Wedding Rites In Southern Church

Kathleen Fry Weds William K. Jenkins in Service Read at St. Luke's October Tenth

At a simple war-time ceremony at eight o'clock Saturday evening, October the tenth, Miss Kathleen Fry and PFC William Kennedy Jenkins were married in the presence of their families and a few close friends.

The service was read by the Reverend Mr. Banks at St. Luke's Episcopal church in San Diego. Tall vases of pink and white flowers and white tapers made a lovely setting for the bridal party.

The bride wore a white satin gown with a short veil, and carried a white prayer book from which fell a shower bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia. She was given in marriage by her father, Miss Patricia Holt, of Los Angeles, a college classmate of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a dress of pale blue crepe and carried pink carnations. Floyd Fry, a brother, who is in training at the naval base in San Diego, was the best man.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Fry, the parents of the bride, arranged a supper party at the El Cortez hotel for the bridal party, the families and a few friends.

Mrs. Jenkins' home is in Tacoma, and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fry. She graduated from Pomona college, at Claremont, California, a year ago. PFC Jenkins has lived in Klamath Falls for a number of years and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, of 1233 Pacific Terrace. He was a senior at Pomona college when he enlisted a year ago in the Marine corps. He is now stationed at Camp Elliott, near San Diego.

Following the war, the young couple expect to make their home in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins and Miss Mary Jane Jenkins went south for the wedding.

Miss Heifrin Is Bride

Ceremony Read Tuesday Evening at Kittredge Home

Dorothy Marie Heifrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gouldin of the Klamath Marsh, became the bride of Glenn Eugene McAfee, United States navy, in a ceremony read Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kittredge, 802 Eldorado. The Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church officiated.

The bride chose a white silk jersey gown with brief sleeves, long, full skirt, and shirred bodice, for her wedding. A fingertip length veil of illusion net fell from a halo of seed pearls and small blossoms, and she carried a sheaf of pink rosebuds and bouvardia.

Miss Mary Alice Serruys was the bride's only attendant. She wore a frock of white organdie with all over embroidery of pink flowers. A wreath of gardenias was worn in her hair.

Mr. Oscar Kittredge, uncle of the bride, was best man.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Oscar Kittredge of Adel, aunt of the bride. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held and the bride and groom cut their three tiered cake which was later served by Miss Serruys. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. Lee McMullen and Mrs. Jack Schultz.

The young couple left for Bremerton, Washington, where they will make their home and where Mr. McAfee is stationed with the navy hospital corps. He is the son of Mrs. G. M. Turnbull of Portland and J. L. McAfee of Bremerton.

The bride is a member of a prominent Klamath county family, attended school here and was graduated in the spring of 1941 from St. Helens hall, Portland. For traveling Mrs. McAfee wore a coffee brown wool gabardine suit with matching accessories and a corsage of fall flowers.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Norine Reed of Alameda, California, sister

Margaret Hay Is Kentucky Bride

Klamath Falls Girl Weds Lieutenant Napier in Church Rites October Seventh

Miss Margaret Hay, daughter of Circuit Judge and Mrs. Arthur D. Hay of Lakeview, became the bride of Lieutenant Bob H. Napier, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hawkins Napier of 632 North Third street, Klamath Falls, in a ceremony read at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, October the seventh, in Greenup, Kentucky.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Frank G. Matteson attended the couple.

The bride wore a teal blue sheer wool costume suit with gold trim, a small bonnet with brown veil and deep brown accessories. A corsage of fall flowers completed her costume.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party motored from Greenup to Columbus, Ohio, where they had dinner. Lieutenant and Mrs. Napier spent a week in Columbus before the officer was due to report at Camp Stewart, Georgia, coast artillery division of the United States army.

Mrs. Napier arrived in Klamath Falls Thursday evening and will resume her teaching position in the English department of Klamath Union high school.

Both Lieutenant and Mrs. Napier are well known here. The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Delta Gamma sorority. She has taught here for several years. Lieutenant Napier attended Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland.
