

FROM WAY OUT YONDER
We've a letter today. From a kid who's a long way from home and, 'though he doesn't say so, is a little homesick.

He's James Ward, Klamath Union high school '39, currently James Ward, Contractors FNAB, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, Barber's Point project.

Here's what he has to say:

"With football season taking the place of baseball and all the people of Hawaii beginning to look upon their favorite team to help relieve their war nerves, I couldn't help but call the attention of yourself to the time back in 1939 when Klamath high could have played McKinley high here in Honolulu and how our coach (Snowy Gustafson) had fired us up with the idea of such a trip.

"As you no doubt remember, Klamath did have a fairly good team that year, for they had swept all their opponents before them by big scores, with the usual (Ed's note: sic) exception of Medford which we lost by a close score in one of the hardest fought battles ever to be witnessed in southern Oregon. (Ed's note: sic) Ward, a 1939 graduate, apparently meant the season of 1938 when Medford defeated the Pelicans, 6-0. In 1939, the teams tied, 0-0.

"After seeing how the fellows over here take to playing football and hearing how the other schools have been treated upon coming here to Hawaii, I am more than ever sorry and disappointed that KUHS could not have sent that team here.

"It is my special hope, that when this unpleasant task that our country has to finish and peace again has been established, that Klamath high will again get such a chance but this time the lads will get to go, for it would be quite a treat and a thrill never to be forgotten, not only to the boys who get to come to Hawaii, but if they should exchange games the folks at home would thrill in seeing the barefooted, sun-tanned lads of Hawaii buck the line on the green turf of Modoc field.

"So until then or when such a game or possibility comes true, I remain,

Yours,
JAMES WARD,
KUHS 1939."

OTTO GRAHAM LOOMING AS PASSING ACE

Northwestern Star Completes 20 Out of 29 But 'Cats Lose to Michigan

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 21 (AP)—Northwestern's Otto Graham currently holds the honors for the year's best single-game passing performance but the dark-browed junior halfback only laughs when terms like "sling-shot wing" and "rubber arm" are used to describe his ability.

"I just throw," he said today.

"Some days I feel hot and other days I can't hit a thing. Against Michigan I just felt good."

In the Michigan game last Saturday (which the Wolverines won, 34-16) Graham completed 20 of 29 passes and gained 295 yards. He won wide fame last year for a season's mark of 38 completions in 75 tries—but in four 1942 games he has hit the target 37 out of 73.

"Michigan left their flats wide open," Graham offered as an explanation of his feat Saturday. "I could have completed passes out there all day. They were just going good and the boys were doing a nice job of catching them."

Graham's "hot day" against the Wolverines ran his passing total for the season to 482 yards. Only four of his throws have been intercepted.

FOUR DECADES BACK
Exactly 40 years ago this week, Walter Camp, famed football critic, said this about Richard Shore Smith of Klamath Falls, Ore., then playing on Columbia university's grid squad: "Weekes and Smith as a pair of backs ought to be the equals of any two men on any team this season. Weekes can make end runs to perfection, and Smith can strike across the tackle position with as great severity as any in the backfield of any team last year or this year."

Richard Shore Smith played for Oregon and then played four years at Columbia (you could do that in those days.) He is now president of the First National Bank of Eugene, and in the middle 'twenties served as coach of the University of Oregon team.

QUARTERBACKING
Coach Large Frank Ramsey spilled credit in multiple directions at Monday's Quarterback meeting at which Don Mast and Neil Mayfield, co-captains for the Medford game, represented the team.

Large Frank revealed for the first time that Don and Nell were the first to know of the death of Foster's step-father and that Frank himself didn't know until the team stopped in Ashland en route to Medford.

Then Don and Nell approached Ramsey, asked that Frank be appointed captain for the game and disclosed his dad's death. Large Frank told the boys to carry on according to plans.

They certainly did.

"The finest bunch of boys I've ever worked with," Ramsey said of the team.

CRUZ TRUNCES LEO TURNER IN PORTLAND BOUT

PORTLAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—A two-fisted attack in the late rounds won Costello Cruz, Santa Barbara, Calif., a 10-round decision last night over Leo Turner, 197, Portland negro.

Turner had the edge in the early rounds, but Cruz' superior infighting soon began to tell and he had the negro almost helpless by the final round.

In a wild semi-windup, Al Spina, 141, Portland, gained a six-round decision over Bill Dobrill, 143, Los Angeles. There were eight knock-downs, seven of them scored by Spina.

310 Pounds—And a Lady Bagged It

Adeline Houck, right, of 418 North Eleventh street, bagged this 310-pound buck Sunday with one shot behind the right ear. She slew the five-pointer at the head of Sycaun marsh north of Bly. With her was Vera Powers, left, of Boise, Ida., but it took two more besides to drag the huge buck the quarter-mile back to the car. It's one of the largest seen in the Klamath country for several years.

One Armed, But Jones Is Tulsa's Line Star

Ellis Jones, Red-Haired Right Guard, Earns Post Over Two-Armed Candidates

By BEN FUNK

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 21 (AP)—Rugged, Red-Haired Ellis Jones, University of Tulsa right guard, has only one arm but he couldn't be much harder to handle, opposition linemen say, if he had as many flippers as an octopus.

A lot of people were surprised, most of all Jones himself, when the quiet, modest Texan won a starting berth on the most powerful Tulsa football team of recent years.

But Coach Henry Frank insists that he was entirely in his right mind when he gave Jones the nod over a field of half a dozen pretty good guard candidates.

"Jones is very fast and has tremendous leg power," Frank said. "And he can block, kick, and is a good tackler."

Jones injured his right arm in a fall from a tree when he was 11 years old. Blood poisoning forced doctors to amputate the arm near the shoulder.

One of his boyhood ambitions was to play football and he determined not to let the handicap stop him. He went out for football as a freshman in the Abilene, Tex., high school.

"Better not do it, kid," advised Coach Dewey Mayhew. "This is a rough game and you might get hurt."

But Jones couldn't be talked out of it. So, to keep him out of danger and out of the way, Mayhew assigned him to a scrub team where he had little chance for action.

However, the sober, determined youngster had no intention of remaining with the scrubs. Hours at a time, day after day, he practiced kicking, blocking and tackling and even learned to snag a pass with the best of them.

When he was a junior, Mayhew promoted him to the first string and two years later he made the San Angelo, Tex., Junior College team.

A report on Jones came to Frank last fall from a scout who saw San Angelo play the Cameron Aggies at Lawton, Okla. "That one-armed guy," said the scout, "was in their backfield all day."

Frank was skeptical but saw to it, nevertheless, that Jones was duly sold on the merits of Tulsa university.

And Jones soon sold himself to Tulsa when he arrived and donned a football suit.

Notes

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 21 (AP)—Tommy Roblin, ace Oregon backfield man, probably will be a blocking back against the Idaho football team here Saturday.

Roblin started the season as principal ball carrier, but in the game against Washington two weeks ago was in the quarterback position most of the time.

Coach John Warren said he liked the experiment well, and might use Bob Reynolds, negro speedster, at left half, Scotty Deeds at right half and Bill Davis at fullback.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 21 (AP)—Lineup revisions today gave the Oregon State football team one of the heaviest backfields in the coast conference.

Choc Shelton, 200-pound alternate fullback, was shifted to right halfback so that he and Fullback Joe Day, 200, could be in the game at the same time to crack opposition lines.

Rounding out the quartet are Everett Smith, 190, left half, and Boyd Clement, 207, quarterback.

Coach Lon Stiner said he expected Guard Orv Zielaskowski, injured three weeks ago, to be ready for the game against Washington State in Portland Saturday.

SEATTLE, Oct. 21 (AP)—The emphasis is on scoring in the University of Washington football camp this week.

Fifth of 12 instructive articles. Assailant throws a left hook at your chin (1). Don't box him. That's a waste of precious seconds.

Step quickly into the arm (2). With an upward swing of your arm, pin his to your side and drive a knee into his groin. That will fix him.

DUCKS LOSE COACH
EUGENE, Oct. 21 (AP)—The University of Oregon was short another football coach today.

Latest member to enter the armed services was Ray Seagle, varsity and freshman line coach, who joined the marines.

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 21 (AP)—Jim Jurkovich, University of California left halfback who has been out of the lineup because of leg injury, is working out again with the hope of entering the game with the University of Washington Saturday.

BROOKLYN—Jake Lamotta, 162½, New York, stopped Bill McDowell, 164½, Dallas, Tex. (1).

EUGENE HIGH BIG, EYES TITLE

Axemen Boast Veteran Lineup, Beef, and Fast Backs

They're big, they're tough, and they're talking state championship.

That's the Eugene Axemen, unbeaten and untied and the Klamath high Pelicans' next opponent. The squads face off Friday night on Modoc field.

From end to end and in the backfield the Axemen will be equal if not superior in weight to the large Klamaths, marking the first time this season the locals will face an opponent matching them pound-for-pound.

Here's the way it looks, according to the Eugene High dope book, which may be loaded but nevertheless is the only source book to date on the Axemen:

Left end—Bob Hicks, senior, two-year letterman, co-captain. All star in the strong No-Name league as a junior. "Probably the best lineman in the state." Weighs 170, 5 feet 9 inches tall.

Center—John Chamberlain, senior, one-year letterman. "Best built man on the team, this lad is really a boy to watch in the No-Name league for all-star center." Weighs 200 pounds, stands 6 feet 4 inches.

Right guard—Gordon Sprecher, senior, no experience. Six feet, weighs 170.

Right tackle—Dick Callahan, senior, one-year letterman. Entered Eugene from Philippine Islands. Weighs 185, stands 6 feet 2 inches.

Right end—Ernie Danner, senior, weighs 180, stands 6 feet 1 inch.

Quarterback—Ranny Smith, junior, one-year letterman, despite height of only 5 feet 6 inches and 160-pound weight. Leads T formation.

Left halfback—Howard Stewart, co-captain, senior, two-year letterman, Triple-T h r e e t e r. Weighs 160, stands 5 feet 8 inches.

Right halfback—Bob Kramer, junior, one-year letterman. No relation to Coach Fritz Kramer, he was one of two sophomores to letter in three sports last year. A plunger. Stands 6 feet, weighs 185 pounds.

Fullback—Bob Porter, senior, 190 pounds, 6 feet 1 inch.

The Axemen against Milwaukie, whom they whipped 31-7, last Friday, gained 137½ yards to the enemy 57½ from rushing. Milwaukee hurled 12 passes, completed five for 60 yards while Eugene tossed six, completed two for 38½ yards.

Stewart toled the ball 17 times for 87½ yards, an average of 4.7 times for 17 yards.

Stewart scored thrice, once on a pass from Kramer, Chamberlain intercepted a pass and rammed 21 yards for another and Bob McKivett, a 175-pound reserve back, scored the other.

Take Proper Care of Your Deer--And Eat It

CORVALLIS, Oct. 21 (AP)—Make big game hunting this year contribute to the meat supply as well as to sport, Lucy Case and H. A. Lindgren, extension specialists in nutrition and animal husbandry, respectively, at O. S. C. suggested today.

Unless care is taken much meat is wasted by poor handling. Here are their suggestions for "bring 'em back dead—but fit to eat."

Go prepared to dress the animal in the woods. First steps in dressing are, remove testicles, bleed the animal with head down hill, then remove glands on inside of locks, to prevent off flavor in the meat. Next remove entrails.

As soon as the carcass is back at camp skin it to hasten cooling. If weather is cool it can remain in camp several days; otherwise rush it to cold storage within a day, unless you have the taste of an eskimo.

In camp protect the carcass from flies with sacking, except at night, then quarter it for hauling home—taking care not to put it in the hottest part of the car.

Jim Bivins Hangs Loss On Pastor

Cleveland Negro Steps Up In Heavy Ranks; Bicycle Bob Lands More Punches

By RAY BLOSSER

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—With decisions over highly regarded Bob Pastor and Tami Mauriello in his last two scraps, Jimmy Bivins deserves a spot well up in the heavyweight ranks today.

The punching Cleveland negro, who normally fights as a light heavy, tacked on a couple of extra pounds last night and grabbed a split decision from a surprised and indignant Pastor who landed far more blows, although they weren't quite so sharp, the 10,578 faithful who entrusted $35,908 to Matchmaker Larry Atkins' care at the Cleveland arena seemed evenly divided on the verdict.

Bicycling Bob was provoked at the ruling, declaring "I won my last 14 fights and I didn't lose this one." Although Pastor twice slipped to one knee for no count, there were no knock-downs as in their first encounter six months ago when Robert won after hitting the floor in the first two rounds.

As a result, a third match appears inevitable between the 21-year-old Bivins, who at 17½ spotted the New Yorker seven pounds, and Pastor, now 28 and talking of enlisting in the marines early next year.

8 Hunters Arrested at Sheepy Lake

DORRIS—Eight hunters were arrested near Sheepy lake Saturday by H. E. Cherry, warden for the U. S. fish and wildlife service at Tulelake, all charged with taking wild geese without procuring proper license.

The hunters appeared before L. M. Chase at Dorris the same day and paid fines totaling $175.

Robert Vandendael of Klamath Falls was fined $25; Joe Hermant, Rt. 3, Box 483, Klamath Falls, $25; H. A. Salisbury, 337½ Main street, Klamath Falls, $25; H. H. Hanson, Langlois, Ore., $25; Art Aldropp, Langlois, $25; A. E. Miksch, Rt. 3, Box 159, Klamath Falls, $20; Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bates, Ashland, each were fined $15.

Ex-Stanford Track Star Makes Bid

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21 (AP)—Overlooked in the welter of football upsets and general confusion of the Coast conference championship scramble is the fact that an old Stanford shotputter and discus thrower is making a powerful bid to become "the football coach of the year" in the west.

Glenn "Tiny" Hartrant is operating without fanfare but effectively at San Jose State college. When Ben Winkleman went into the army air corps, Hartrant took over head coaching along with his own athletic directorship.

Hartrant is not a green hand at coaching but this is his first try at the varsity post position. Before he moved into the athletic executive chair he had a fling at mentoring freshman ball and, before that, taught high school boys their pigskin A, B, C's.

Wildkits Tie Into Medford

Valley Junior High Team Plays on Modoc Field Tonight

Coach Wayne Scott's Wildkits will tangle with Lakeview Thursday night on Modoc field under lights to give Klamath's grid fans the second game of three on consecutive nights on the local greensward.

Another Medford team faces another Klamath eleven tonight on Modoc field when the Tiger junior high school tackles Coach Paul Deller's freshmen Wildkits at 8 o'clock under lights.

The tiff will be in the nature of a vengeance go. Last fall the valley boys trampled Deller's team, 33-0, over there.

Norm Worthley's squad is perennially tough. The Medford mentor has a student body of 538 to furnish him material. There will be no charge for the game.

Joe Cronin Sails for Red Cross

NEWTON, Mass., Oct. 21 (AP)—Manager Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox put thoughts of baseball away today to prepare for a journey overseas to do war work for the American Red Cross.

He hopes he'll be back in time for baseball next year—if there is any baseball. But Cronin thinks there will be baseball because "the American people want it."

First news of Cronin's coming work overseas came in an announcement by the Red Cross in Washington yesterday. It explained Cronin would be assigned to manage one of its overseas leave clubs for American service men but gave no further details.
