League Plans October Sale

City Charter Program Given at Evening Meeting Monday

Date of the rummage sale to be held by the League of Women Voters was announced for Saturday, October the third, at the Monday evening gathering of the league in the city library club rooms when a program on the city charter was presented by Mrs. Nelson Reed.

The rummage sale will be held at 107 North Ninth street in the Medical-Dental building under the chairmanship of Mrs. Roland Wright, assisted by Mrs. Alfred Gray, Mrs. Rosa McCormack, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. C. V. Rugh, Mrs. Ross Stampley and Mrs. Guy Hancock. Anyone having rummage to donate is asked to call Mrs. C. F. O'Loughlin at 1962 or Mrs. Howard Barnhise at 4581, and it will be called for.

It is also announced that the membership list of the league will be ready for typing by October the fifth, and any woman desiring to join who has not paid her membership dues is asked to do so by that date in order that her name may be included.

This year the Foreign Policy study group of the league, under the leadership of Mrs. E. A. Geary, will meet jointly with the International Relations study group of AAUW of which Mrs. Everett Dennis is chairman. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dennis, 1956 Huron street, Tuesday afternoon, September the twenty-ninth, at two o'clock.

Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, chairman of the Education group, announces that the first meeting of her group will be held next Wednesday afternoon, September the thirtieth, at a quarter to two o'clock in the conference room of the U. S. National bank when plans for the year's work will be outlined.

The Economic Welfare group, under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, will hold its first meeting on the fourth Monday of October.

Inasmuch as a new city charter will be up for voting by citizens of Klamath Falls in the November election, the function and principals of the charter were outlined by Mrs. Reed at the evening program. Mrs. Reed read the old city charter of 1913, parts of which proved most amusing in comparison to present day changes, and showed the need for bringing it up-to-date.

Mrs. Reed will again discuss the city charter at the league's afternoon meeting on Monday, October the fifth, at the library club rooms.

Concerts Slated For Winter Season

Memberships Available for Newcomers to Klamath Falls Officers Announce.

Music lovers are looking forward to this year's series sponsored by the Klamath Community Concert association as never before and it is certain that the three concerts which will be brought to this city will be deeply appreciated in a time when music is so important as a morale builder.

Dates of the three concerts have been set and are as follows:

BETROTHED

Miss Dorothy Hill, daughter of Mrs. F. L. Hill of Baker, will become the bride of Mr. John P. Kerns, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns of this city, in early October.

MISS DEAN JOINS RANKS OF BRIDES

The betrothal and forthcoming marriage of Miss Allie Lee Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lee Dean of the Alpha apartments, is of interest to members of the younger set in Klamath Falls and made known this week by the bride-elect's parents. Miss Dean will become Mrs. George W. Cornell Jr., in a ceremony to be read at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, October the fourteenth.

Mr. Cornell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cornell of 1850 LeRoy street, is now residing in Portland where he is doing war work. They will make their home in the north.

The service will be read by the Rev. Victor Phillips in the First Methodist church with a reception to follow. It was learned. Miss Dean returned last Friday from Armstrong's in Berkeley since she has been studying since her graduation from Klamath union high school this past May.

Tuesday, December the eighth, Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.

Friday, January the fifteenth, Edward Kilenyi, pianist.

Friday, March the fifth, Helen Jepson, soprano.

All concerts will be held in the Pelican theatre, it was announced.

Which of the several Ballet Russe programs will be selected has not yet been announced. The artist committee will be doing this soon and they will probably have a difficult time of it as each and every one is perfectly delightful and beautifully done according to rave notices which the Ballet Russe artists have received wherever they have appeared.

Officers of the association announced this week, Dr. F. Cecil Adams is president, that new people who have come to Klamath Falls since the close of the drive, may obtain tickets by calling Mrs. Claude H. Davis, secretary, 6953. Due to the number of members who have left town since early spring, there are quite a few memberships available. It is hoped that a full house will greet this season's artists who will be traveling under wartime schedules and making the greatest of effort to meet their appearances according to busy programs.

BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED BY MRS. HILL

Mrs. F. L. Hill of Baker, Oregon, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. John P. Kerns, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns of Klamath Falls. The bride elect arrived here Saturday and will remain as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kerns at their lovely new home on the Keno highway.
