

By GUESS and BY PSYCHE
According to the best of advices seeping from Klamath Union high school, through a route which can be termed as no better than devious, football practice began there yesterday. Or was scheduled to begin. We don't know precisely on account of there is now a full-fledged publicity department operating at KUHS. Just like downtown. Only maybe not so crowded and certainly a lot less direct.

We have been informed that we are to ask our questions of the Office of KUHS Information which in turn will relay them to the coaching staff which in turn will pass the answers back to the OKUHSI which in turn—well, well just wait in line. It is a notable step forward. A communique is expected most any time, possibly.

Meantime we'll tell you a little about the "B" league. Seems there's going to be football there after all. The gentlemen have decided to follow that branch of the government which recommends physical fitness rather than that which bans tires if school buses are used for athletic endeavor.

Carroll Howe, our informant, says we'll all know more about it after Friday when the Klamath County Principal and Coaches association gather for its first fall meeting.

However, right now apparently Mallin, Merrill, Bonanza and Henley will comprise a four-team "B" circuit. Chilquin, out there next door to nowhere, won't be represented, and Gilchrist, next door to Chilquin—to continue the figurative—says they'll play anybody who happens up that way. Because it's 100 miles. It's hardly likely anyone will.

In the matter of talent, we don't know. War and the potato crop are bound to hit the smaller schools heavily. Merrill's Huskies may lose Warren Walker, an all-county guard in his sophomore year. He's helping out in his brother's service station and there's no spare available.

Frankie Calise and our Mr. Howe, two of the best devious routes in the field today, reveal that KUHS' Pelicans will be bolstered by the addition of Gordon McKay and Doug Clement. But the loss is Henley's for both of 'em starred for the Hornets last year and that before.

McKay is a six foot-five inch powerhouse who can sling a football 60 yards, heave a discus 135 feet and tear off a 220 in close to 23. He weighs 225 pounds and if he can learn to start with any degree of celerity may plug the KUHS hole left by the graduation of Gne Love.

Clement is a 195-pound tackle. Lost through graduation, but just as well lost to Henley, is Dean McKay, Gordon's 200-pound brother who enters the University of Oregon shortly.

Nope, no word yet... So would you like to hear about Mr. Dee Hill of Athens, Ala., and how he landed a 300-pound catfish after fighting it for two days and two nights?

He said he caught it on a line strung across the Elk river. He couldn't bring it to heel so he tied two cedar posts on each end of the line, tossed 'em in the river and followed the posts until the fish gave up a mile and a half after entering the Tennessee river.

But you'll have to get the Associated Press to prove it. They told us about it. Guess we'll have to wait 'til tomorrow. Must have been a detour in a devious route.

Five Hurlers Eye 20 Major Loop Victories

Cooper, Passeau Win 18th As Cards Shade Braves, 4-3; Cubs Trample Giants, 10-5

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

There has been no Bobby Feller around this season, threatening the Sacramento ranks of baseball's 30-game winners, but it looks like the major leagues will have their full quota of 20-game pitchers.

Right now Mort Cooper and Rube Johnson of the Chicago Cubs, Tex Hughson of the Boston Red Sox and Ernie Bonham of the New York Yankees seem almost certain to cross the line that is considered the mark of a successful pitcher.

Cooper and Passeau won their 18th victories yesterday, Hughson nailed his day before, and Beazley and Bonham have 17.

Cooper came through last night against the Boston Braves with a 4-3 triumph that kept the Cardinals within 3 1/2 games of the first place Dodgers.

He needed a little lift to beat the Braves and this may have inspired him to crack out a pair of singles, one of which drove in two of the St. Louis runs. In addition he spaced nine hits, fanned seven and walked none.

Brooklyn had placed the issue squarely up to the Redbirds by winning an afternoon tussle from the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-2 on the five-hit hurling of Kirby Higbe. It was the 14th triumph for the Dodger righthander, who never before had beaten the Pirates as a starting pitcher.

Passeau's 18th victory was by a 10-5 score that snapped a six-game winning streak of the New York Giants. The veteran was rapped for 13 hits and his teammates contributed to the confusion with five errors, but Passeau never let the Giants get out of control.

Cincinnati completed a sweep of its four-game series with the tail-end Phils with a 4-3 verdict achieved in the 11th inning when Frank McCormick singled with the bases loaded.

The Washington Senators won the day's only game in the American league in the same fashion as James (Mickey) Vernon singled with the sacks filled in the 10th to nose out the Cleveland Indians 4-3.

Big Bobo, Majors' Migrant, Glad to Be Bum, Sees Wins

By ARDEN SKIDMORE

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2 (AP)—Big Bobo Newsom, the one-time American league pop-off, glad to be one of the Brooklyn "Bums" after a stay with Washington, hopes to pitch a half dozen games for his new teammates in the stretch drive between the Dodgers and Cardinals for the National league pennant.

The powerful right-hand pitcher was as quiet and docile as the best-trained movie producer's yes-man when he reported to Manager Leo Durocher at Forbes field yesterday.

"I'm not making any predictions," said Bobo, speaking in a different tone from that of two years ago when he twirled 21 victories against five defeats for Detroit and helped the Tigers win the American league pennant. "But I'm sure glad to be here after a term in Washington."

"I hope to pitch five or six games for the Bums this year. I'm not saying I'll win them all. But I'm not saying I'm going to lose 'em all either."

Durocher, smiling a broad welcome, promptly announced he would use Newsom today against Cincinnati.

"From here in," said Lippy, "our starting four will be Wyatt, Higbe, Davis and Newsom. Bobo has a rubber arm. He's a workhorse. He's been around a long time and knows what it's all about. So he'll take his regular turn. And if he can win three ball games for us, he'll be a good investment."

Newsom has played for 13 clubs in eight leagues.

By The Associated Press
Ted Norbert, top Pacific Coast league hitter, is setting a fast pace for Portland batters who have been pounding out head-aches for late season opponents.

These hits were frequent at Portland yesterday, but it was the Beaver left fielder's two-run homer in the ninth that tied the Sacramento Solons and enabled Portland to win, 10-8, in 11 innings.

Marvin Owen, who collected four hits in six tries to beat Norbert by one safety, broke up the tie with a two-run circuit clout.

The Beavers, who won three from the league-leading Los Angeles club last week, pounded four Solon hurlers for 17 blows to 14 yielded by two Portland chuekers. Buster Adams clouted a two-run homer for Sacramento.

The loss put the second place Solons three full games behind the Angels, who combined three Oakland hurlers for 16 hits and a 7-3 win.

Hits were few at Hollywood where Manny Perez and Tom Seats each yielded five singles with Perez' tight hurling in the clinches enabling the Stars to win, 2-0, from San Francisco.

San Diego was en route to Seattle for a series opening today.

Spokane continued to make a race out of the third place position in Western International Baseball league standings last night with a double win over the Salem Senators, 3-0 and 3-2, while Tacoma won another from pennant-winning Vancouver, 2-1.

The double win at Spokane left the Indians three games behind Salem, was the third straight victory over the Senators. The series will end tonight.

A Murray O'Flynn limited the Solons to two hits in the opener while the Indians were getting five. Salem outhit Spokane 10-7 in the nightcap but was unable to buntch its blows effectively.

Bertelli Will Lead Notre Dame T Attack

LEAHY, MOROSE, SEES TOUGH SLATE, SCANT CHANCE FOR UNDEFEATED SEASON

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 2 (AP)—Angelo Bertelli, one of your favorite football players last year, is going to be the slingshot in Notre Dame's revived operation of the "T" formation this fall, and if that isn't enough to scare the Irish's 11 opponents, a few rods from Coach Frank Leahy should complete the pre-season paralysis deal.

Gloomy Frank, who toils the bell most mournfully just before Notre Dame's first game puts on its biggest demonstration of power and technique, foresees a "representative year, six or seven victories, but only if we get past Wisconsin in our opener."

Without a doubt the Irish have bitten off a terrific chunk of football schedule for 1942, but remember how the Irish went unbeaten last year, with only a tie with Army to mar the record? That was Leahy's first season at Notre Dame and the success he enjoyed—feeling his way as he had to do—was a tipoff that he may do even greater things this year.

While the Irish undoubtedly have their eyes only on that September 26 opener with the Badgers as practice gets under way today, there's a formidable slate beyond, reading in this order: Georgia Tech, Stanford, Iowa Naval Pre-Flight school, Illinois, Navy, Army, Michigan, Northwestern, Southern California and Great Lakes.

The sharp passing Italian boy, Bertelli, opened many an eye last year with his aerial ability as a sophomore, and there's no reason to think his effectiveness will be dimmed by the use of the "T." Angelo will be at quarterback, feeding the ball to other backs and throwing forward and lateral passes.

With a good supply of reserve material, Notre Dame should be able to keep up a fast offensive pace every minute it has the ball, all of which hints to a T-terrific season for the Irish.

Portland Teams, Corvallis, Astoria In Softball Semis

CORVALLIS, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Oregon State softball tournament moves into the semifinal round tonight with Astoria meeting Corvallis and two Portland teams, Butler Construction and Grimshaw's, fighting it out in the other bracket.

Astoria moved into the select company last night as Clarence Hosler cracked out a home run with the bases full to defeat Albany, 6-3.

Corvallis advanced by smashing Cottage Grove by the same score after a big fifth inning that netted five runs.

Hurler Tosses 10 2-3 Innings of No-No But Loses, 1-0

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Sept. 2 (AP)—Allie Reynolds pitched 10 2/3 innings of no-hit ball for Wilkes-Barre of the Eastern league last night—but lost in 11 innings.

Elmira won, 1 to 0, when Reynolds allowed a walk and a sacrifice, then granted a single which scored the lone run.

VICTORY BELL BANNED

PORTLAND, Sept. 2 (AP)—The victory bell will not signal University of Portland football triumphs this fall.

The Rev. Charles C. Miltner, president, ordered the clapper removed.

"There can be no real victory," he explained, "until our boys have returned victorious from the battlefields of the world."

15-Year-Old Small Fry in Net Quarters

Shirley Fry Captivates Crowd At Forest Hills; Bob Falkenburg Lose.

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—There always is something immensely appealing about a youngster competing against grown-ups, and little Shirley Fry of Akron, O., already is the sentimental choice to win the women's national tennis championship at Forest Hills.

Shirley is an appealing, shining-faced kid of only 15 who already has won her way to the quarter-finals. It is doubtful that Shirley will get any further, however, because her next opponent will be Pauline Betz of Los Angeles, the tournament's second seeded woman player.

In a way, Shirley seems allied to Bob Falkenburg, the 16-year-old boy from Hollywood, in this wartime championship. The crowds in the stadium, lacking the super-stars of other years to watch, have turned to the kids for their thrills.

Late yesterday, young, tow-headed Bob and his partner in the mixed doubles, Miss Mary Arnold of Los Angeles, engaged in a losing mixed-doubles match in the stadium against Ted
