OPA REVEALS ALTERATION IN FOOD PRICING

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (P) Some of the nation's housewives may soon pay more at the corner grocer's under a new alternative pricing formula announced by the office of price administration.

They may also get some items that have been off the grocer's shelves lately because of a squeeze on food wholesalers and retailers who have found it difficult to do business under March ceiling prices.

The jump won't be much, Price Administrator Leon Henderson assured the housewives— "A cent or two for the most part for the affected foodstuffs."

These are hundreds of individual items in 11 broad groups announced last night: breakfast cereals, canned fish, cooking and salad oils, sugar, canned vegetables, coffee, rice, hydrogenated shortening, other shortening, dried fruits and lard. On two of these items, lard and dried fruits, the new price ceilings, effective Oct. 15, are compulsory and present maximums must be abandoned whether the ceilings stand in higher or lower price tags.

SOUTH AMERICANS PROTEST CHARGES

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 12 (P) Argentina and Chile, the only American nations maintaining relations with the axis, formally protested today assertions by Acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles that the two countries are being used as bases by axis agents.

Both governments issued strong notes categorically rejecting Welles' statement in Boston Thursday night that ship sinkings in American waters have been due in part to the activity of axis spies operating within their borders.

They declared in effect that they were loyal to their American neighbors and that Welles had painted a false picture of their relations with other western hemisphere republics.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (P)—Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, told his press conference today he had no comment on Argentina and Chile's protests against his Thursday night speech.

Bob Davis, Roving Reporter, Passes

MONTREAL, Oct. 12 (P)—Robert H. (Bob) Davis, roving reporter whose beat was the world; author, dramatist and editorial executive of the New York Sun, died yesterday in Royal Victoria hospital. He was 73.

As a war correspondent, he covered much of Europe in World War I and reported the earlier events of the present conflict until the German occupation of France. He then went into the south Pacific and wrote his last book, "The Story of the Hawaiian Islands" just in time to miss the bombs of Pearl Harbor.
