HEALTH OF ARMY TOPS ALL RECORDS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17 (AP)—Secretary Stimson reported today that the health of the army in this country was better than ever before during war time, with fewer men admitted to hospitals or confined to quarters than last year.

"During 1941 and thus far in 1942, the death rate has been the lowest in army history, excluding overseas and battle casualties," the war secretary told a press conference. "This experience is more remarkable considering the rapid expansion of the army."

Veneral disease is less than during the World war, with the syphilis rate the lowest in army history.

More than half of the deaths of personnel in this country resulted from such causes as traffic accidents.

Crescent Lake

CRESCENT LAKE—William Delbrugge, of Delcrest ranch, has been making some repairs in his apartments in town. He is busy these days getting guns ready for prospective hunters, as the deer season is so close. Delbrugge is not only a nationally known rifle shot but is also a fine gunsmith, practicing this trade on his ranch near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cunnion and Peter Moran, of Antelope, drove in to Moran's sheep camp on Refrigerator creek and spent two days. The Cunnions left for home Tuesday evening but Moran remained to help herd while search was made for some lost sheep.

Mrs. Darrell Hebert and Mrs. Les Baty have taken jobs in the Southern Pacific round house here. Two other women expect to go to work there later. Both women are wives of Southern Pacific employees here.

Pete Robeson and Leah Collins spent Wednesday looking for 40 sheep lost from the Peter Moran band. They were found that afternoon by Mike Cunnion after having been lost three days.

Floyd Root has installed a new Diesel light plant at Crescent lodge.

Mrs. Floyd Root will leave Saturday to spend a week's vacation in Seattle.

The sheep belonging to Emil

Maurer, of near Antelope, which are ranged at the Big Marsh every summer, left for home last week. Maurer expects to pasture them for some time at Redmond before continuing to the home ranch.

Harry Mooney closed his Crescent lake resort, except for cabins, early this week and is getting the place ready for winter. Cabins will be obtainable there through hunting season, however, he said.

Mrs. Jud Brown and three children left for Salem Saturday, where they will spend several days visiting and getting fruit to can. Brown is section foreman at Umlj siding.

Fred Hall and Henry Morrison spent Sunday hauling wood. It's getting to the time of year when everyone is either hauling wood or preparing to go hunting.

Mrs. Fred Hall drove Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hebert to Eugene Monday, where Mrs. Hebert entered the hospital.

Bobbie Root has returned from visiting his grandmother and has entered school in Crescent Lake.

Smoke from burning stubble in the valley drifted into this country Wednesday afternoon until lookouts were unable to see.

Giovanini Gets Army Call, Lost To Prineville

PRINEVILLE, Sept. 17 (AP)—Nello Giovanini, Prineville high school football coach, has been called into the army, school officials disclosed last night. He will be succeeded by J. A. Howard, formerly of West Linn. Prineville's opening game with Arlington, billed for Friday night, has been cancelled.

Giovanini, a native of Klamath Falls, starred on Klamath Union high school grid teams in the early thirties and subsequently became a standout line-man for the University of Oregon. This year would have been his second season as Prineville mentor.

Cardinals Establish Two-Per-Customer Series Ticket Limit

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17 (AP)—Figuring on a brisk demand for world series tickets if they win the National league pennant, the Cardinals have established a two-to-the-customer limit for reserved seats.

Mail applications for grandstand seats will be accepted beginning today, but none will be made for more than two blocks of tickets. As usual, tickets will be sold only in blocks of three, covering the three games to be played here. All box seats already have been sold to holders of season boxes.
