itions factories, but Under-Secretary Patterson said:

"The release of these men (the miners) is designed to relieve a shortage of metals that endangers our war program.

Three Weapons

"The army sees no need at this time for furloughing other troops in similar manner. The job of our soldiers is to fight, not to work in mines, mills or factories. An exception is being made in this case only because the striking power of our army is at stake."

McNutt disclosed that the proposed national service bill would arm the administrative agency with three weapons:

1. The power to require employers to hire all workers through a central agency as a means of channeling workers into essential occupations.

2. Authority to control methods of labor utilization to prevent transfer of workers from a plant needing men to another plant where laborers are being improperly utilized or "hoarded."

3. Power to require individuals to remain on the job, or to transfer to another.

He warned, however, that the power to keep men on jobs, or to send them to other employment, "should not be permitted to be the instrument for undercutting established wage standards."

DRIVE ON VOLGA CITY LOSES POWER

scored fresh gains in house-to-house fighting.

Dispatches from the ruined Volga metropolis said a battered power plant still supplied electricity to the city and that a newspaper continued to publish.

Front-line reports said Russian reinforcements, ferried across the Volga under a tempest of German artillery fire and bombing attacks, stemmed the Nazi drive into the factory district at the hour of gravest danger.

Northwest of the city, on a 40-mile front between the Don and Volga rivers, Marshal Semion Timoshenko's relief army was reported to have strengthened its positions, challenging the vital German left flank which protects the main siege armies.

No matter how hard the going may get here on the home front, you can REFRAIN FROM GRUMBLING AND GROUSING. No matter how hard your lot may be at home, it will be EASY as compared with the lot of the men who are doing the fighting.

TOKYO THREATENS RAID 'CAPTIVES'

ond Lieut. William J. Farrow, 23, of Darlington, S. C., Second Lieut. Dean E. Hollmark, 27, 80 Way avenue, Dallas, Tex., Corporal Jacob D. DeShazer, 29, of Oregon, and Sergeant Mechanic Harold A. Spatz, 20, of Kansas.

The Tokyo radio on Monday said that U. S. airmen captured after the raid had been convicted of "inhuman acts" because, it was charged, they bombed civilians and machinegunned school children. It was said they "would be severely punished in accordance with international law."

(Capt. F. R. White of the United States army medical corps, who was in one of the planes which attacked Kobe, April 18, declared in Norwich, England, today that the raid was "not indiscriminate" and that all objectives were "carefully picked out."

"No inhuman act occurred," Capt. White asserted. He said that factories, warehouses and power plants were attacked, and that the American bombers, flying low, were not detected by Japan's defenses. People in streets waved, and once a group of small boys threw stones up at the planes, he said.

Today's Dome broadcast said other names would be announced later.

Although a German broadcast of Japanese dispatches today quoted Tomokazu Hori, Japanese foreign office spokesman, as saying that the American pilots seized after the raid already had been sentenced by a Japanese military court, the broadcast also suggested that the sentences might not be carried out immediately.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21 (P) Corporal Jacob D. DeShazer, mentioned today in a Tokyo radio broadcast as a Doolittle raider now in Japanese hands, is from Madras, in central Oregon.

According to Mrs. Paul DeShazer of Warren, Ore., sister-in-law of the corporal, the last letter from him was received April 14, four days before the Doolittle raid. A war department announcement on May 20 listed DeShazer as one of the first Oregon fliers in the raid.

DeShazer's mother, Mrs. H. M. Andrus, resident of a ranch on the outskirts of Madras, revealed on May 21 that her son had messaged her April 1 not to "worry about me, mother, I am in no danger."

STIMSON RAPS PROPOSAL FOR 'PROHIBITION'

as "a sneaking, undemocratic and un-American effort of the old Anti-Saloon league."

As both sides took advantage of a one-day recess to marshal forces for a possible showdown tomorrow on Lee's "bone dry" amendment to a bill lowering the draft age to 18, the Oklahoman told reporters that some of his senatorial supporters were "people who don't favor general prohibition."

"But," he declared, "they are for my amendment."

The author of the "teen age" draft bill, Senator Gurney (R-S. D.), said for his part that he hoped no "controversial amendment" would slow up its passage.

Opponent's of Lee's amendment which would bar the possession, sale, gift or use of any alcoholic beverage, including beer, in and around army and navy posts, viewed it as a possible entering wedge for a return to national prohibition. The dry zones around camps would be delineated by the secretary of war, and, opponents said, might embrace large population centers. The bill also would ban prostitutes from the designated areas.

The draft bill, approved by a vote of 345 to 16 in the house Saturday, comes up for debate in the senate tomorrow by an interparty agreement. General George C. Marshall and Admiral Ernest J. King of the joint general staff have recommended the lower age limit as a military necessity.

sistent, although thus far scattered, opposition.

These observers, who would not permit their names to be used, said that popular resentment over work conscription, increasing agitation in axis quarters over the question of whether Dakar would be involved in an African offensive and revival of discussions of the dangers of new allied landings along the channel all combined to make Laval's position difficult.

Reports reaching Bern said Admiral Jean Darlan, commander in chief of France's land, sea and air forces, was expected to leave for Dakar tomorrow.

GOP's Urged to Attend Dinner Slated Thursday

Republican central committee members and all interested party members were asked to make reservations for the republican dinner to be held Thursday at 6:30 p. m. in the Pelican party room. Principal woman speaker at the meeting will be Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state vice chairman of the state central committee, Portland attorney and active in state political affairs.

Mrs. Richardson was appointed as acting municipal judge in Portland this past summer. She has worked actively on the compulsory military training program in schools and colleges and recently was made an honorary colonel of the ROTC, ninth corp area, in San Francisco.

The state leader has held the second highest office in the national DAR and is national DAR Americanization chairman. In this office she wrote a citizenship manual for aliens which has been used in night schools in the United States. More than three million copies have been printed by the organization. Mrs. Richardson was recently awarded a medal in Philadelphia by the National Daughters of American Colonists, as a woman who, over a period of years, has been most valuable to patriotic and defense works.

Ralph Cate of Portland, republican national committeeman, will also be present as will Lowell Stockman, Pendleton, candidate for congress. Earl Snell, republican gubernatorial candidate, will not be present but will be represented by his supporters.

TAX LEGISLATION CLOSED FOR YEAR

and their aides felt they had done enough for a while.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (P)—Here, in brief, are the major provisions of the new tax bill now on President Roosevelt's desk:

Individuals

Normal income tax rate boosted from 4 to 6 per cent. Surtaxes now ranging from 6 to 77 per cent raised to a range of from 13 to 82 per cent, with maximum at $200,000 level.

Five per cent victory tax placed on gross income above $624 yearly, with 25 per cent of tax up to $500 refundable to single persons and 40 per cent, plus 2 per cent for each dependent, up to $1000, to married persons.

Personal exemptions for interparty agreement. General George C. Marshall and Admiral Ernest J. King of the joint general staff have recommended the lower age limit as a military necessity.

Credit allowed against income tax for all medical expenses in excess of 5 per cent of net income, with maximum of $2500. Limit of taxation on individual put at 90 per cent of net income.

asserting that "RAF planes" caused more than 100 deaths and injuries to 350 there.

Authoritative sources at the same time said royal air force Mustangs—fleet American-made fighters—and Mosquito planes—Britain's speedy bombers—carried out daylight attacks in western Germany and Holland.

Reports reaching Bern said Admiral Jean Darlan, commander in chief of France's land, sea and air forces, was expected to leave for Dakar tomorrow.

age on the Japanese airdrome and shipping at Buin, Bougainville island, about 315 miles northwest of Guadalcanal.

Hornet's Nest

All allied planes, meeting no attempts at interception, returned safely from the Buin night raid, the communique said. The navy's report yesterday of the latest American assaults in the Solomons and Aleutians made no mention of any enemy planes rising to counterattack.

Possibility that the southwestern Pacific skies may soon become a hornet's nest of allied planes was seen yesterday in an assertion by Secretary of the Navy Knox that the number of navy land-based planes was "steadily increasing."

Bombs Dropped

In the North Pacific, the navy announced that on Oct. 18 the army's heavy four-motored Liberator bombers smashed again at the island of Kiska, the last of three Aleutian bases once held by the Japanese.

Twelve tons of bombs were dropped on enemy shore installations and on a beached ship in the harbor. The explosives set fires in the camp area. The communique made no mention of any further aerial resistance, last encountered early this month.

Meantime, MacArthur's Australian troops further reduced the Japanese threat to the allied Port Moresby base in New Guinea by pushing the enemy back three miles in the Owen Stanley mountains.

Not until women are thoroughly acquainted with the many jobs which navy men are doing at shore stations will the women's reserve make its really significant contribution to the war effort, — Lieut. Comdr. Mildred McAfee, of WAVES.

Fighters Wage Losing Battle In Coast Fire

thought unlikely the men would be trapped, a deputy said. The inmates, honor prisoners, live in barracks and are not locked up.

A grimy force of soldiers, coast guardsmen and civilians were striving with scant success to check the flames, which already had denuded an estimated 8000 acres, much of it valuable watershed.

The Los Angeles county fire department had stripped its stations of all but the barest emergency equipment as it concentrated its motorized forces on the blaze. County firemen, and road camp prisoners, were working shoulder to shoulder in the stifling heat and smoke with army troopers, state guardsmen, members of the coast guard and sheriff's deputies. And at the far flung city limits Los Angeles firemen stood guard, ready to take a hand if the flames approached their jurisdiction.

The outlook generally is much brighter for the boys who look out.

PORTLAND, Oct. 21 (P)—The Willamette Iron and Steel company today launched the second in a series of minesweepers, the U. S. S. Bond. There was little ceremony.

SPENCER PLEADS INNOCENT IN SF

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31 (P)—Dudley Spencer, Klamath Falls, Ore., business man, pleaded innocent today to an indictment charging him with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Superior Judge Thomas M. Foley fixed November 24 for trial.

Spencer and two members of a large hotel orchestra, Eino Cozza, and William Shoras, were named in testimony by two Oregon girls, 12 and 13 years old, who ran away from home and were making the rounds of night spots when authorities found them. The two indicted band members have not yet entered their pleas.
