SERIOUSNESS WAS LEGION MEET KEYNOTE

TULELAKE — Dynamic W. C. Sawyer of Arizona, vice-commander of the national American Legion presiding over the California state convention August 16 to 19 at Los Angeles, warned 3000 delegates that the United States faces a long war unless the masses dispense with luxuries and get down to serious effort. Marvin Thomas, second vice-commander of the Tulelake post, who returned this week from convention headquarters, stated that the convention keynote was one of seriousness with little fanfare. He was accompanied south by Mrs. Thomas, president of the Tulelake auxiliary, who attended the state auxiliary convention meeting in Los Angeles.

Leon E. Happell, Stockton, was elected state Legion commander succeeding Robert F. Garner, San Bernardino. The next convention city for 1943, barring wartime restriction, will be San Francisco.

Attending the convention from Tulelake also were Joe Zumpfe and Frank Graham.

Mrs. Cloney Elected
Legion headquarters were the Hayward hotel and convention sessions were held in Philharmonic hall.

Mrs. George E. Cloney, Eureka, was elected state president of the auxiliary to succeed Mrs. Monica Forrester of Humboldt county who, according to Mrs. Marvin Thomas, was one of the most inspiring convention chairmen.

Large Attendance
Sessions of the auxiliary convention also were conservative, with a larger attendance than anticipated. Convention headquarters were in the Embassy auditorium and the auxiliary headquarters were at the Biltmore hotel.

Governor Culbert L. Olsen and Los Angeles mayor attended a number of the meetings and were present also for the banquet in the Biltmore for delegates and their husbands.

Mrs. Charles K. Weise, Tulelake, was a delegate.

Mrs. Jerry Sisemore entertained the Wednesday night contract bridge club on Wednesday evening at her home at the Sisemore ranch west of Fort Klamath, when the regular twice-monthly play of the group was enjoyed.

Late summer blooms from Mrs. Sisemore's flower garden lent a colorful touch to the occasion. Two tables of contract were in play until a late hour, when Mrs. Eldon Brattain was given high score and Mrs. Alfred Castel, second high. Delicious refreshments were served her guests by the hostess at the close of the game.

Playing were Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. William Zumbur, Mrs. Eldon Brattain of Klamath marsh, Mrs. Fred Zumbur, Mrs. Alfred Castel, Mrs. Harold Wimer, and the hostess, Mrs. Sisemore.

For the next regular evening of cards, Mrs. Taylor will entertain the members of the club at her home at the Fort Klamath hotel on the evening of September 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton O. Dicken of Chicago, Ill., spent Wednesday and Thursday on a pack trip to Diamond peak with John Melton, of the Odell lake packing station. Unfortunately the weather was bad and the visitors woke Thursday morning to find two inches of snow on their tent. They are spending the remainder of this week at Wilderness ranch.

Roy Temple, godfather to most summer home people of Odell lake, has lost both of his helpers and is at present a one-man whirlwind, as he keeps the repairs on lake boats and homes under control. Of his helpers, Stub went to the army and is stationed in the middle west where K. P. seems to be his lot, while Allen is working on a barge between The Dalles and Portland. Stub cooked for himself at Odell for years and hoped he would get away from the kitchen in the army.

Funeral services for John Moran, Antelope sheep man who was killed a week ago near Umil siding by a S. P. freight train, apparently while trying to get some sheep off the tracks, were held in The Dalles this week. Mike Cunyon, of Kilts, who accompanied Pete Moran and Eddie Cunyon here Saturday to see about Moran's sheep, stayed and is herding them until other arrangements can be made. Cunyons formerly ranged in the Willamette forest during the summer and passed through this country en route.

A. L. Aikins, who has been spending two months at the Collins ranch moved to his son's summer home on Crescent lake Friday. He expects to go out soon to be with his daughter, Ruth, who recently broke her wrist and is coming north from her home in Sacramento, to visit in Oregon until she is able to resume her work as a commercial artist in Sacramento.

The rain which fell lightly Thursday morning seems to have passed on and Friday's skies were clearing. Stock still look fine and Moran's lambs are due to be shipped from Umil siding about September 8.

Martin Daly, of Bend, shipped 404 wether lambs from siding last week. Delivery was taken by South and Kester, of Redmond, for Idaho buyers. Daly kept his ewe lambs. He also delivered lambs from two other bands to these buyers at Crescent siding, east of the town of Crescent.

ARITHMETIC
RICHMOND, Va., (AP)—John Titmus, Richmond linotype operator, settled back comfortably in the barber's chair and asked for a shave.

"Sorry, no shave," the barber said.

"Four haircuts an hour and I have $2; four shaves an hour and I have $1.

"But you can get one across the street."

It's Purely a Question of Time

TYRON, N. C., Aug. 31 (AP)—All those questions on the selective service questionnaire didn't mean much to a Tyron youth, who couldn't read well anyhow.

"So, in uneven red pencil strokes he wrote across the front of the questionnaire: 'I'm ready when you're ready.'"

WISH WE WERE HERE
LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Ulysses Roberage were rather apologetic about accepting that $100 bond for having the largest family at a patriotic rally.

"I just wish we could all have been here," said Mrs. Roberage. Only 15 attended, three of the older children couldn't make it.

Loss of Machine Gun Was Gain for Periled Fliers

MELBOURNE, Aug. 31 (AP)—A machine gun falling from an American bomber sheared off the propeller of a Japanese Zero plane causing its destruction at Milne bay, a Melbourne Herald war correspondent, has cabled.

F. C. Folkard, the writer, said the story was vouched for by Gunner Sergeant J. P. Papp and others on the bomber.

Papp said the bomber came so close to another plane that he feared the machines would collide. He made a sudden move to adjust his life preserver, accidentally giving his machine gun a wrench. There was no collision, but screws holding the gun broke.

"The gun fell out. I almost following it in my effort to save it," Papp told the correspondent. "Looking down, I was startled to see a Zero, 200 feet below and coming up at us fast to make a belly attack."

"Now this may sound incredible, but that falling gun hit the Zero's propeller, which was knocked to pieces. The Zero kept coming a moment and then dove straight down to the water."

LUMBERMEN URGED TO FIGHT SHORTAGE

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 31 (AP)—Pacific northwest lumbermen should combat the labor shortage aggressively—go into eastern non-defense areas for manpower, Col. W. B. Greeley, secretary-manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, urged last week.

Addressing 150 Willamette Valley millmen and loggers, he warned that heavy demands for lumber would continue "until a definite decision in the war is reached."

Two billion board feet monthly are required to fill army and navy orders, plus an additional one-half billion feet for essential civilian needs, he said.

Urging lumbermen to come through in their "special obligation in the war effort," Greeley stressed the importance of turning out the technical grades of lumber demanded for specialized war purposes.

He praised mills for the way they have undertaken the production of technical grades and said the output of these "tough items" must continue for the industry will face the prospect of government "super priorities" which will put this classification ahead of all other types.
