NEW YORK, Sept. 22 — The army emergency relief expects to clear about $250,000 from the fight fans played by the two all-Army football teams—after paying all expenses, cutting the pros in for sizeable shares and in some cases splitting the bills are ready until figures won't be, but unofficial estimates are that about 265,000 fans turned out and paid about two bucks apiece. . . . The Phils must feel kind of crowded with four umpires working their games these days. Most seasons they'd be glad to get that many paid admissions during the final week.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Francis E. Stan, Washington Evening Star: "The Louis-Conn affair is one scrap drive worthy of support, but if the war department condones expenses that may be as much as $250,000, it can't be considered an all-out war effort. Offhand, we can't recall reading where Ensign Gay, Lieut. Buckley and a lot of bona fide heroes were given bonuses to pay off their back taxes and debts, so why Louis and Conn?"

WEIGHTY DOCUMENT
The old collegiate custom of listing "program weights" for football players is out at the Texas College of Mines. Apparently tired of explaining to doubting sports scribes, Tub-Thumper Jud Williams sent out a squad roster, showing an average of 169 pounds, accompanied by a sworn statement showing the weights were attested to by a doctor.

SERVICE DEPT.
Camp Gruet, Okla., has entered the service football lists, scheduling a game with the Wichita Aero Commandos October 15 and looking for more Iowa State's three top-scoring basketballers of the 1940-41 Big Six championship team all are in the marines. Lieut. Dale De Koster is in the Solomons and co-captains Gordon Nicholas and Al Budolfson are training at Quantico, Va. . . . Four former Pitt swimmers, Al Beaton, Al Slobodian, Hy Lederstein and Mitt Lederstein, who joined the army at the same time. The partnership lasted through their training period at Camp Lee, Va., but latest reports locate Beaton at Key West, Fla., Slobodian in Kentucky, Hy Lederstein somewhere in England and Mitt in San Francisco.

Pro Golfers Plan Go-Ahead For Winter Tour

By ROMNEY WHEELER
ATLANTA, Sept. 22 (AP)—Professional golf furnished up some glittering names of the past today for a stint of war relief. . . . Announcing plans for another winter tour, Tournament Manager Fred Corcoran of the PGA disclosed that Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and Tommy Armour—all previously retired from active play—have agreed to make the tourney circuit, starting probably with the $10,000 Miami open in late December. . . . "The winter tour is definitely on," said Corcoran, pausing en route from Houston, Tex., to New York. "The tournaments will be played for war relief and for war bonds, and we may have fewer pros making the circuit, but we'll have a higher quality of competition than ever before."

Service Teams Top Weekend Grid Card

Bierman's Seahawks Tangle With Northwestern; Minnesota Gophers Face Pitt
By HAROLD GLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP)—Service teams, the something new that has been added to the 1942 football program, dominate this week's schedule although such collegiate tussles as Minnesota vs. Pitt, Notre Dame vs. Wisconsin, Southern California vs. Tulane and Louisiana State vs. Texas A. and M. also are carded. . . . Lieut. Col. Bernie Bierman's Iowa Seahawks, after crushing Kansas 61 to 0 in their first outing, go against the Wildcats of Northwestern and it isn't likely that they will have two such soft touches in a row.

The powerful Great Lakes naval outfit collides with Michigan, North Carolina's Clod-busters invade Harvard's fair precincts, Georgia will try to devise a defense for George McAfee and his Jacksonville, Fla. air station mates and Tex Oliver will send his St. Mary's Pre-Flighters against Oregon—where he coached last season.

In other battles involving military teams Columbia entertains Fort Monmouth, N. J., in a war charity contest, Ohio State opens its season against the Fort Knox eleven and Pennsylvania will play host to the Georgia Pre-Flight naval cadets in Philadelphia's huge Franklin field. . . . But the collegians don't have to take a back seat in such company. Notre Dame, Minnesota and Texas A. & M. were among the nation's best a year ago and have been awarded similar ranking this year in pre-season gossip.

The Gophers, coached to the mythical national crown last season by Bierman, are tutored this season by Dr. George Hauer and their ace back, Bill Dailey, already has been assigned the task of furnishing a "Daley double"—two touchdowns in each game—by followers.

Texas A. & M., because of its military classes, has suffered little loss of manpower. Notre Dame adds to its general interest this season because Coach Frank Leahy has switched from the traditional Irish shift to the T-formation.

Other bruisers on Saturday find Iowa opposing Nebraska, Duke vs. Davidson, Georgia Tech vs. Auburn, Stanford vs. Washington State, Fordham at Purdue, California against St. Mary's, Dartmouth at Holy Cross and Navy tussling with William and Mary.

Friday night's curtailed card finds Georgetown at Temple and Texas Christian at University of California at Los Angeles.

Portland, Dog Wins Open All-Stakes At Oregon Trials

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 22 (AP)—Hollywood Pal, a pointer owned by Dr. William B. Hare, Portland, won the open all-age stakes at the annual Oregon State Field Trial association here yesterday. . . . The derby stake was won by High Black, owned by Harold Blake, Camas, Wash., with Border View Zable and Border View Zimmie, both owned by Pete Bibby, also of Camas, taking the other two places.

Soldier Wins Salmon Derby In Seattle

SEATTLE, Sept. 22 (AP)—Sergeant Michael Kudzie, Moonachie, N. J., Sunday caught a fresh-run king salmon, weighing 24 pounds 13 ounces, to win the annual cracker derby. Seattle's salmon fishing contest in Elliott bay. His prize was $50. He was one of 200 servicemen contestants. . . . Second place went to Lieut. (J. G.) Richard Gerstell, USN, of Harrisburg, Pa., formerly with the Pennsylvania state game director's staff. His king weighed 22 pounds 7 ounces. . . . Sergeant Theodore Collins, Logan, W. Va., won third money with a 22 pound 3 ounce king, just two ounces more than the one caught by Pvt. G. Line, Galesburg, Ill. . . . The servicemen caught 69 salmon. Each was accompanied by a civilian "guide."

DURHAM—Missing from the Duke football roster are 21 members of last fall's Rose bowl squad.

Columbus Tips Toledo, Wins AA Loop Title

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 22 (AP)—The rampant Columbus Red Birds captured the American association playoff crown last night by scoring their fourth straight victory over Toledo and will enter their fifth "little world series" in 10 years. . . . Columbus' opponent will be the winner of the Syracuse-Jersey City series in the International league. Syracuse now is leading three games to none. . . . The Birds wrapped up at Toledo behind the stellar three-hit pitching of Red Mungler, concluding a rout begun last Friday night with a 9 to 0 triumph. Columbus won Saturday night 6 to 4 and Sunday 2 to 1.

The chances are you are never going to see Jimmy Brown up there in the Hall of Fame. . . . And you'd be willing to bet his chances of landing the most valuable player award any year are about as bright as one of those "solid gold" watches you can pick up for a dollar.

But when it comes to handing out the posies to the guy who did as much—or more—than anyone else to bring the St. Louis Cardinals the National league pennant, don't overlook James Robertson Brown of the Jamesville (S. C.) Browns, pals.

Of course, the Cards still have the little job of aftering up the flag first. But after their 2-1 win over Pittsburgh yesterday—in which Second Sacker Brown, incidentally, knocked both runs across—they still sported a 23 game bulge, with only five to go, even though Brooklyn took a 3-1 decision over the Phillies.

And around Broadway today, the boys were laying 20-1 against the Bums. . . . There will no doubt be some arguments over Jimmy Brown, of course. From day to day when the folks sit around over their soda pop, they talk about Mort Cooper's zip-ball and the awful things country slaughter does to pitchers. . . . And when you mention Jimmy, they generally brush him off with, "oh, yeah, he's pretty good too, but he's only batting .260."

Yet, National league managers say he's the key man in the works, the guy who holds the infield together. . . . And opposing infielders shudder when he gets on base, because, they tell you, "he'll steal anything."

Yesterday, he pulled one out of the fire almost without any help. . . . In the fourth inning, he singled the first run home. Then, after the Bucs tied it up, he drilled a hit through the infield in the ninth to knock the game-wrecker across. . . . Meantime, the Dodgers took a 3-1 lead in the first frame against the Phils and hung onto it, although Kirby Higbe was in more tough spots than a rubber check specialist.

WHITE SOX GENEROUS
NEW YORK—According to the clubhouse boys at Yankee stadium, the White Sox are the most generous tipsters in baseball.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22 (AP)—Future navy aviators training at the St. Mary's preflight school are only in the neophyte stage but the football team—ah, mates, that is definitely a horse of another color. . . . Lt. Commander Gerald Oliver, who left his University of Oregon coaching post to handle the preflight schools gridiron destinies, unveiled his initial creation last week and the impression was distinctly favorable. . . . The Preflighters ran Amos Alonzo Stagg's College of the Pacific team into the ground. The score was 38 to 9 and should have been more lopsided. . . . Coach Oliver has no alumni or eligibility problems and the players, for the most part, are in better physical condition than during college days. . . . They're big, tough and exper-

"We're Lucky," Says Ramsey of Grant Tiff

Klamath Coach Calls Pass Defense Inadequate; Signal Calling Flayed

"We were lucky, very lucky," Coach Frank Ramsey told members of the Quarterback club Monday noon in recounting the Klamath Falls-Grant high football game of last Friday which the Pelicans won, 15-0, although outgained and outdowned. . . . "Our pass defense was inadequate to handle the clever serials the Generals tossed at us and Dick Vaillancour's interception could have gone either way," Ramsey said. "If he had missed the catch, it would have meant a clear score for them," the big coach asserted.

The new KUHS mentor said, however, that he was very well satisfied with the defensive play of the line which was topped by the work of Phil Blohm at center. . . . Signal calling, he asserted, left much to be desired.

Ramsey's address headed a well-attended meeting of Quarterbackers in the Willard hotel. The session was conducted by President Lee Jacobs and also addressed by Joe Peak, director of Klamath school athletics. . . . Jacobs appointed a committee to handle the club's annual end-of-the-season awards to Pelican football players. He named the following group:

Don Drury, Kiwanis club; Bill Constans, Lions' club; Lee Smith, veteran Pelican fan; Lynn Roycroft, game announcer; Bob Leonard, Herald and News sports editor; and Gordon Capra, Radio Station KFIJ sports announcer. . . . This Friday night the Pelicans tie into the Redding, Calif., high school team, coached by Frank Nihil, former KUHS Wildcat coach on Modoc field.

Ramsey said he expected Nihil to work from a power formation with a minimum of passing. The former Wildcat coach turned out an unbeaten secondary team during his stay here three years ago. . . . It was learned today that this year's Wildcat team, under Wayne Scott, dropped a 34-0 decision to the Henley Hornets of the Klamath County B league Friday night on the Hornet field.

Grid Camp Notes

PALO ALTO, Calif., Sept. 22 (AP)—Marchie Schwartz, Stanford university football coach today faced loss of another player, Bobby Andrews, sophomore quarterback, who is in the hospital with a blood infection. . . . Schwartz previously lost the services of a first string tackle and a second string fullback and yesterday a reserve guard, Ed McCain, was out with an injured ankle.

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 22 (AP)—California footballers are concentrating on pass defense in expectation of an air attack led by Jack Podesto, St. Mary's halfback Saturday when the teams start the season's play. . . . Stub Allison, Bear coach, raised Craig Ortleib, a tackle, and Ernie Gentner, a guard, to the varsity from the rambler squad and sent 10 varsity players to the rambler's yesterday.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22 (AP)—UCLA Fullback George Phillips, rated one of the coast's best punters, stepped out of an automobile yesterday and right into the list of those who won't play football against Texas Christian university in the season's opener Friday. . . . A special section of seats is being reserved for coaches and the team at the early evening show which starts at 7 o'clock. The boys and mentors will also witness the final night's showing of "Eagle Squadron," a film feature based on actual experience of the first Yanks to fight in this war.

SEATTLE, Sept. 22 (AP)—Sophomore Sam Robinson, an aggressive 195-pound Seattle boy, may be the answer to the fullback replacement problem on the Washington football team. . . . Coach Ralph (Pest) Welch is shifting to drill Robinson to play from right half, where he was counted on as the No. 1 reserve.

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 22 (AP)—Assistant Coach Manny Vezie of the University of Oregon today termed the St. Mary's Navy Cadets, whom he scouted last weekend, the "outstanding team on the coast." . . . The Cadets defeated College of Pacific, 38 to 9. They play in Portland Saturday. . . . "On paper, they figure to beat us, but we think we have a chance to win," Vezie said.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 22 (AP)—Oregon State's Beavers speeded up preparations today for the opening football game of the season against Idaho at Moscow Saturday. . . . The emphasis was on offensive punch, as in yesterday's drill, which was the first of the season that did not stress fundamentals. . . . A new halfback prospect, Bob Leichter, reported for practice yesterday.

Portland High School Grid Fans to See Games Free of Charge
PORTLAND, Sept. 22 (AP)—Portland high school football fans will see plenty of free games this fall, thanks to the dim-out. . . . Night games at Multnomah stadium have been cancelled and, except for one contest weekly at the stadium, the games will be played on school fields.
