ALL IS CHAOS

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—Firemen arrived to fight a fire. Policemen arrived to capture a rattlesnake. An ambulance hustled up to pick up a snakebite victim.

They found no fire, no snake, no victim. But after receiving another telephone call, police found a 10-year-old boy who said he made all the calls just for fun.

The youngster was turned over to his parents for appropriate action.

In Portland—Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Kesterson are in Portland, where Kesterson underwent a major operation at St. Vincent's hospital, it was reported here today.

Police Docket—Two drunks and one vag were arraigned in police court Tuesday morning, with four persons presenting bail on traffic tickets.

OUR MEN IN SERVICE

OFFICER CANDIDATE—Roger

Warren Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones of Lorella, Ore., has been transferred to an army officers' candidate school in Indianapolis, Ind.

A graduate of Bonanza high school, Jones enlisted in the army in March of this year.

RETURNS TO U. S.—Kenneth

Donald Aber, son of Mrs. Ray Cummings of Stewart addition, has returned to the United States from Hawaii for a rest in the U. S. Naval hospital in Oakland, Calif.

A former Klamath Union high school student, Aber enlisted in the United States navy on December 23, 1941, and has seen considerable action on the Pacific ocean.

GRADUATES—Emil M. Mikkelsen, a sergeant, has recently graduated from the air corps technical school at Sheppard Field, Tex., and is now taking additional training at Santa Monica.

He is the brother of Otto B. and Henry A. Mikkelsen of the Stewart-Lenox addition.

M. V. Graham, a Great Northern engineer here, is now in an engineer training battalion, Fort Belvoir, Va.

Eddie Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall of Chiloquin, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. Eddie graduated from Chiloquin high in 1940 and enlisted in the air corps in July, 1941. He is stationed in the bomb division, Barksdale field, Shreveport, La.

CORPORAL—Louie Irving Dixon of Pine Grove, is doing his part at Fort Stevens in the quartermasters section. Corporal Dixon's mother, Mrs. Bessy M. Dixon, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Salem G. Jencen, all live in Pine Grove. Dixon joined the service on October 11, 1940.

KLAMATH AGENCY—Rev. Lee Mooney, formerly in charge of the Methodist Indian mission on the Klamath reservation but more recently of Camp Roberts, Calif., is one of the U. S. army chaplains there who have been selected to attend the officer's training school at Harvard university. On completion of a four weeks' course, Rev. Mooney will return to field duty with the rank of major. Captain Mooney's family, in the meantime, is residing in San Miguel, Calif.

WHAT ABOUT OVERTIME?
NEW YORK (AP)—The loneliest man in town over the weekend was not a soldier or sailor—he was Warren Snyder, a watchman. Snyder was marooned alone in a stalled elevator 15 floors up in a skyscraper overlooking 42nd street from 7 p. m. Saturday until 7:30 a. m. Sunday.

When his relief came on, Snyder was still yelling for help. A policeman pried open the elevator door.

"I am very happy to see you," said Snyder.

MIDLAND—Technical Sergeant Merle Stewart, son of Mrs.

Phil Motschenbacher, is home on a four-day furlough from McChord field, Wash. Young Stewart has been in the air corps for the past year.

SILVER LAKE—Whereabouts of former Silver Lake men now in the U. S. armed services is a subject of general interest here. Though the following list is not complete, it is correct as far as could be learned:

Clinton Gruber is in the air corps at Visalia, Calif.; Martin Warner in Florida; Clyde Nelson in the medical corps at San Francisco, Calif.; Louis Dey at Ft. Lewis, Wash.; Ross Dey on the U. S. S. Minneapolis; Harry Redfield in Alaska; Don Redfield at San Diego, Calif.

Jack Davidson is in the air corps near Los Angeles; Wallace Finn at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.; Homer Pitcher, in the navy, was recently in port at New York City. Roy Hardisty is in the navy. James Gerking, somewhere in England, writes that he just bought a bicycle for four pounds and a new tire for seven shillings and is going sightseeing on his next furlough.

John Kurowski at Ft. George G. Meade, Md., was promoted recently from second cook to first cook with a raise in pay.

Private Duane Kelley, who is stationed with Headquarters company at Camp Roberts, Calif., recently visited Mr. and Mrs.

Walter B. Neill and family, 2516 South Sixth street. Private Kelley has a brother at Paisley. His mother lives at Centralia, Wash.

CO-OPERATIVE STORE
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The store is doing its bit to relieve the nation's manpower shortage. Four sets of twins, all boys, arrived at a local hospital over the weekend. Listeners report each is as noisy as a sergeant on the drill grounds.

Buy it through the want-ads.
