

REQUESTS FOR BUILDING FALL OFF TO TWELVE

Requests for building permits have been very light during the first two weeks of September, with only 12 issued from the office of Building Inspector Harold Francy. Half of these were for re-roofing, with only two new structures to be erected, both of them garages.

Permits for re-roofing were issued to the following: M. E. Doty for 522 Klamath avenue, $200; 2248 Vine street, $170; 1208 California avenue, $130; 2052 Lavey street, $110; C. R. James, corner Reclamation and Division streets, $150; Baptist church, Eleventh and High streets, $200.

Other permits went to D. G. Sloan for remodeling residence and building garage, 1443 Worden avenue, $400; Jim Stevenson for remodeling business building, 619 Main street, $200; W. D. Harlan for construction of fireplace, 1405 Lookout street, $300; W. McDaniels for a new foundation, 542 Broad, $200; H. S. Cantrall, for remodeling garage, 1405 Melrose, $50; Tiburcio Soto for erecting new garage, 1919 Wantland, $50.

NAVY RECRUITERS' RECORD PRAISED

A letter congratulating them on the fine showing during the month of August, has been received by the local navy recruiting office from Capt. E. B. Lapham, inspector for the western recruiting area.

Klamath Falls had an average of 126 enlistments per 100,000 population as compared with a $13.3 average for the entire area, the letter showed. Of the 92 stations listed, Klamath Falls stood 24th, with most of the cities outranking it being of much larger population.

Most recent men to be accepted for service with the navy through the local office are Maynard Irving Gardner, 3122 Summers lane, who has been employed by the Southern Pacific company as telegraph operator at Bieber; Nielsen Guest Abbott, 5128 South Sixth street, who enlisted at the age of 17 and will serve until he is 21; Edward Francis Fitzpatrick, 45 Pine street; and Harold Edwin Love, 920 Lincoln street, former postal carrier who entered as specialist second class.

Enlisting here from other communities in this area were Clyde Frederick Peick, Klamath Agency, to serve as radio technician second class; Alton Alvin Sharp of Alturas and Melvin Wilbert Harvey of Bieber, Calif. All of these men have been sworn in at Portland in the past few days.

FIRE DEPARTMENT WAS BUSY SUNDAY

The boys of the fire department were active Sunday putting out bonfires in which banners and literature of the Jehovah's Witnesses went up in smoke, and in spreading sand over gasoline and battery acid spilled from overturned cars to prevent further damage or conflagration.

They were called to Holly street near East Main at 4:05 p. m. and to Klamath avenue and Ninth street at 4:28 p. m. Sunday.

A run was made Sunday night at 6:15 o'clock to Klamath avenue and Commercial streets and one Saturday at 11:57 a. m. to 830 California avenue. Both were grass fires resulting in no damage, it was reported.

PATRIOT

NEW YORK (AP) — Elwin Murray, 44-year-old army veteran, has proven himself to be a man of blood and sand aplenty.

He was crowned champion blood donor yesterday at the Brooklyn Red Cross center after donating his 14th pint.

And—next week he reports for army duty, his reenlistment application having been accepted.

Two Attend Council to Plan Soldier Contributions

Mrs. C. E. Dennis, executive secretary of the Red Cross, and Mrs. J. H. Poppy, member of the board of directors, attended a meeting at the Jackson county court house in Medford last week of the camp and hospital council.

Objective of the council is to obtain articles for the soldiers to make them more comfortable in camps and hospitals.

This council, now in the process of organization, will be nationwide in scope, according to Mrs. Dennis, with community organizations being located near army cantonments. The council will be composed of a representative to be appointed by each Red Cross chapter, and the Red Cross will act as a clearing house for articles obtained by the organization, but the council will be a separate organization, she explained.

The camp and hospital council will direct its attention to obtaining such comforts for the soldiers as radios, phonographs, reading lamps and magazines, particularly new issues, for hospitals and recreation halls. It was stated that members of the armed services have expressed preferences for National Geographic, science and mechanics magazines and the Digest magazines.

John Scott of Portland, field representative of the Red Cross in Oregon, and several officers representing the army were speakers at the Medford meeting, attended by representatives from Douglas, Josephine, Jackson and Klamath counties.

Round-table discussion was held during luncheon, and in the afternoon the group was taken on a tour of Camp White, where they visited chapels, theatres, the recreation hall, cafeteria, library, the guest house which contains rooms for the various hostesses, and the hospital.

Shasta View Grange To Hold Annual Fair, Booster Night

Shasta View grange will hold its annual fair in connection with the Booster night program on September 24, at 8 p. m. in the Shasta school gymnasium.

All residents of the district are urged to enter exhibits of vegetables, fruits or flowers. The boys and girls who have had Victory gardens this summer are especially urged to display their produce. There will be space reserved for them.

Other home products such as honey, cheese, canned foods, butter and eggs are also solicited for exhibition. All entries will be received at the gymnasium at 7:30 p. m.

Sales Quota Bond Plan Established

The Loose-Wiles Biscuit company has established a special sales quota which goes toward the purchase of United States war bonds for the employee making the sales, it was announced here Saturday.

All employees of the company, it was added, are buying bonds and stamps on the payroll allotment plan. Bonds "earned" thru the sales quota plan are over and above those purchased out of the payroll.

That superior manner the Grant rally team always carries into the pep assemblies just doesn't seem to work for their benefit. For two years in a row, they have come down and shown the KUHS students how much peppier they are and tried to get the Pelicans to thinking they have no moral support, and then our team turns right around and beats them. Klamath students may not have such spirit during an assembly, but nothing can be compared to the fighting spirit the crowd has, as well as the team, during the game. Only one or two spectacular plays were made, which shows that the team works together for victory. Both teams were good, but the best team won.

As was mentioned, there was a pep assembly Friday afternoon. Coach Ramsey introduced the squad and presented Don Mast as the captain for this game. Ramsey believes in having different captains for each game. Although his coaching seems wholly different from the tactics we're used to, after Saturday's game we ask no more questions and sit back and look on.

Lee Jacobs, president of the Quarterback club, gave his solemn promise that the club will forego its coaching of the Pelicans, as it feels it will not be missed too much.

Tom Bolling, president of the Grant high student body, and Coach Lilly gave a few remarks which were soon offset by the KUHS dance band. The dance band is very good, which does not express how good they really are. The timing and rhythm are excellent and are just as good as some of the dance bands heard on the radio. These are not especially compliments, but the true facts.

Quite a few people must have collected debts or else made some, for there was a big rush
