

KLAMATH KOMMANDO
Coincident with the opening of the annual fall hysteria at KUHS comes a letter through the morning mail from a guy of whom we had all but lost track. First Lieut. Arthur W. "Snowy" Gustafson by name.

He's in Headquarters Third Army corps at Fort McPherson, Ga.—or was, because now he's apparently bound for a "hot, sandy" place.

But let's let him tell it:
"Dear Bob: Thought I'd drop you a line so you'd know where I am and what I'm doing. I am now with the Special Service section, Headquarters Third Army corps.

"Six weeks ago I was sent to special service school at Fort George Meade, Md., and after graduating was assigned to the Third Army corps.

"Now a little about Special Service work. We are responsible for the physical conditioning of troops and also their athletics and recreation. I have given special courses in judo, obstacle racing, etc.

"Last Friday I was alerted and am going overseas. Where is a military secret but I can say this—it's plenty hot there and the sand is terrific. When you receive this I'll probably be on my way.

"Last week I was recommended to my promotion as a captain which won't be heard to take as I've really worked hard for it.

"This will be my first season out of football for a long time and believe me I'll miss it as will lots of the boys who are in the service. I honestly believe football is a great developer for soldiers. Most of the athletes have gone a long way in the army and my whole football squad at Fort Ord are all sergeants or have gone to officers' training school. I receive letters from my former athletes—high school and Fort Ord—from all over the world and it's really great hearing from them and knowing that they are all getting along.

"I'm rather anxious to get started, although I hate to leave the family but I hope to get in a few digs for the gang at Klamath.

"My army experience has been interesting and I have had quite a varied career. After war broke out, as I was of troop age they sent me with the 17th infantry and as I had gone to M. P. school and they were activating the 203rd M. P. company I was sent there. We spent three months moving all the Japs in southern California to various reception centers and taking convoys through. ## Ecuadorean Tops Forest Hills Show

Segura Expected to Play First Round Match Today in National Net Tourney

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Aug. 29 (AP)—After two singularly dull days, during which even the old guard looked pained at times, the National Tennis Championships at Forest Hills should ginger-up considerably today, if only because Pancho Segura, fabulous little Ecuadorean, might finally show up.

It was especially announced last night that Segura, complete with two-handed forehand, positively would show up today to play his first round match against Ensign Ronald Edwards of Ithaca, N. Y.

Several other promising matches were on tap, too, in the second round of the men's event. Ted Schroeder, Jr., seeded No. 1, faced a stubborn opponent in Corp. Gilbert Hunt, of Langley Field, Va., and William Talbert of Cincinnati, met E. Victor Seixas, I of Philadelphia, perhaps the best of the east's young stars.

Additionally, the experts were looking forward to a meeting between Frankie Parker, now of Los Angeles, and Richard Hare of Miami—mainly to see if Parker possibly could have developed at the ripe old age of 27 into the great tennis player he looked yesterday in overwhelming Jack Geller of New York without the loss of a game.

We were ordered to Fort McPherson with the Third Army corps and from there I went to special service school, which incidentally was more Commando work than anything else.

"Well, Bob, when I get over I'll drop a line if I have time and let you know how I'm getting along.

"My regards to all my friends.

"SNOWY."

Beaver Frosh Ruled Out By Ed Atherton

CORVALLIS, Ore., Aug. 29 (AP)—Oregon State college was not counting on the football services this fall of Robert L. Keiser, ruled ineligible Thursday by Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner Edwin N. Atherton, athletic officials said yesterday.

Keiser played freshman football last season and worked out with the squad in spring training but was not expected to return to school this fall so his name was omitted for the prospects in the advance dope sheets, officials said.

Atherton said the engineering student from Hoquiam, Wash., was recruited by an Oregon State college student at the suggestion and with the guidance of a football coach—in violation of conference rules.

Salem Blanks Tacoma, 4-0 in Last Home Game

By The Associated Press
Salem played its last home game of the Western International Baseball league season last night, blanking Tacoma, 4-0, while Vancouver turned in a 4-1 victory over Spokane in the British Columbia metropolis.

The Senators and Tigers are idle today while the Capitanos and Indians play a doubleheader at Vancouver. Salem moves to Spokane Sunday for four days and then winds up the season, Sept. 3-7, with six games at Vancouver. Vancouver plays five games in four days at Tacoma starting tomorrow and then Tacoma finishes the season at Spokane September 3 through Labor day.

Only 300 persons saw Salem's final home game, with Ron Smith winning his 15th contest and holding Tacoma to five scattered hits.

Luckman, Galarneau PACA Pro Champions

By DAVE HOFF
CHICAGO, Aug. 29 (AP)—Coach Bob Zuppke's dream of a glamorous ending to his long career in football evaporated like the mists that all but obscured last night's annual All-Star game in Soldier Field.

His one-time pupil, George Halas, and the massive Chicago Bears' machine showed the old Illinois master no mercy before a record crowd of 101,100, walloping the Stars 21 to 0. The Bears won last year's game, 37 to 13.

The National Football league champions of 1940 and 1941, despite the departure of 10 star players for the armed forces, still have their Sid Luckman and their Hugh Galarneau and their other gridiron demons.

The Bears have now participated in four of the nine All-Star contests without suffering a defeat. They were held to a scoreless tie in the 1934 series inaugural.

Those who sat in the upper regions of Soldier Field did not see a single play of the 75-yard drive that netted the Bears their third touchdown in the third period. Fog obscured the playing field from view, but the man with the microphone dutifully reported Luckman completed a 58-yard pass play to Hampton Pool and that Galarneau galloped over from the eight-yard line.

In the first period Galarneau went over from the four-yard line to climax a 60-yard Bear power drive. The second period touchdown was made on a 23-yard pass from young Bussey to Pool. Joe Stydahar kicked all three conversion points.

Minnesota's Bruce Smith, probably the All-Stars' most consistent performer, directed two fierce thrusts in the second period that failed for want of a punch runner operating inside the 20-yard line. Notre Dame's Steve Juzwik drew the night's biggest cheers for a 91-yard sprint in the first period, six yards shy of creating an All-Star touchdown.

The game netted about $160,000 for army and navy relief.

Whirly Out for $10,000 Today in Trenton 'Cap

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 29 (AP)—Whirlaway, wonder horse of the turf, is expected to boost his total income to $468,000 today by romping to victory in the $10,000 added Trenton handicap at Garden State park. His present earnings total $458,336.

A record crowd of close to 40,000 persons, most of them lured by the thrill of watching the four-year-old chestnut put on his famous stretch run, is expected to jam the stands.

Lon Stiner Heads Back for Chicago For Beaver Practice

CORVALLIS, Ore., Aug. 29 (AP)—Lon Stiner, head Oregon State college football coach and one of those who directed the All-Stars in last night's game with the Chicago Bears, was expected back on the campus tonight.

Stiner informed Assistants Jim Carr and Luke Gill that he would fly from Chicago and start preliminary work immediately for grid practice which opens Sept. 10.

Gill, brother of Basketball Coach A. T. "Slats" Gill arrived recently from Hawaii, where he coached for several years to help Stiner coach the defending Pacific coast championship Beavers.

Meanwhile, the St. Louis Browns strengthened their hold on third place by nipping the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-4 in ten Disheartening as it may be to the Boston Red Sox, the citizens of Brooklyn and the manufacturers of medical supplies, it begins to look as if the New York Yankees will be able to finish the American league pennant race without the aid of an ambulance.

With their injury list crowded much of the time, the Yanks have done little better than break even since the start of the month, winning 15 games and losing 11 for an average of .577. But the cripples have started shedding their bandages and turning up at their regular posts, a situation that spells trouble for other clubs in the league and particularly the Red Sox, who have won 16 of their last 18 games in a desperate drive to overhaul the Yanks.

Two fugitives from a hospital bed took their places in the lineup yesterday as the Yankees applied their 17th whitewash job of the year, a 3-0 shutout over the crumbling Cleveland Indians.

Spud Chandler made his first start on the mound since Aug. 19 and demonstrated that he has recovered completely.

The victory kept the Yankees eight games in front of the Red Sox, who blanked the Chicago White Sox, 4-0, on the four-hit hurling of Joe Dobson.

Johnny Pesky, Lou Finney and Bill Conroy led the ten-hit attack on Buck Ross and helped Dobson to his third shutout.

Meanwhile, the St. Louis Browns strengthened their hold on third place by nipping the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-4 in ten

Pelicans Face Medford Ball Team Tonight

Klamath's Pelicans, second at the conclusion of the Oregon California loop pennant race and runner-up in the President's cup playoff, tangle once more with Medford tonight in the valley—this time for nothing more than the cash involved.

Or maybe you could call it a grudge battle.

By The Associated Press
Tail-enders in the Coast league, the Portland Beavers are playing baseball well enough this week to make the first-place Los Angeles Angels extend themselves.

The teams split a doubleheader yesterday as the Angels took the opener 8-6 and the Beavers' seven-inning afterpiece, 2-1. Eddie Mayo, Angel third baseman, doubled with two on to break up a six-all count in the eighth inning of the first game. Larry Barton, Beaver first sacker, homered for the winning tally in the nightcap in which Bill Schubei limited the Angels to four hits.

Two home runs by John ("Swede") Jensen, San Diego outfielder, helped the Padres blank Oakland, 5-0, as Al Olson, youthful southpaw, held the Oaks to four hits.

Jensen beat the Oaks, with his 11th circuit clout of the season on Wednesday. Yesterday his two homers accounted for four of the Padre scores.

San Francisco edged to within a game and a half of the upper division by walloping Seattle, 9-3.

The Seals scored five of their runs in the eighth inning in which Mike Budnick, second of three Rainier hurlers, filled the bases with two singles and a walk and was thumped from the game for arguing with Umpire Jack Powell over the base on balls.

Sacramento and Hollywood were idle.

MRS. BRODIE DOES IT

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 29 (AP)—Mrs. H. C. Brodie was preparing to drive at the Olympia Country and Golf club. Her caddy remarked casually:

"Watch this, Mrs. Brodie's going to make it in one."

She did. It was her second of the season.

Phil Marchildon Is Philadelphia's Star Hurler--He Gets $35 Per Week for His Work

Ace Forced To Send Pay To Canada

By BURTON BENJAMIN
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Aug. 27—How would you like to pitch for the Philadelphia Athletics at $35 a week?

Phil Marchildon calls it the most discouraging assignment in baseball.

The stocky Philadelphia right-hander, a 13-game winner for the worst club in the league, is required by law to send all but $35 of his weekly stipend to his Canadian bank. He cannot spend a dime of it in the United States.

This war-time measure has made Marchildon the most frugal player in the game. Fellow Canadians Dick Fowler, who rooms with Marchildon when the A's are on the road, and Oscar Judd of the Boston Red Sox, are similarly restricted. Both are married however, and get extra compensation.

Marchildon was just another uniform commuting between the Philadelphia bull pen and the pitching mound last season. He won 10 and lost 15. For his efforts he received an allowance of $25 per week, which was hoisted this year when he found it impossible to meet expenses.

YANKEES ONLY TEAM HE HAS NOT BEATEN

His pitching has improved this season out of all proportion to his $10 increase. The 28-year-old sophomore has beaten every team in the league but the Yankees and along with rookie knuckleballer Roger Wolff has accounted for more than half the Athletics' successes. Only Tex Hughson of Boston has won as many games.

He won six of his first eight,

Phil Marchildon . . . allowed $35 a week for his stellar pitching.

started as a catcher in an amateur league at Pennefants. He became a pitcher, labored in the nickel mines at Sudbury and played on the mine team.

CREDITS BRUCKER AS PITCHING TEACHER

He drifted to Dan Howley's baseball school at Barrie and on the old Cincinnati catcher's recommendation was given a tryout by the neighboring Toronto club of the International league.

He won 15 and lost 22 in two seasons at Toronto and was surprised when Connie Mack, exercising a working agreement, brought him to Philadelphia's training camp in the spring of 1941.

He credits Earle Brucker, the former catcher who is on the Athletics' coaching staff, with making him a winner.

"The muscles in my shoulder were so hard," he explains, "I wasn't following through. Brucker insisted that I follow through on every pitch, and I loosened up and began getting some pretty good stuff."

SAYS HE'D WIN 20 GAMES WITH YANKEES

How many games does he think he could win with the Yankees?

"I don't see how I could miss 20," he says, almost wistfully. "It's not only my hitting—although a few runs would help—but it's that infield. Give a pitcher guys like Gordon and Rizzuto to grab those ground balls behind second, and he works with a helluva lot of confidence."

Marchildon, 26 and single, will join the Canadian colors after the season. He's looking forward to putting on a uniform.

Stopping the nazis is an immense task, but it should be right up Phil Marchildon's alley. Did you ever try to stop seven other American league clubs with the Philadelphia infield behind you?

All-Dixie Army Team Faces Pros in L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29 (AP)—It will be an All-Dixie football team that cagey Maj. Wallace Wade sends onto the U. S. army coliseum turf tomorrow afternoon to represent the Los Angeles against the ponderous Washington Redskins of the National Professional league.

Curious inspection of Maj. Wade's starting lineup might lead to the hurried conclusion that the former Alabama and Duke coach believes all the gridiron talent lies below the Mason-Dixon line. But that would be doing the hard-bitten major a grave injustice, because he has a very good and solid reason for starting those southerners.

Those who insist on making odds on all sports events have installed Washington a 1 to 2 favorite, despite the fact Wade had one of the grandest collections of former college stars ever assembled. Rigorous army life has them in splendid physical condition and Wade has driven them tirelessly to try to get the important element of timing.
