NEW YORK, Oct. 13—New York grid fans are working up a head of steam over the possibility of getting the Army-Navy game since Biff Jones told the football writers that it isn't at all certain to be played in Philadelphia's municipal stadium as scheduled. . . . But Biff also pointed out that it's Navy's game and you know the Navy never has cared too much about playing here. In two of the past three seasons Cleveland's Minor League Hockey club has done as well at the gate as the New York Rangers and hasn't had to pay big league salaries. Rep. Donald O'Toole, who blew the whistle in congress on the Louisville fight, once was an amateur boxer under the colors of the Trinity club in Brooklyn.

TERRIFIC TROPHY

The football that the Iowa Pre-Flight school used to beat Minnesota won't be decorated with gold and blue paint like the others in the victory collection of Capt. David Hanhahan, the Seahawks' commanding officer. . . . When the ball was delivered to the captain somebody already had done the job of inscribing the score on it. . . . Along with autographs of such folks as "Janet," "Muriel," "Larrupin Larry," and "Rodger the Logger," was printed: "Navy 7, Minnesota 6—You Lucky Jerks."

SERVICE DEPT.

Pvt. Max Kitch, physical instructor at Mitchell field, N. Y., would like to go to Russia and race Silvanin, the red soldier who recently set a world record of 1:08:51 for 20,000 meters. Max claims a world mark of five hours, 15 minutes for 44 miles from Hamilton, Ont., to Toronto. . . . Among the soldiers at Fort Riley, Kas., are Paul Mellon, Pete Postwick, Bobby Young, Bobby Davis, Charley von Stade, Bobby Davis, Norman Cleland and Louis Stoddard Jr., all former amateur race riders. . . . Wonder what the odds are when they're all in action. . . . Cadets at the Iowa Pre-Flight school now have to cover the obstacle course in 3:55 after eight weeks of practice or stay on the station week-ends practicing. . . . Pvt. John A. Glaros, who sounds as if he ought to be the No. 1 baseball fan at Dawson field, Ga., postcards: "Yanks are always licker shaking spotted ivories than dealing with cards." . . . Maybe that's an idea for Joe McCarthy.

'More Ducks This Year,' Say Wildlife Officials

70-Day Season Opens Thursday at Sunrise; Hunting Banned at Jap Center

"More ducks this year" is the word from the marshes and lakes of the Klamath country as scattergun hunters await the opening of the migratory bird season Thursday at sunrise. Fish and wildlife survey officials say that ducks have been on the increase since the middle 'thirties, and that this year is no exception—there are more ducks than there were last year. Geese are here in about the same numbers as in the 1941 season.

Migratory fowl began coming into the Tule lake game refuge on August 21, and arrivals have been steady and in great numbers since that time.

Hunting areas in the Oregon sections of the Klamath basin are the same as last year, but new restrictions are imposed on the California side on both Tule lake and Lower Klamath lake.

On Tule lake hunting is prohibited in an area around the Japanese settlement and extending west of the peninsula to the Great Northern tracks. Their prohibited area has been thickly posted, according to fish and wildlife survey officials, and no hunter should enter it by mistake. Coppeck bay is unaffected by this closure.

On Lower Klamath, hunting will not be allowed in the refuge area south of the California line. Posting of the boundaries of this prohibited district was completed this week.

The season, which opens October 15, will continue to December 23, both dates inclusive.

Bag limits are as follows: Bag limit for ducks, 10 in the aggregate of all kinds in any one day, of which not more than 3 of any one, or more than 3 in the aggregate may be redheads or buffheads; and of which not more than 1 may be a wood duck; and not more than 20 ducks in the aggregate of all kinds in possession at any one time of which not more than 6 of any one or more than 6 in the aggregate may be redheads or buffheads; and of which not more than 1 may be a wood duck.

Bag limit for geese and brant, 2 in the aggregate of all kinds in any one day and not more than 4 in the aggregate of all kinds in possession at any one time.

Bag limit for coot, 25 in any one day and not more than 25 in possession at any one time.

More ammunition is in the hands of hunters at this time than at any time in local duck hunting history. Heavy purchases were made early in anticipation of a wartime shortage, which has now developed. Ammunition for sale is extremely scarce, with choice as to size limited and dealers unable to replenish their supplies.

Hunters are reminded that they must have federal duck stamps before hunting migratory game birds.

Hunting starts each morning at sunrise and closes at sunset. A sunrise and sunset table will be published in this newspaper tomorrow, and the time for the succeeding day will be published on the front page each day throughout the season.

To Fight or Not to—Joe Is Puzzle

He May And He May Not, Depending On Several Things, But Mostly Joe

By ART EDSON

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13 (AP)—The Joe Louis controversy—will he or won't he fight again?—has ended. Both sides are right.

Sergeant Joe, on his way from Fort Riley, Kas., to Los Angeles for a two weeks furlough, diplomatically voted both yes and no while waiting for his early morning plane.

He hasn't exactly retired. Still he doubts if he ever does any more heavyweight title-defending.

(In Omaha Sunday Joe told David B. Kaufman of the Associated Press his fighting days were over. Later from New York came Promoter Mike Jacobs' cry that Joe had been misinterpreted.)

"When I said in Omaha I wasn't going to fight again," Joe explained, "I meant I'd probably never have another chance. This war is my business now. Say it lasts two years. I'm in for the duration and six months after. That's a long time to be out of training."

Then he figured he was through with the ring for keeps? "It depends," Joe replied. "Maybe the competition won't amount to much. And it depends on how I feel. You can't tell what kind of shape I'll be in when this war is over."

Joe, now 28, reiterated what he said in Omaha, that he would be pretty old for fighting when the war is finished. "Layoffs sure don't help none," he pointed out.

"Longest I ever went without training was five months," he recalled. "Getting in shape after that, regretted every mile of it."

On the other hand, for Joe was full of other hands this morning, the army doesn't ruin one's condition as much as might be expected.

"I got to feeling good quick while training for Conn," he declared.

And speaking of Conn, the boy whom Joe was to have fought until the army gave it the go, Louis doesn't think Billy's chances look too brilliant either.

"Probably be some youngsters coming along who can beat everybody," was the way he put it.

Needless Effort, BYU Gets Goal Posts Anyway

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 13 (AP) University of Utah football fans got their noses bloodied and their clothes torn needlessly.

Mighty Gophers Tumble From Top; Buckeyes Up

AP Sports Poll Names Ohio State Best In Nation; Washington State Tenth

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (AP)—Once-mighty Minnesota has tumbled at last, but the Big Ten conference still produces the best college football teams in the land, in the opinion of 91 sports writers who voted in the first Associated Press poll of the season and picked Ohio State as the country's No. 1 team.

Coach Paul Brown's Buckeyes, winners of their first three starts by decisive margins, received 25 first-place votes and a total of 636 points, based on the usual pattern of ten points for each first-place vote, nine for each second, and so on.

While Minnesota, the No. 1 team in the final rankings of 1941, slumped to 14th place this time, the Big Ten produced three other representatives among the first ten, in addition to Ohio State.

The southeastern conference landed a trio of teams among the first ten, including Georgia which was voted the No. 2 spot, while the east was represented by two clubs and the far west by one.

Here are the first ten, with the first-place votes in parentheses and points figured on a 10-9-8-7 etc. basis:

- Ohio State (25) .....636
- Georgia (12) .....494
- Michigan (12) .....418
- Alabama (10) .....358
- Illinois (8) .....328
- Georgia Tech (8) .....300
- Wisconsin (6) .....296
- Pennsylvania (5) .....289
- Colgate (2) .....170
- Washington State (8) 168

"I do not expect a change," Nugent said yesterday of the 61-year-old former catcher, whose popularity with the fans was as strong all season as the team's hold on last place.

This was Lobert's first year as a big league manager. His current contract expires January 1.

Georgia Piles Up Yards In First Four Victories

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 13 (AP)—Pre-season experts rated the University of Georgia football team as one of the nation's best. Here is its record to date: The Bulldogs rolled up 1627 yards by land and air against only 479 yards for Kentucky, Jacksonville naval base, Furman and Mississippi. They piled up 68 first downs—an average of 17 per game—while totaling 109 points against 26.
