By Hugh Fulleylove, Jr.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16—Frank Frisch, whose Pirates may be the ones to knock Brooklyn clear out of the pennant race, figures the Dodgers still have a good chance if one hitter can get hot enough to bring the rest of the club to a boil. . . . But apparently the only place the Dodgers are hot is under Larry MacPhail's collar. . . . Canada's green light (with reservations) for pro hockey gives you an idea what to expect in baseball next year. . . . By the time players eligible for military service and those useful in the war effort have been eliminated, the teams likely will be made up of creaky-kneed old timers and very young, inexperienced kids. . . . But don't look for much minor league hockey—except that played by major league teams.

WORKING OVERTIME

When the baseball team of local 592 Teamsters' union won a triple header (yeah, that's right) from Highland Springs in the Virginia Intercity semi-pro league the other Saturday, Linwood (Pippy) Lacy pitched and won the first two games to give him a record of five victories in seven days. . . . He had won a double header the previous Sunday and a single game in mid-week. . . . Pippy wanted to go right back to the mound in the third game but Manager Oscar Fary argued: "No, save yourself for the playoff."

Reames Prexy Cup Tourney Nears Close

Earl Weimar, long-hitting Weyerhaeuser Timber company golfer, today had gained a clear shot at the Championship flight title in the Reames Golf and Country club's annual President's cup tourney and was waiting the result of a scheduled match between Ted Medford and Bill Hagelstein, the winner of which will tangle with Weimar in the finals.

The timberman earned a spot in the final bracket by tripping Martin Swanson, Klamath insurance man, one-up in 18 holes. Swanson had earlier hung a one-up defeat on Carl Woods, also a Weyerhaeuser man and former club champion, in a bitter battle which went 25 holes.

Slated for an early semi-final tussle are Hagelstein and Medford. Medford gained his place by downing Joe Lemen, one-up in 18 holes.

Meanwhile play progressed in the four other flights of the cup tournament, but no winners had been determined. Flight winners will face off for the trophy on a handicap basis within a week, Pro Carl Lindgren indicated.

Lindgren said he hoped that all remaining contestants would play off their matches as soon as possible so that the club championship might be started. The tourney, which will wind up formal Reames golfing for the year, will open with a qualifying round in which a score of 90 or better is necessary.

Reames women golfers will fire their qualifying rounds Friday. Absent from the field will be Mrs. Mahr Reymers, 1941 champion who has moved from the city.

One Up and Down, Stanford Indians Will Again Rely on T Formation

By RUSS NEWLAND
PALO ALTO, Calif., Sept. 16 (AP)—Stanford, one up and one down in its use of the modern T-formation, is staking its football fortunes on that particular type of gridiron trickery again this season.

The squad that Head Coach Marchmont Schwartz inherited from Jim Lawson who inherited it from Clark Shaughnessy last spring is schooled in the T-formation. Coach Schwartz isn't one to change horses in midstream, so the pigskin acrobatics that puzzled old rivals in 1940—and didn't last year—will be shown over the circuit right down to Stanford's last quarterback.

After that, what? Possibly the Schwartz version of the Notre Dame style of play where he once performed in stellar fashion.

The T-formation, as the Shaughnessy coast conference championship and Rose Bowl winning proved, requires a phantom-like quarterback along with a wingfoot halfback and a line that won't be knocked around like tempins.

War times have trimmed the Stanford squad of much talent, especially in the backfield. Enough remains to retain hope for a fairly successful head coaching debut for Schwartz.

By The Associated Press
If Pepper Martin and his Pacific Coast league ball club still nurse visions of the circuit's 1942 pennant they had better get in their ticks today and tomorrow, because if they lose two more games Los Angeles is in.

Southpaw Ray Prim effectively foiled the Senators' batting lineup yesterday as the Angels won the first game of the decisive final series 5 to 0. That put Los Angeles three games ahead with six more to be played. Prim allowed six hits, only two of them in one inning—the seventh. Angel centerfielder Harry Lowry tapped a double in the first inning and came home on Roy Hughes' single.

The league's other contests saw Oakland beat Seattle 8 to 3 and Hollywood down Portland 9 to 6. San Francisco and San Diego were idle but make it up with a doubleheader today.

The Hollywood game featured home runs by Portland's Ted Norbert—his 27th of the season—and the Stars' Bill Atwood. A five run outburst in the second inning decided the issue.

Dodgers Tired, Fight Gone With Loss of National League Lead

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP)—A thing so strange and baffling that it almost defies description has happened to the once-debonair Brooklyn Dodgers in the closing stages of the National league race.

They looked tired and bewildered and the fight seems to have gone out of them in the face of the Cardinals' remorseless drive.

The reason, a member of the Dodger family explained weakly, is that it is somehow numbing to see a thing slip away day after day and feel powerless to prevent it. After a time you begin to feel dazed, he said.

"I remember the night we started our last western trip," he quavered. "We had the pennant won. We even celebrated to the extent of a tub of beer on the train, because it was a Sunday and we were passing through Pennsylvania, which is dry on Sunday.

"Not that anybody over-drunk. How is a whole team going to break training on one tub of beer? But, I mean, that's the way we felt. World series, here we come! Sure, we were in a little hitting slump, but we had a seven and a half game lead over the Cardinals, so what did a little slump amount to?"

"I still can't believe it's happened. Even when they cut us down to a three or four-game lead we kept thinking any day now we'll get started again. But we didn't. Seems like when a thing like this is happening every break goes against you.

Redbirds Nip Phils, 3-2, in 14 Innings

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The dogfight in the National league became a two-ring circus again today as the Brooklyn Dodgers took up the chase of the St. Louis Cardinals after two days of idleness during which the Redbirds managed to entrench themselves in first place by two full games.

The layoff which the schedule handed the Dodgers at this critical stage provided at least a temporary profit for the Cards because it gave them a working margin for their battle down the stretch. But there was a possibility that the open dates might favor Brooklyn in the long run.

This was because the fiercely fought series in Philadelphia took so much out of the Cardinals that they appeared groggy yesterday even though they dragged down a 3-2 victory over the Phils in 14 innings with the veteran Si Johnson hurling all the way for the losers.

games, was on the mound for St. Louis but did not have his customary wares and finally retired under fire with no one out in the ninth after he had given up 10 hits.

Murry Dickson took charge and pitched six scoreless innings after that.

Besides the Cardinals' contest the only other major league game yesterday brought together the Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox in the American league, but weather halted play in the fourth inning, forcing cancellation of the game. Chicago was leading 4-3 at the time.

Mauriello Walloped By Bivins

'White Hope' Heavy Drops Cleveland Tiff to Negro

By RAY BLOSSER

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16 (AP)—Slugging Jimmy Bivins proved to 8794 home-town customers last night that highly touted Tami Mauriello can be beaten, but he'll have to do it again soon in New York to convince everybody.

The 177½-pound Cleveland negro let fly a vicious left hook which parked Tami on the floor for a count of one early in the first round, but the 10-stanza scrap was close enough that Referee Joe Sedley even saw it Mauriello's way, although the two judges thought otherwise and the crowd expressed little disagreement.

The Brooklyn Italian, unsuccessfully seeking to avert his first setback in 11 starts as a heavyweight, took in the first round practically everything Bivins had but rallied sharply. Although stunned by the left and some 15 other blows that followed it after he regained his feet, Tami reached such a peak in the tenth that Bivins buried his head in Mauriello's mid-section.

Deer Hunting Started Today in California

For Kurland is 6 feet, 11½ inches tall, won't begin to fit in a Pullman berth even if he's folded. As a member of the Missouri Valley conference, the Aggies are permitted to play freshmen.
