REV. BROWN TO START LECTURE SERIES SUNDAY

Rev. Cecil C. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, Eighth and Washington streets, will begin a series of interesting and timely messages at 11 a. m. Sunday.

The messages will be presented under the general theme, "The Great Crises of This Hour." Rev. Brown states that he will deal with the greatest issues of human history in these sermons. Each message will follow in sequence and the series will cover the whole pattern of world events. He states that the prophetic outlook is significant, as the armies of the world converge on the near east. The pastor believes that the present world picture, together with a quickened interest in prophetic teaching, will make such a series a matter of vital concern.

Sunday morning Rev. Brown will speak on, "The Crisis of the Nations." This sermon will cover the present chaos and the far reaching effects of the war on our civilization.

SURE SHOT

FRANKLIN, Ind. (AP)—Pvt. Johnny Campbell, who was a star on the Franklin high school basketball team in 1939, still knows how to score a goal.

As he was riding through Franklin on a train, he wrote a note, wrapped it around a pocket comb and tossed it out a window.

His parents picked it up in their backyard.

ENTIRE MEAT INDUSTRY TO BE LICENSED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—In a move designed "to prevent the evasion of existing and forthcoming price regulations," the office of price administration shortly will place the entire meat industry, except for retailers, under unified licensing control.

Announcement of the licensing program last night followed the beginning of court action against approximately 115 meat packers and wholesalers to compel compliance with price regulations.

Alleging "up-grading" or "plain and simply overcharging" OPA began filing injunction suits in 18 cities throughout the country, and said additional actions would be filed in other cities as the investigation continued.

Suspension Provided

Effective September 8, OPA will automatically license all packers, wholesalers and custom slaughterers, and make the license a required condition for selling any meat product subject to price regulation.

Dressed hogs, beef, veal and lamb carcasses, and almost all wholesale and retail cuts except mutton, now are subject to such regulation.

The order provides for suspension of licenses in the event of violation of regulations. Retailers were excluded from the order because they already are licensed under the general maximum price regulation.

"Big Four" OPA said it had received complaints from all parts of the country that price regulations were being ignored by packers and wholesalers and that inferior cuts were being sold at prices exceeding established ceilings.

The "Big Four" of the Packing industry—Swift and company, Armour and company, Wilson and company, and the Cudahy Packing company—were among the defendants.

SENATE APPROVES HAMM APPOINTMENT

Final approval was given Thursday by the senate to President Roosevelt's appointment on July 13 of Frank Hamm, former Klamath Falls police chief, as U. S. marshal for Oregon. Only formal notification now stands between Hamm and the office now occupied by U. S. Marshal J. T. Summerville in Portland, it is understood.

Since his resignation as police chief here, Hamm has had an extended "vacation," while his appointment was confirmed by the senate, sent to the judiciary committee, then back to the senate for final action. "I'm getting pretty tired of doing nothing," he said today. "I'll be glad when it's all settled and I can go to work."

August Postal Receipts Show Slight Drop

August postal receipts were less than $300 under those for the same month last year, the comparative figures being $11,671.98 and $11,951.98, according to R. L. Griffith, assistant postmaster.

They were less than in July when $13,097.07 was taken in but the decline appears to be seasonal, since a drop was also recorded last year at the same time and of about the same proportion.

OREGON CAVES CLOSES

PORTLAND, Sept. 4 (AP)—The Portland chamber of commerce reported today that Richard L. Sabin, manager of the Oregon Caves resort, had advised it of the resort's closing on September 8 for an unspecified number of months. Sabin said he hoped to retain one or two guides for a longer time.

MEXICO CRACKS DOWN

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 4 (AP)—Axis aliens living in the coastal and petroleum zone were given an additional month today to move to the center of the country, but were warned this third extension of a month would be the last. Interior ministry sources said the extension was made to permit the aliens to dispose of their property.

Here's pick-up work that fairly flies for each motif's in 8-to-10-inch cross-stitch. Think what a welcome gift just a pair of these would make at a bridal shower or house-warming. Pattern 7338 contains a transfer pattern of six motifs averaging 5 by 7 inches; materials needed; stitches.

By Alice Brooks

To obtain this pattern send 11 cents in coin to The Herald and News, Household Arts Dept., Klamath Falls. Do not send this picture, but keep it and the number for reference. Be sure to wrap coin securely, as a loose coin often slips out of the envelope. Requests for patterns should read, "Send pattern No. followed by your name and address."

BIBLE SCHOOL HEAD TO BE GUEST HERE

Maria Wolf, director of summer Daily Vacation Bible school work at the Simpson Bible institute of Seattle, will be the guest of the Bible Baptist church, Ward and South Sixth street Sunday.

Miss Wolf will address the Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., and will also be the guest speaker at the Young People's Fellowship at 7 o'clock.

"Can America Be Saved," will be the subject at 11 o'clock, at the close of which the communion service will be observed. "The Magnetism of the Cross," will be the subject at 8 o'clock, with Rev. G. W. Wheatley speaking at both services.

The public is cordially invited to attend any and all of the services of the day.

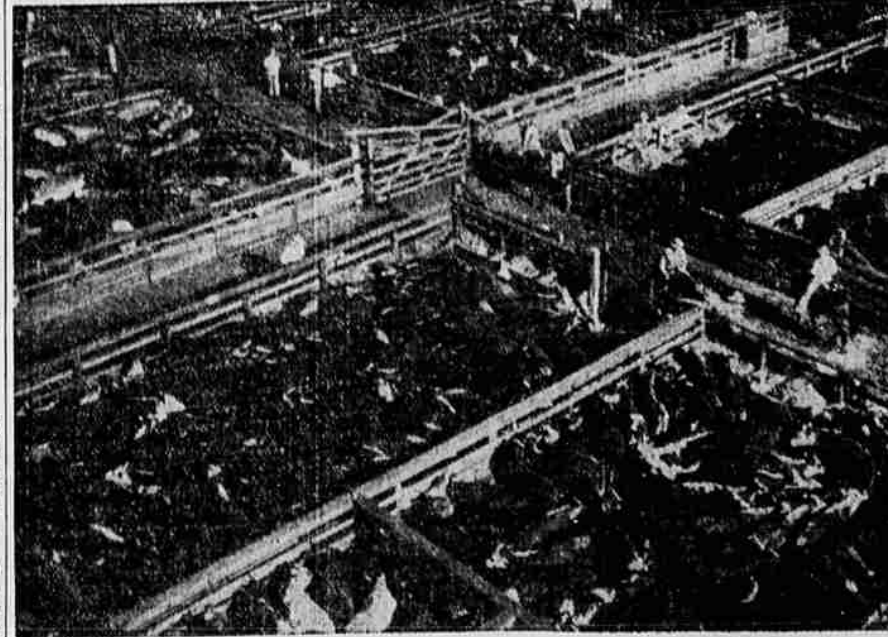

Counterfeited Half Dollars Flood Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 4 (AP)—Arthur F. Grube, secret service agent in charge here, says an estimated $25,000 in counterfeit half dollars have been passed out here in the last three weeks, largely around defense plants.

"These coins are so cleverly made of almost worthless alloys that they ring true but can be detected by a greedy feeling caused by their lead base," he said.

Grube said the trail of the counterfeiters, picked up in New England, was followed to Chicago and then here, with reports that the local headquarters was in a building carrying the sign: "Defense Plant—Keep Out."

Cattle Flood Kansas City Yards

Talk of a ceiling on livestock brought the greatest rush of cattle to the Kansas City market since 1934. Thirty-three thousand head of cattle were in the yards. This is a view of a section of the crowded pens.
