had arrived at a "significant" period.

Charging Hitler with committing terrible atrocities against the peoples of conquered Europe, Churchill declared that "in the first day he entered Kiev he shot 54,000 persons."

"To show weakness of any kind to such a man," the prime minister added, "is only to encourage further atrocities and you may be assured no weakness will be shown."

The prime minister disclosed that he came to Edinburgh from a visit to the home fleet. Speaking in the great Usher hall which was packed for the occasion, he lauded Scotland as an "example of national unity."

Winant in a brief speech made a remark which some interpreted as advice to leave the question of a second front and other decisions to the armed forces.

"We ask what kind of road lies ahead," the ambassador said. "We must await the soldiers' answer because our faith and our future rest with the soldiers of democracy."

hall waitress Saturday night. She had been employed at a Seattle-Tacoma Shipbuilding Corp., here.

The officers were puzzled that the four fingernails of her left hand were unpolished, indicating to them that some force had caused her to depart without waiting to finish caring for her nails and in some manner forced to accompany her assailant. He said it would have to have been some compelling reason to cause a woman to leave her nails in such condition.

"If an expected escort had arrived before she was quite through with them she would have had him wait a few minutes," an officer said.

The body was found by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Evans as they drove into their driveway. It was at the side of the street in the south end district of the city and had apparently been thrown from an automobile.

"Sensible" Masculine Garb

By EARL WHITLOCK

Men have always had a good deal of fun ridiculing the vagaries of women's clothes. Not that the ladies care. They go right on buying silly, sassy, little hats and bizarre frocks, go right on cutting the heels and toes off their shoes, regardless of masculine opinion. They don't buy clothes to make sense, anyway. They buy them because they like them—and that's that!

But do men always dress so very sensibly? Here might be some ammunition for wives to fling back at superior males. Is it so outstandingly sensible, for example, to wear a necktie in order to cover up the joint between shirt and collar and then to add another layer of collar to cover up the necktie? That's six layers of closely-woven cloth a man wraps about his tonsils—and then wonders why he catches cold easily. Or a lapel—where's the sense in that? Or turned-up trousers? Those were so silly even the government shut them down on them. Does a man really need his customary quota of 16 pockets. He uses about four, the others are to mislay important papers in.

We all know that women's clothes are not rational—just attractive. But can men claim super-intelligence for their own stylings?

STALINGRAD SEEN AS DEFENSE WIN

1942 seems to have been beautifully scrambled.

For the third day the Germans and their puppets were largely confined to artillery and air assaults on Stalingrad. The Russian communiques said that artillery and mortar duelling continued in the immediate Stalingrad area. The Germans actually had won positions inside the Volga city but failed to reach the river.

The reiterative thump of the German minenwerfer and the grumble of siege cannon while axis troops dug in to hold their Stalingrad wedges were nothing like the fuhrer's intended when on September 30 he declared: "We shall take Stalingrad, you may depend on that."

Even then 15 days had passed since the Germans announced that the battle of Stalingrad had entered its "final phase."

Typical of the price levied by the Russians on the Germans' mad effort to save the fuhrer's face at Stalingrad was today's communique report that two companies of German troops were wiped out when the Germans attacked the outskirts of a Stalingrad workers' settlement.

This German action now ranks with the strength of previous mass assaults.

The AFL convention endorsed the principal of "equal pay for equal work" by women.

A resolutions committee report, adopted unanimously by the convention, said the U. S. manpower commission's action in "freezing" western metal miners and lumber workers to their jobs was "hasty," and added: "We urge that it will not be repeated for any special problem until general safeguards have been developed and agreed to."

DELLA WALKER, BLY PIONEER, DIES SATURDAY

Della Grace Walker, 56, for more than 38 years a resident of the Bly area of Klamath county, died here late Saturday afternoon following an illness of one week. Mrs. Walker was born in the Wagner creek section near Ashland, one of 14 children of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Abbott, pioneers of that section.

In the spring of 1875, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott crossed the plains in a caravan which originated in Missouri. They first settled in Tulare county, California, but soon moved north to Wagner creek where they lived until their death a short time ago.

For many years Mrs. Walker lived on a ranch near Bly and more recently operated the telephone office there. For the past six months she has been employed in Klamath Falls as clerk at the Kern hotel. During the years she lived near Bly she served as correspondent for The Herald and News.

Five sisters and one brother survive Mrs. Walker including Mrs. A. E. Lowe of Sacramento, Mrs. Jack Horton of this city, Mrs. Lillie Burnett, Talent, Mrs. Mollie Garrett of Bly and Mrs. R. J. Young of Weed and Arthur F. Abbott, Ashland.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. in the chapel of the Whitlock Funeral home with the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates officiating. Commitment services and interment will take place in the family plot of Stearns cemetery on Wagner creek near Talent at 2:30 p. m.

AUSSIE KILLED IN SOLDIER'S BRAWL

BRISBANE, Australia, Oct. 12 (AP)—An Australian enlisted man was stabbed to death and another was wounded Friday night in a brawl with American soldiers which had its origin in the non-regulation manner in which one of the Americans wore his necktie.

The soldier had been reprimanded, during the hearing of the two Australians, by U. S. military police who ordered him to adjust his tie.

When the MP's had gone, the kidding started, witnesses said, and two Americans joined their comrade but the chaffing developed into fighting words and the brawl was on. It all happened in a Brisbane park.

One American, whose name was not disclosed, was turned over to U. S. military authorities on a charge of homicide.

Soldier Must Hang For Rape Offense
TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 12 (AP)—PFC Francis A. Lines, 27, of Caro, Mich., today stood condemned by a court-martial to death by hanging for the rape of a 12-year-old Tucson girl.

It was one of the first, if not the first, death sentences given a United States soldier on the American continent since the nation went to war.

Records of the general court-martial which announced its verdict yesterday afternoon were transmitted today to the second air force reviewing authorities at Fort George Wright, Spokane. From there they will go to the advocate general's office in Washington, D. C., and finally to President Roosevelt.

HEAVY SENTENCE
GREENVILLE, S. C., (AP)—Recorder J. W. H. Oil spilled into the sea, and around the stricken vessel at the waterline was a bright embroidery of fire.

Captain Olaf Breiland of Long Beach, Calif., veteran skipper of the vessel, got most of his men into lifeboats. The submarine fired a star shell in an evident effort to sight the survivors, but Breiland refused to make any distress signals because of the danger of drawing the enemy fire.

NINE KILLED IN CRASH OF BOMBER

TOPEKA, Oct. 12 (AP)—Staff Sgt. James C. Price, Trenton, Ga., died at the Topeka air base hospital today of plane crash injuries which took the lives of eight other bomber crewmen.

Their plane crashed on a farm hillside three miles west of the base yesterday as it was returning from a training mission. A board of investigating army officers had not completed their inquiry today.

Price was the only one of the nine men aboard still alive when Farmer C. E. Patterson, on whose land the crash occurred, reached the scene.

"I listened at the cabin of the plane but couldn't hear anyone," he said. "But someone was calling from down toward the stream. I went down to help him."

Lieut. H. R. Rubin of the Topeka base said the plane was on a routine flight.

He listed the dead as: Lieut. Ralph M. Dienst, 28, Pasadena, Calif.; Lieut. Charles W. Fischer, 22, Boston; Lieut. James H. Edwards, 24, Berkeley, Calif.; Lieut. James L. Holmes, 24, Fort Bragg, Calif.; Staff Sgt. Willie T. Barnes, 34, Columbus, Ga.; Staff Sgt. Max Barron, 24, Pleasant Hill, La.; Staff Sgt. Aubrey M. Large, 23, Francis, Okla.; Staff Sgt. Merlin O. # HARVEST OF POTATO CROP MAKES GAINS

Weather and hunting reduced harvest crews Sunday, but even so several hundred townspeople and suburbanites joined regular harvesters in bringing thousands of additional sacks of spuds.

U. S. employment service officials said that the help of the townspeople has already done much to insure harvest of the big 1942 crop and a continuance of this effort should put the harvest over the top.

Because of weather conditions, harvest operations were suspended in some fields Sunday but were resumed Monday morning.

Millworkers, in particular, are contributing to the harvest effort and at the same time are making tidy sums for themselves, it was learned. Many night shift workers have been going out to the fields during morning and early afternoon hours.

Business men, stenographers and other office workers and others from around town joined the exodus to the potato fields Saturday or Sunday.

DRAFT OFFICIAL URGES NEGRO USE

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12 (AP)—Portland shipyard unions will deplete their own ranks unless they admit negroes to membership, Pastor Richard M. Steiner, member of the district selective service appeal board, said yesterday.

If skilled negroes are denied membership and kept on jobs requiring no skill, then they are available to replace skilled union members, he told the Optimist club. In such case, he said, union members are replaceable and not eligible for deferment.

"Men who don't want to work with the negroes may have to get out and fight... I, for one, will be reluctant to vote any further deferment for skilled workers who can be replaced by qualified negro workers," he said.

State Prisoners Buy $17,000 in War Bonds, Stamps

SALEM, Oct. 12 (AP)—State penitentiary inmates have bought $17,000 worth of war bonds, and in the past few days have bought $1400 worth of cigarettes for soldiers overseas, Warden George Alexander said today.

The convicts are anxious to begin manufacture of war materials, he said, asserting he was investigating methods by which prison labor may be used to help the war effort. Flax now is the only war material produced by the prison.

Weather and hunting reduced harvest crews Sunday, but even so several hundred townspeople and suburbanites joined regular harvesters in bringing thousands of additional sacks of spuds.

Battle Begins
Sighting the United Nations protective force southeast of Savo, the enemy opened fire immediately, with guns and torpedoes, damaging and setting fire to the Canberra, which sank later in the morning.

After a brief engagement with this force, the Japanese altered course to go through the passage northeast of Savo. Here it encountered another screen of cruisers and destroyers, and a battle at close range began.

The action was fought with guns and torpedoes," the navy said, "with targets illuminated by searchlights and starshells. The enemy fire was heavy and accurate, and the U. S. heavy cruisers Vincennes and Quincy were hit repeatedly and sank during the night. A third cruiser, the U. S. S. Astoria, was badly damaged and burnt throughout the night. She sank the following morning."

The navy said it was not possible to determine the damage inflicted on the Japanese ships, which withdrew to the northwest without attempting an attack on our transports and supply ships.

CORNING MAN DIES IN DEER HUNT MISHAP

It appears there will not be so many deer camps in the woods this year as in the past.

Among hunters who came home with good-sized deer was Herbert Kinigen, who knocked down a 200-pound mule deer in the country east of here. Kinigen lives at 2307 Sberlein street.

Sunday's hunting was featured by the usual "lost man" incidents, but all of the wanderers apparently were found or "found themselves." One man was out until 6 a. m. Monday.

SCHOOL KIDS GET REPORTS WEDNESDAY

Klamath Falls' school population will receive report cards on Wednesday as the first six weeks of the 1942-43 school year ended October 9. Cards will be issued to both grade and Klamath Union high school people, according to Superintendent Arnold L. Gralapp.

At the close of the first six weeks, enrollment in the seven city schools totaled 1871, as compared to 1994 this time last year. There was also a decrease in the high school enrollment, 1169 boys and girls this year as compared to 1212 in 1941. Total enrollment was given as 3040 or a decrease of 166 students on the 1941 records.
