore a light blue frock of net and taffeta with a long, full skirt and puffed sleeves. Her flowers were gardenias and yellow rosebuds. The bridesmaid, Miss Vera Schmitz, wore a pale pink taffeta frock and carried gardenias and pink roses.

Just before the ceremony Miss Neva Ann Short sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Emma Tompkins who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Mr. Fronzie Parrish was best man and Mr. Len Vance was the usher.

Following the service a reception was held at the Tompkins home where the bride and groom cut a beautifully decorated cake, later served by the attendants. Also assisting were Miss Mary Lewis and Miss Neva Ann Short.

The aunt of the bride received with the young couple and Mrs. Tompkins wore a soldier blue dress with a corsage of gardenias and red roses. The young couple will make their home in San Francisco where the groom is stationed with the United States army.

JUNIORS TO MEET WITH MRS. KERNS

Mrs. James Kerns will entertain Wednesday evening, September the second, at the first meeting of the Junior Chamber league. She will be assisted by Mrs. John A. Shaw, Mrs. J. C. Lemire and Mrs. Rudy Jacobs.

Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen will preside over the meeting called for half past seven o'clock, and plans for the coming year's social program as well as work projects will be discussed. A board meeting was held Thursday evening of this week at the Mushen home, and a report on the session will be made Wednesday.

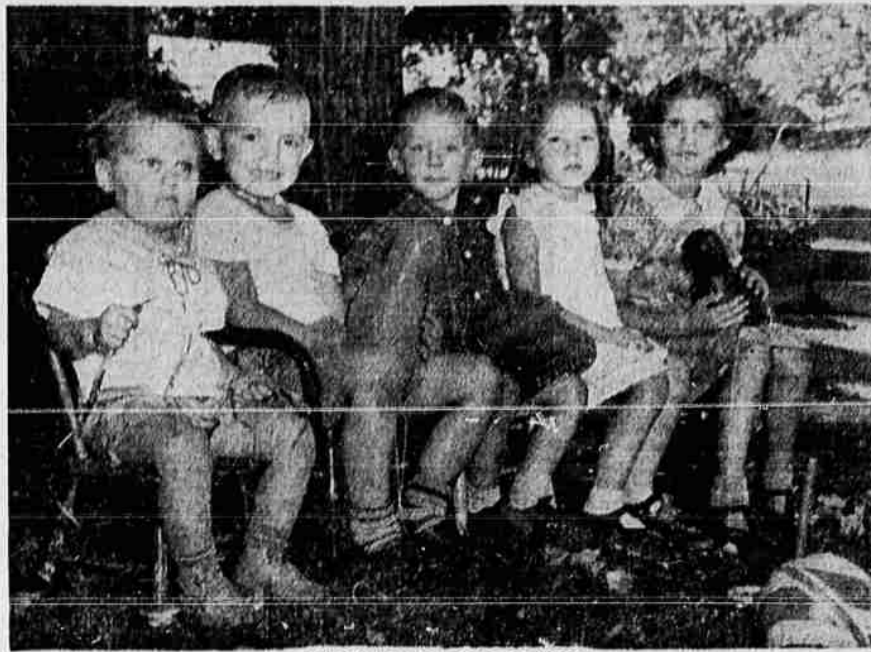

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Manning and two sons, Jim and William, have returned home from a three week's vacation trip to Everett and Seattle, Washington and points along the Oregon coast. They were accompanied by Mrs. Manning's aunt, Mrs. Carrie Joans.

Mrs. Bethel Lawrence who has spent the past two months in Klamath Falls as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Eva Jenks Olson, and visiting numerous friends, left Tuesday to return to her home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. James Dunham of Spokane, Washington is a guest in the city, visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dunham.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Purcell of Roseway drive motored to Portland last weekend where Mrs. Purcell remained for a fortnight's visit with her sister, Mrs. Olive Wells, and her niece, Donna Macartney.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dunn, former residents of this city, are being greeted by their friends during a short stay while Mr. Dunn is here on business. They are guests at the Hall hotel.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

The anniversary of Dickie Arnold, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Arnold of Canby street, was observed Saturday afternoon when a group of little playmates in the neighborhood called for ice cream. The affair also honored Marilyn Barth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barth, who leaves soon for Portland with her mother to join Mr. Barth. # Weeds Queen It At Monday Show

Garden Group Enjoys All-Day Session at Library, Club Rooms With Exhibit and Program

The sneeze weed and the sunflower, not too highly regarded by the amateur gardener as desirable in the cutting bed, but valued by those in the know in the business of flower arranging, held full sway at the annual weed show sponsored Monday afternoon by the garden study group of the Library club. The exhibit was held in the library club rooms and considered most successful.

There were thirty-eight exhibits entered by Mrs. Earl Redman, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. F. O. Small, Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, Mrs. Horace F. Getz, Mrs. Ralph Porter, Mrs. William Scott, Mrs. J. L. Beard, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mrs. J. H. Hilton, Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. L. A. Brannon, Mrs. G. A. Krause, and Mrs. Bert Call Thomas.

Arrangements were made combining wild flowers, seed pods, grasses and berries, the things commonly found along the roadside, in the meadows, and even skirting the railroad tracks! Weeds used included paint brush, water hemlock, curly dock, sneeze weed, sunflowers, swamp picricaria, winter plantain, knotweed, cinerifol, bull thistle, Blazing Star, false buckwheat, Rose Hips, chokecherry, eriogonum, cat tails, yarrow, goldenrod, arrow head, false dandelion, money plant, jimson weed, bur marigold, and beggar ticks. These plants were named by Mrs. F. O. Small, authority on wild flowers.

A paper sack lunch was served at noon and followed by a program at two o'clock with Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton presiding. She gave a most interesting review of the state convention held at Salem in June. Mrs. Lamb, state president of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, and Mrs. A. G. Proctor, told of some of the activities of other garden clubs in the state.

Mrs. G. E. Krause who led the discussion, "What I Am Doing In My Garden." She discussed the division of perennials, planting seed, pruning hedges and drying herbs from the garden. Mrs. T. B. Watters gave a demonstration of planting seeds in July for fall planting in the garden, and Mrs. Hugh Campbell gave a demonstration of dividing perennials. Mrs. Lamb showed slides of the wild flowers of Klamath county and moving pictures of the St. Helens garden which were exceptionally beautiful.

Mrs. William Scott and Mrs. Ralph Porter were in charge of the day's program. The garden group will sponsor the annual fall flower show at the Willard on September fourteenth, and the appearance here of Mrs. Laurence Aske who will give a series of three lectures on September ninth, tenth and eleventh. Those interested in the lectures, which will embrace the arrangements of fruits and vegetables, cones and greens, and flowers, may contact Mrs. Hamilton, phone 3220.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Collier and daughters, Eleanor and Dorothy, and Lieutenant Fred Ehlers of San Francisco, left Friday for the Collier summer home at Diamond lake. They will be joined by the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur L. Rice and son, Alan, of Tulare, California.
