JANDRON NAMED TO CHURCH POST

The Christian Science board of directors announced today the election of Francis Lyster Jandron, C. S. B., a trustee of the Christian Science Publishing Society, to be a director of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. Mr. Jandron succeeds William P. McKenzie, deceased, and has been nominated for the trusteeship heretofore occupied by Mr. McKenzie. Mr. Jandron has resigned from the office of trustee of the Publishing Society.

Mr. Jandron, who is a native of Canada, was educated in the island of Jersey and in London, England. He was actively engaged in industries in Canada and the United States for 17 years, during which time he had become treasurer and assistant general manager of the Packard Motor Car company at Detroit, Mich. In 1921, he withdrew from a business career, so that he might devote his entire time to the practice of Christian Science healing.

After uniting in membership with the Mother Church in 1911, and with Third Church of Christ, Scientist, Detroit, Mr. Jandron served his branch church as First Reader, director, and chairman. He received instruction in the Normal Class in the board of education in 1923, and became an authorized teacher of Christian Science.

Mr. Jandron served continuously as Christian Science committee on publication for the state of Michigan from 1926 until 1935, when he was elected a member of the Christian Science board of lecturership. During his service in this capacity, he filled engagements throughout the United States and Canada, also in continental Europe, where he lectured in English, French or German, in Denmark, France, Germany, Latvia, Norway, Poland, Sweden, Switzerland, and The Netherlands. In March, 1939, he was elected a trustee of the Christian Science Publishing Society.

tal belief has constituted itself a law to bind mortals to sickness, sin, and death. This customary belief is misnamed material law, and the individual who upholds it is mistaken in theory and in practice. The so-called law of mortal mind, conjecture and speculative, is made void by the law of immortal Mind, and false law should be trampled under foot." (p. 229).

CASCADE SUMMIT—Cascade Summit is justly proud of its younger generation who answered the call of their country and formed what is called a "Junior Commando" to gather scrap iron and metals for United States war needs. Those who joined are General Elaine Gallegos, Brig. Gen. Donald Temple, Colonel Shirley Lavoie, Lieutenant Colonel Manuel Gallegos, Major Jimmie Gallegos, Captain Douglas Ugstad, Lieutenant Donna Lavoie, Second Lieutenant Ruth Gallegos, Sergeant Tony Gallegos, Corporal Richard Gallegos. There is not a private in the group. The youngsters wear arm bands with the initials "J. C." on them.

Old cars were dismantled by the children, old scrap dug out of the nooks and crannies and the Southern Pacific company's scrap bin was filled to capacity. The scrap will be hauled away by the Southern Pacific supply train.

It is hoped that Cascade Summit will exceed its quota of two hundred pounds per person.

Crescent Bears Aid Scrap Drive, Steal Beer Bottles, Stagger Through Store

CRESCENT LAKE—Bears are getting so numerous around here that old Daniel Boone and the Kentucky country have nothing on Crescent Lake and vicinity. There's the bear that started the war scrap drive through pulling a range oven door out of the Collins ranch garbage pit and leaving it invitingly lying near the wreckage of the pit. Then there is the fellow that tore open "Scoop" Obermeyer's meat safe at the guard station and stole a bacon. And the one that paraded through by Fred Hall's store one evening, oblivious to what there is of Crescent Lake's night life.

There is the bear that ripped open grain sacks at the John Johnson horse corral and scattered horse feed all around among the bales of hay and pine needles.

Key Collection On at Merrill

MERRILL—Bring your old, discarded keys to the Harvest dance Saturday night, October 10, and deposit them in the receptacle at the Victory booth. At the same booth, anyone having scrap iron to turn in may register and give directions for finding it and trucks will call and pick it up.

A whirlwind drive is underway for sale of tickets to the dance that succeeds the Klamath basin potato festival as a celebration at the end of the potato growing season.

TWO KALINAS TO RUN FOR OFFICE

MALIN—Names of two members of the Kalina family will appear on ballots in November for the city election, with both A. Kalina, mayor of the town for 20 years and his son, Valav Kalina, incumbent treasurer unopposed. Mayor Kalina who has seen Malin emerge from the colonization stage has been in office since 1922 the year that the town was incorporated with the exception of one year, 1926 which he spent in Europe.

No contest for council seats is anticipated with the incumbents Everett Jones, Emil Toffel, Conrad Johnson, B. H. Pickett, Clyde Van Meter and James Ottoman, incumbents the only ones filing before the deadline.

Irving Capek has filed for justice of the peace of Tulelake precinct in Merrill and Malin.
