

Society

By Lois
Stewart

THIS BUSINESS OF SCHOOL is pretty serious for Eleanor Ann who has to say goodbye to brother Jack every morning as he steps off to Riverside. Jack is another first grader. Papa and Mamma are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock of North Second street.

ON THEIR WAY are these first graders at Roosevelt, Sara Hart, (left) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart, and her very dear friend, Ann Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Henderson. Both are just six and up to their ears in school work this first week.

—All pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

MOST FUN OF COMING HOME from school for this year's first graders is the snack which Mommie has in the kitchen. Ruth Alberta Roenicke, (left) daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, brings Marilyn Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brandt, home for a glass of lemonade after a day at Roosevelt.

Vows Exchanged in Candlelight Service

Esther Cecelia Nesset Becomes Bride of Donald Blackwell Hunt on August 23rd

A lovely bride of late August was Esther Cecelia Nesset, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf C. Nesset of Culbertson, Montana, who became Mrs. Donald Blackwell Hunt in a ceremony read in Trinity Lutheran church at Culbertson at six o'clock, the evening of August the twenty-third. The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt of Klamath Falls and with his bride returned Wednesday to this city.

Vows were exchanged before an altar banked with garden flowers, the candle-light ceremony read by the Rev. Henry B. Mathison. Mrs. Leonard Moen sang, "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me," accompanied by the violin and piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a corset brown tulle with a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. R. W. Campin was the bride's attendant and Mr. Campin served as best man.

A wedding dinner was served in the banquet room of the Glacier grille where the bride cut a beautifully decorated cake. A large number of friends of the young couple attended the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt motored through Yellowstone National park on their honeymoon and are now at home, 517 Alameda street. Upon their return to Klamath Falls, Dr. and Mrs. Hunt entertained with a family dinner party at their home on Pacific Terrace.

Mrs. Hunt is a graduate of Trinity Lutheran hospital in Minot, North Dakota, and has made her home in Klamath Falls for the past year. She is the sister of Miss Ingrid Nesset of this city. Mr. Hunt attended the University of Oregon where he is affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

Friends are greeting Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor and young son, Robert, who have returned home after a stay in Goldendale and Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Van Vactor is now a member of the Joseph Conger teaching staff.

Lieutenant Fred Ehlers, who has spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier of Leffoy street, left Thursday evening for Portland where he will continue his lectures on bomb demolition.

Lessons Wednesday

Mrs. Aske to Conduct Classes Under Auspices of Garden Club

Much interest has been shown by women of Klamath Falls who are anticipating the arrival of Mrs. Laurence Aske of Helena, California, well known authority who comes here to conduct a series of lessons and lectures on flower arrangement.

Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, president of the garden study group of the Klamath Falls Library club, is taking reservations for the lessons and may be called at 3220. All women of the city are invited to attend.

The first lesson will be given Wednesday, September the ninth, at half past one o'clock in the library club rooms. Time and place of the other two meetings will be announced during the week.

On the first day students are advised that they will do actual work under Mrs. Aske's supervision. The lectures will cover flower arrangements, cones and greens, and fruits and vegetables. All three promise to be most interesting and those who worked with cones and greens last year to deck their tables and homes during the holiday season will more than likely enroll in this able teacher's classes.

Mrs. Aske will also judge at the annual fall flower show to be held September the fourteenth at the Willard.

Here for the duration is Mrs. Charles A. Bailey, the former Patricia "Mickey" Woodruff, who is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff of Auburn and Mesa streets. Petty Officer Bailey is now stationed at Kodiak, Alaska.

RAGLANDS VISIT AT COLLIER HOME

Greeted in Klamath Falls this weekend are Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ragland of San Francisco who arrived Friday for a week's stay at the home of Mrs. Ragland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier of Pine Grove.

Mrs. Ragland is the former Marie Collier. Corporal Ragland will leave for the east coast where he reports on September the eighteenth for officers' training. Mrs. Ragland will accompany her husband.

Old Friends Gather

Mrs. Brett Honor Guest at Party Given Saturday Evening

Mrs. Harold M. Brown entertained with a party at her home, 1937 LeRoy street, on Saturday evening of last week honoring Mrs. Joseph Brett of Los Angeles who has been visiting in Klamath Falls at the home of her brother, Mr. Coleman O'Loughlin of Lakeshore drive.

Bidden to greet Mrs. Brett were a group of old friends who have not met for more than twenty years. The women once belonged to a dancing club known as "The Klatawa Club," and parties were held when the old White Pelican hotel was in its hey day. Snapshots and pictures of a number of years ago were exhibited by the group and a topic of conversation was the clothing worn by the belles of the Klatawa club.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. Brett, Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mrs. Elsie Siemens, Mrs. Harry Goeller, Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill, Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. Alfred Collier, and Mrs. Elmer Hosking.

Women of Reames Open Fall Session

Mrs. Harry Land Named Winner of Friday Morning's Play of Golf Course

Women of Reames Golf and Country club gathered at the attractive clubhouse and on the greens Friday to observe the opening of the 1942 fall program following a summer's holiday. The weather was perfect for golf and twenty were on the course and more than sixty enjoyed luncheon which was followed by bridge.

Hostesses for the opening day were Mrs. Beauford E. Hayden, Mrs. Charles V. Rugh, Mrs. E. P. Brosterhouse and Mrs. L. D. Stephens.

Mrs. Harry Land was winner of the best nine out of eighteen holes, played in tournament during the morning hours and starting promptly at nine o'clock.

Luncheon was served at tables centered with lovely fall flowers and later progressive bridge was played with high score held by Mrs. W. O. Smith, second by Mrs. E. P. Ivory. It was announced that progressive bridge would be played during the coming fall months.

Among the guests of the day were Mrs. Max Forsythe of Menlo Park, California; Mrs. Richard S. Carter of Berkeley, Mrs. Frank Jennings of San Francisco, Mrs. Holmes Bell of Santa Maria, California, and Mrs. W. C. Dalton of Malin.

The next gathering on Friday, September the eleventh, hostess will be Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams. There will be a two ball foursome in the morning with high and low handicaps, according to Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, tournament chairman.

Representatives of the various church organizations including the vestry, will take part in making plans for the affair.

NURSES TO MEET ON SEPTEMBER 10

Reports from delegates to the state convention, Mrs. Howard Strode and Mrs. Vincent Held, will be heard at the first meeting of the year for members of the Oregon State Nurses association, District No. 8, at eight o'clock Thursday night, September the tenth, in the city library club rooms.

All members were asked to attend the gathering, first of the fall months.

Luncheon Tuesday

Mrs. Ferguson Honored at One o'Clock Party at Pelican

Mrs. William Ganong was hostess at a delightfully appointed luncheon at one o'clock on Tuesday in the Pelican party room honoring Mrs. Twyla Ferguson who has returned here after an absence of more than a year.

Following luncheon Mrs. Ferguson discussed her stay in Washington, D. C. where she watched the capitol at work during war time, and she also told other interesting experiences during her stay on the east coast.

Mrs. Ganong's guests, seated about a long table centered with late fall flowers, were Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Rose M. Poole, Mrs. Edward Hall Pike, Miss Frances Howard, Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm, Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mrs. E. A. Geary, Mrs. A. D. Addison, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. George Stevenson, Mrs. E. A. Thomas, Mrs. Stephen Sabo, Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. Howard Perrin and Mrs. Avis McConnell.

Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Poole, whose cabins at Lake O' the Woods are side by side, left Friday to spend the weekend at the lake.

Saturday Party For Mrs. Merryman

Many Friends Invited to Say Goodbye at Attractive Tea This Weekend

One of the most delightful parties of the early fall was the tea given Saturday afternoon from three to six o'clock for Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr., when Mrs. Henry Gerber and Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., entertained at the home of the latter on Pacific Terrace.

Southern Visitor Here

Friends Greet Mrs. Gillenwaters During Brief Stay

Mrs. Theodore R. Gillenwaters and daughter, Ann, arrived Saturday morning from the south en route to Washington, D. C. where they will join Major Gillenwaters and make their home this winter. While here they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby of North Fifth street. Eddie Gillenwaters is with his grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Gillenwaters of Goldendale, Washington, and will join his mother in Portland when she leaves here Tuesday night.

Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby is also at the home of the Martin Ramsbys, having returned to Klamath Falls this week after spending six weeks at Odell lake with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Martin. The Martin cabin has been closed for the winter and Mrs. Martin has returned to Piedmont, California, for the winter. Mrs. Ramsby will remain here for the early part of the winter her many friends will be happy to learn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw are expected home the early part of the week from Portland and Seattle where they have visited friends and relatives. They were accompanied by their two young daughters. The Shaws recently returned from a visit in Berkeley with Mrs. Shaw's sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. McKelligen.

James Marston Hunt, son of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt, left Thursday morning for St. Louis, Missouri, where he will attend the Gradwohl Institute of Technology and enter upon a one-year course with a six months' internship at one of the St. Louis hospitals.

The tea was a farewell for the young Mrs. Merryman who leaves Klamath Falls this weekend. Dr. Merryman is now in the United States army medical corps and stationed in Helena, Montana, after having spent the past several weeks at Fort Lewis, Washington.

The tea table was attractive with a white bowl of pink asters. Pouring coffee and iced tea were Mrs. Edward Hall Pike, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. Charles G. Hovey and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger.

A number of informal affairs were given during the past week for Mrs. Merryman who has made many friends since coming to Klamath Falls just a year and a half ago.

CHAIRMAN ENTERTAINS COMMITTEE

Members of the flower show committee who have been working toward the success of the 1942 exhibit planned for September the fourteenth, were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Roland Oakes, chairman, at her home on Thursday at one o'clock. Final plans were discussed by the guests following luncheon.

Attending were Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, Mrs. Ralph Porter, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Clara Boyce of Long Beach, California, Mrs. Sydney Evans and Mrs. Horace E. Getz.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes O. Bell and two daughters, Marilyn and Edna Ann, have been here since last Friday as guests of Mrs. Bell's family. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallack of Pacific Terrace. They plan to leave Monday morning for San Francisco where they will spend several days before returning to their home in Santa Maria.