Benefit Event of Saturday Afternoon

Job's Daughters Entertain in Masonic Temple With Attractive Fall Party.

One of early fall's most delightful affairs was the benefit bridge party given Saturday afternoon by Job's Daughters when members entertained in the Masonic temple. The large room was arranged with autumn flowers with a cluster of chrysanthemums and pink roses in a silver bowl, flanked on either side by tall candles, decorating the lovely tea table.

Assisting about the rooms were officers of Job's Daughters including Miss Barbara Moore, Honored Queen; Miss Joy Kent, senior princess; Miss Letty Linman, junior princess; Miss Maxine Liskay, Miss Marjorie Schultz, Miss Sharon Willis, Miss Marcelyn Wiggins, Miss Barbara Kvern, Miss Betty Rea Martin and Miss Jean Ostendorf.

Following cards tea was served with Mrs. Chesleigh O. Moore, mother of the Honored Queen, and Mrs. Howard Listoe, guardian, pouring at the silver services.

Those who reserved tables for the afternoon were Mrs. A. A. Montgomery, Mrs. C. Harvey, Mrs. W. Woodcock, Mrs. W. Boyne, Mrs. Junior Waggoner, Mrs. Sallway, Mrs. Ed Ostendorf, Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. Lorn Palmerton, Mrs. A. G. Wiggins, Mrs. Warren Bennett, Mrs. H. Rusco, Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, Mrs. Harlan P. Betrothal Announced

Barbara Johnson To Wed Annapolis Cadet, Friends Learn

An announcement of interest to the younger set here is the betrothal of Miss Barbara Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, to Cadet Stewart Nelson of Annapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson of Salem.

The engagement was told at the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house in Eugene, University of Oregon, at dinner last Sunday. The table, around which fifty guests were seated, was centered with a sailboat on a large blue mirror which was wreathed in red, white and blue corsages tied with hearts and anchors. The navy theme was also stressed in the many, many red, white and blue candles, sailor knots of rope and silver anchors.

Mrs. E. D. Johnson and Mrs. Carl Nelson were among the guests at the affair and three Klamath maids assisted during the day, including Miss Rosemary Sloan, Miss Phyllis Foster and Miss Helen Moore, all university students.

Cadet Nelson left the university in his junior year to attend Annapolis, where he is now in his second year. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and has visited here at the Johnson home. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Johnson returned the early part of the week from Eugene. * * * Mrs. Frank P. Drew, now in Portland for the duration, has written friends that her husband, assigned to a post in England with the United States navy, has been stationed in Wales.

YOU COULD PICK OUT KLAMATH fans at the "Big Game" played October sixteenth when the Pelicans took Medford to a new low in our football history on the valley gridiron. Tea Plans Announced

Council of Church Women To Sponsor Affair on Tuesday

An interesting affair of the coming week is the tea to be given in the parish house of St. Paul's Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock when the Council of Women will honor Pattie Lee Coghill of New York. A cordial invitation is issued to all interested church women by Mrs. John Yaden, council president.

A musical program will be given during the afternoon and tea served at four o'clock. Pattie Lee Coghill of New York is one of the secretaries of promotion and missionary education of the board of home missions of the Congregational Christian churches.

An obvious southerner in her speech, Miss Coghill was nurtured in the former Christian church and trained by Elton college, with additional work at Boston university. In 1929 she became an extension worker among our churches in Florida, some years later adding Georgia to her territory. In this capacity she labored effectively with the young people and women of a great variety of churches—open country, mill town, city, resort. From Atlanta to Key West is a long way both geographically and in other ways. Pattie Lee—as everybody calls her—knows how to get on with all sorts of people.

In her own inimitable way she tells the story of home missions in the south to our churches. She attends numerous summer conferences and cooperates with the national leaders of the Pilgrim Fellowship in developing their mis-
