The six-foot, three-inch Dobbs quarterbacked Tulsa to a 40-0 victory over Washington university of St. Louis Saturday night.

Undefeated Ranks Thin; Hawks Lose

Notre Dame Wallops Bierman's Navy Men, 28-0; Duquesne, Vols Dropped

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 19 (AP)—Now that the nation's collegiate football teams have discovered that even the Navy Pre-Flight squads aren't beyond defeat, they can return to the business of bumping off their own unbeaten clubs and settling their conference disputes.

The unbeaten ranks were thinned last week when such teams as Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Colgate and Duquesne bit the dust, but there are several left which have nothing to worry about—until the coming week-end.

Then the records of undefeated powers like Ohio State, Illinois, Alabama and Santa Clara will be put on the line against stern opposition, with the mid-west section promising to furnish a large portion of the fireworks.

Illinois, which clipped Iowa, 12-7, Saturday for victory number four, is due for its stiffest test yet when it collides with Notre Dame, the team that grounded Bernie Bierman's Iowa Pre-Flight Seahawks, 28-0.

At the same time Ohio State, conqueror of Purdue by 26-0 in a Big Ten game, will tangle with Northwestern and Michigan, after beating Northwestern, 34-16, will try Minnesota, a 15-2 winner over Nebraska, in conference play. Other Big Ten struggles will pit Wisconsin against Purdue and Indiana against Iowa. Wisconsin tripped Great Lakes Naval, 13-7, and Indiana turned back Pitt, 19-7, Saturday.

Army, high on the list of the East's unbeaten teams after squealing Columbia, 34-6, takes on Harvard in one of the eastern headline tilts. Dartmouth, 14-2 winner over Harvard, catches Yale, which lost to Navy, 13-6, and Navy entertains unbeaten Georgia Tech in an inter-sectional affair.

Sugar Ray Battles Jannazzo

Undefeated Welter, Light Faces Tough in Philly

By TED MEIER

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19 (AP)—Ray "Sugar" Robinson, the Harlem dandy who has cleaned up the lightweight and welterweight boxing ranks in much the same manner that Joe Louis has in the heavyweight division, pits his undefeated ring record against tough Izzy Jannazzo, in a 10-round tonight.

Promoter Herman Taylor expects a capacity crowd of 10,000 to jam the arena to watch the heavily favored Robinson try for his 37th straight triumph as a professional. As an amateur he won 101 bouts in a row.

It will be Robinson's first appearance in a Philadelphia ring in more than a year. At that time he won a close decision over Marty Sarno.

Overnight odds were as high as 10 to 1 on Robinson, but many think that the skillful Jannazzo, who holds the Maryland version of the welterweight title, has a good chance of upsetting the dope.

A CLOSE ONE

BALDWIN, Kas., Oct. 19 (AP)—Only one second remained in the game between Baldwin and Spring Hill and it looked like the home team's 28-game winning streak was ended. The score was 0-0.

But the center beat the time-keeper's gun and flipped the ball in time for completion of a 13-yard forward pass and victory No. 29, 6 to 0.

SNOW IN WALLOWAS

ENTERPRISE, Oct. 19 (AP)—Deer hunters in the Wallowa mountains found snow on the ground today, the result of a comparatively heavy fall last week. Eight inches were reported at that point.

Balance of Power in Loop Swings to South

By RUSSELL NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19 (AP)—Like the man who looked at the giraffe and muttered "There ain't no such animal," Mr. Gus H. Fan may peer at the coast conference football standings today and exclaim: "I don't believe it."

Facts are facts and you cannot get around them. The University of California at Los Angeles Bruins top the league. They are up there, not through flukes, but as a result of the finest display of both power and precision football this writer has seen this season.

Billiards, Pin Prices Controlled

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson announced today that billiard parlors, pool halls and bowling alleys would be placed under price control about November 1, and that fees would not be allowed to advance.

"These are places where workers in the war effort and members of the armed forces by the thousands find relaxation after a day's work," said Henderson. "We are going to see to it that they will not be made to pay too much for their recreation."

Tulsa Tops List Of Unscored On, Unbeaten Teams

NEW YORK, Oct. 19 (AP)—Among the unbeaten and untied football teams operating on the nation's college gridirons this wartime season, at least seven have yet to yield a score.

Tulsa (Okla.) university, defending champion of the Missouri Valley conference, tops the list of at least 58 teams shown in an Associated Press survey today to be still unbeaten and untied.

The Tulsa team has scored 215 points while holding four opponents scoreless, 23 of them against Oklahoma of the Big Six and 40 of them against Washington of the Missouri valley.

Other teams which have not been scored on include Louisiana Tech, Baker university of Baldwin, Kas., Rollins college of Winter Park, Fla., Idaho Southern branch, Wartburg of Iowa and East Stroudsburg (Pa.).

The conference standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pts. For	Pts. Against
U. C. L. A.	2	0	0	1,000	51
Washington	2	0	1	1,000	26
U. S. C.	1	0	1	1,000	12
W. S. C.	1	0	0	350	42
O. S. C.	1	0	0	267	32
Stanford	1	0	0	200	34
California	0	2	0	0	8
Oregon	0	2	0	0	7
Idaho	0	2	0	0	7
Montana	0	2	0	0	16

first three teams are rooted in the southern section of the loop. UCLA is No. 1 and Southern California, No. 3 in between is University of Washington, ahead of USC only in percentage.

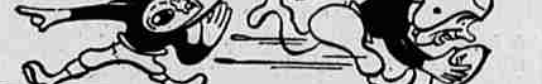

The UCLA Bruins set the wheels in motion. They knocked over Oregon State, defending champion and ruler of the Rose Bowl. Last Saturday, the Southern California Trojans completed the conference transformation by toppling the leader, Washington State.

The score was 26 to 12 and in the light of what had transpired before must be considered of an upset nature. Washington State went into it as the favorite, with three conference wins and no losses. All the Trojans could point to was a conference tie and solid thumpings from the non-conference opponents.

While USC was coming to life, UCLA boomed into undisputed leadership with a rousing 21-0 victory over its keenest rival, the older University of California, at Berkeley.

Washington, meanwhile moved up another notch, with an

Brown End Insists on Lightweight Shoes; Has Too Much Wingfoot for Team's Good

By TUSS McLAUGHRAY

Dartmouth's Head Coach

Brown was playing Yale a number of years ago, and I had an end who for several weeks prior to the game clamored for a pair of lightweight shoes, which cost $20. He made all sorts of predictions as to what he could do if he could add speed based on light weight shoes. I decided to buy him a pair, but told him that he would have to earn them.

We set up a play from punt formation in which he ran clear to the sideline, went as deep as he could as a decoy while a pass was thrown to the other side. That was a build-up to him.

The play finally came up. But due to the fact that the end had on the light weight shoes, he ran so fast and so far that the passer was unable to get the ball to him.

It was intercepted by Yale and run back for a touchdown.

And Ken Klahn, after all these years, is a happy man. Kenneth, past president of the Quarterbacks, has been glooming since 1914 or thereabout over the lack of a Pelican passing attack. Friday night the Klamaths not only completed four out of seven but two of them, Foster to Coddington and Shortgen to Mayfield, were good for touchdowns.

Here's the way the lads found Medford individually:

Don Mast picked up a total of 98 yards from scrimmage, most of directly through the line on fake punts; Foster, in addition to his two sensational run-backs of Tiger punts, gained 30 from scrimmage; Elwyn Silva, who mysteriously remains a third-string back, found 31 yards in the short minutes he was in; Shortgen got 14, McKay five and Dick Vaillancour netted nothing in three or four attempts.

For the blown-out Tornado: Fullback Billy Bayliss garnered 20 yards, Orr eight, Adams seven, Dippel five, Baker three, and Davis two.

The figures are all net, after subtracting losses from gains. The lights went out before we could jot down the number of times each back carried the ball so we're unable to reveal per-centage averages.

All this fails to tell the beautiful story of defense. But it was a honey, nevertheless. From end to end the Klamaths were a poised, alert and aggressive band.

Coddington, at left end, blocked and successfully recovered the second Medford punt on the Tiger five-yard line early in the first quarter. On the next play Foster carried it over for the initial Pelican score.

Patske, alongside him, flopped on Dippel's fumble in the waning moments of the third quarter on the Medford 43, from where the boys whammed down the field and Shortgen carried it over for the fourth score. He also played a constant game in the Tiger backfield.

Use of Double Wristlock Breaks Grab Hold, Favorite Jap Method of Flooring

By LIEUT. ED DON GEORGE

Coach of Rough and Tumble, U. S. Navy Pre-Flight Schools Favorite Jap method of flooring an opponent is to grab him by the belt with one hand and pull. The other hand shoves the opposite shoulder as his right foot executes a neat trip (1).

Step into your opponent, with your left hand (or right, depending on which hand holds the belt) coming around and above his elbow.

FINAL STEPS IN COUNTER

Pivot on your left foot as you put pressure on your opponent's left shoulder, straight down. Twist his arm across his back (3). Continue the downward pressure on his shoulder.

Your left knee is directly under his face, holding him there as you twist his arm.
