SEARS ROEBUCK AND CO.

PIERCE MEETING SET FOR MONDAY

Plans for a public meeting for Congressman Walter M. Pierce when he comes here next Monday, were made at a meeting of local democrats Monday night at which a Pierce-for-Congress club was organized. The meeting will be held in the Fremont auditorium at 8 p. m.

A. A. Montgomery was elected chairman of the local Pierce club.

State Senator W. H. Strayer of Baker county is chairman of the general Pierce committee in the district.

On his visit here, Pierce will be accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. George Stadelman. Mrs. Pierce is in Washington. Pierce flew to the district to campaign for reelection against Lowell Stockman, Pendleton, the republican nominee.

LAKEVIEW SLATES MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

LAKEVIEW—A PTA membership drive will be held in Lakeview, starting October 19, according to Mrs. Katherine Flynn, membership chairman.

A house to house canvass will be made and Mrs. Flynn and staff will also receive membership at the general meeting.

Mrs. Flynn expects to raise the local membership by at least 10 per cent, which is asked by the national congress of parents and teachers.

Poe Valley

Dewey Smith sold some of his hay Sunday.

Mrs. Hoyle is cooking at the Chet Barton ranch in place of the regular cook who is ill at present.

THAT BRAID AGAIN!

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Lest James McAtee, navy public relations officer, was waiting in the lobby of a burlesque theatre. He wanted to talk with the manager about a float for a war chest drive.

Up walked a stranger who eye McAtee's uniform, complete with stripes and braid.

"Stop dreamin', tuber!" he barked. "Tell me when the show starts."

"WORK, FIGHT OR JAIL"

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 13 (AP)—Too many bums are hanging around Portland, Detective Captain John L. Keegan said yesterday, ordering police to see that the itinerant "work, fight or jail" forces go to jail.

That in all of Britain last year there were only 80 persons to whom the tax gatherers left as income of $25,000 is a fact of revolutionary implications—a fact reaching changes peacefully as complicated but nonetheless revolutionary in their social consequences—Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter.

Twelfth longest river in the world is the Amur, with a length of 2500 miles.
