SIX DIE IN TANK PRACTICE MISHAP

WITH THE SECOND ARMY, SOMEWHERE IN TENNESSEE, Oct. 16 (AP)—Six men drowned in the Cumberland river last night when two 28-ton tanks rolled off a pontoon bridge during a blackout movement.

The accident occurred at 11:30 p. m., off Jones Island near Old Hickory.

The column of medium tanks was crossing the river on steel tracks floated by rubber pontoons when the tracks of one of the tanks rolled off the bridge trestleway.

The resulting shift of weight tipped the bridge.

The driver of the tank in the rear quickly threw his machine into reverse and succeeded in saving himself and his crew.

Rubber reconnaissance boats were immediately launched from the bank and five men were saved. Several soldiers tore off their clothes and dived into the icy waters but there was no hope of saving the men trapped in the tanks on the bottom of the river.

Efforts were being made to raise the tanks today. Pending recovery of the bodies, names of those drowned were withheld.

BODY FOUND
MEDFORD, Oct. 16 (AP)—Deer hunters found the body of a man identified as John Hecker, formerly of Jacksonville, near the top of Mount Bishop yesterday. Deputy Sheriff William Grenbemer said Hecker disappeared from his home in 1938. He was despondent over the death of his wife.

One of the basic instances used in the production of synthetic rubber, butadiene, is manufactured from petroleum or grain.

ant leaders are invited to attend a party given by the program committee of the Girl Scout council at 2:30 p. m., Saturday, October 17, in St. Paul's Episcopal parish house.

Relax, Captain Ryan, the General Is Not So Angry

CAIRO, Oct. 16 (AP)—Capt. R. E. Ryan of Worcester, Mass., was worried and embarrassed, and he hoped that Brig. Gen. A. C. Strickland, commander of the United States air forces fighter command in the Middle East wouldn't be angry with him. "For what?" asked the general when Ryan anxiously approached him. "For breaking the tip off my propeller this morning." "Tell me about it, son. I didn't know about it." "Well, sir, I hit a tank," Ryan said. "But it was an accident." "We were shooting up a landing ground and a machine gun cut loose at me from the right about 300 yards away. I got mad and ruddered toward him. "As soon as I got three men on top of the tank in my sight I opened all my guns. One Jerry went straight up and the other two fell off. I pulled up as quick as I could, sir, but I hit the tank." The impact knocked 10 inches off the tip of his propeller blade but Ryan kept his plane in the air, wobbly but able to get home under the protection of two escorting fighters.

"We replaced the prop immediately, sir," said Ryan. "And it's back on the line for the next mission."
