

Vows Exchanged in Lutheran Ceremony

Gladys Jane Park Becomes Bride of Richard Brown in Wednesday Afternoon Service.

At four o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Klamath Lutheran church, Gladys Jane Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey D. Park, became the bride of Mr. Richard Mark Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of this city. The service was read by the Rev. L. K. Johnson, pastor of the church.

The altar was banked with greens and palms used as a background for the lovely white chrysanthemums and tall white candles. Miss Marie Obenchain at the pipe organ accompanied Miss Patricia Brown who sang, "O Promise Me." The traditional wedding marches were also played by Miss Obenchain.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk marquisette over satin, the scroll embroidery of her gown repeated in the fingertip length veil which fell from a coronet of white plumes. Her flowers were pink roses and bouvardia. The bride wore her mother's pearls and the groom's mother's pearl ring as her jewelry.

Miss Isabelle Milne, the bride's only attendant, wore a frock of pale green chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. She wore a wreath of small chrysanthemums in her hair. Corporal Robert Foster was the best man and ushers were Mr. Stephen Sabo and Mr. Ralph Foster.

Following the ceremony there was a wedding dinner served in the blue room of the Willard hotel. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Pink rosebuds circled the base of the cake and tall white candles burned on either side. White chrysanthemums decorated the room. Receiving with the bride and groom were their mothers. Mrs. Park wore a peach brown and aqua marine blue frock with matching accessories and Mrs. Brown wore powder blue and black with black accessories. Both had corsages of talliesman roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for San Francisco on their honeymoon. For traveling the bride wore a costume suit of brown velvet with a matching off the face hat trimmed with pheasant feathers. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mr. Brown reports for duty with the United States army at Fort Lewis within a short time. Mrs. Brown will join her husband at his station. Both young people are well known here. They attended Klamath Falls school and Oregon State college.

Among the out-of-town visitors at the wedding was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. F. N. White, who arrived Monday from Minneapolis to attend the service.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Little David Deller's fifth birthday, which occurred Tuesday afternoon from three to five o'clock at the Paul M. Deller home, 850 Pacific Terrace, was the highlight of the week for David as well as his little guests. Halloween favors were distributed during the afternoon and the birthday cake was iced in Halloween figures.

Many gifts, including defense stamps, were presented Master Deller. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Deller and three of the mothers, Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mrs. Harold Palmer and Mrs. Frank Ramsey, to Kay Robinette, Jimmy Stanfield, Donnie Soule, Diane and Serina Smith, Dickie Arnold, Robert Rozendal, Robert Inman, David Ristrom, Clifford Rowe, Richard Norland, Donnie Drury, Richard Ward, Jocille Ramsey, Helen Bertram, Carol Ann Cronk, Patricia Palmer, Maurice Deller and David.

DINNER FOR PORTLAND VISITOR

Mrs. John Rutz of Portland, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lorn Dalcour at their home on Pacific Terrace during the past week. Mrs. Rutz is a former resident of Klamath Falls and has numerous friends here.

On Wednesday evening, October the twenty-first, Mrs. Rutz was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the home of Mrs. Harry Thrasher, 731 St. Francis street. Those who attended the dinner in addition to the guest of honor included Mr. and Mrs. Max A. Saunders, Mrs. John Milne, Mr. and Mrs. Lorn Dalcour, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher.

Review Presented

Mrs. O'Neill Heard at Meeting of BPW Club Monday

Mrs. Victor O'Neill's review of Pearl Buck's "Of Men and Women," was the highlight of the BPW club meeting, October the nineteenth, at the Willard.

Sixty-six members attended the birthday dinner meeting. Nine members who had birthdays in September and October were honored at tables which were beautifully decorated with yellow and red chrysanthemums and a birthday cake which was presented by the Willard hotel. The theme of the U-shaped tables around the center table was carried out with cars, horses and boats by the transportation committee. Isabelle Milne is chairman and her committee consisted of Isabelle Brixner and Mae King Conradi.

Winifred Gillen of the home extension service invited any group or organization to meet at the boys' gym at Klamath Union high school to learn square dancing.

The next BPW dinner meeting will be in charge of Edna Albrecht, who is chairman of the membership committee. Mrs. Preston, who spent five years in South America, will be the speaker of the evening.

Old members and new are invited to the club book clubs. The Edith Cunningham Book club will meet at the home of Isabelle Brixner on Monday night, the twenty-sixth of October. There will be a potluck dinner and Halloween party at half past six o'clock.

The Minerva Book club will meet at the home of Nell Olson, 2520 Hope street, on Monday night, October the twenty-sixth, at half past seven o'clock.

Delphi society, Delta Gamma chapter, will meet Tuesday at a quarter to ten o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Auburn and Mesa streets. The leader will be Mrs. Floyd Ranker and the topic, "Esthetic Values in Every Day Living."

Mrs. Hiram F. Murdoch and her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble, have returned from Portland, where they spent the past week. While in the city, they were guests at the Heathman hotel.

VISITORS IN KLAMATH

Mrs. J. Armond Ulrich and her young son, John Armond, spent a short time here at the George Ulrich home on Conger avenue. They have left for a month's visit in Inglewood, California with Mrs. Richard Walker, (Kathryn Ulrich).

LEAVING THE CHURCH

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mark Brown, (Gladys Jane Park), greeted by guests as they leave Klamath Lutheran church where their marriage ceremony was an event of the week.

—Picture by Wesley Guiderian of The Herald and News.

HUNTING PARTY EVENT OF WEDNESDAY

A cleverly arranged party was given Wednesday evening when Mrs. Henri Conradi entertained at her home on Jefferson street for members of TNT club. The decorations were in keeping with the hunting season and invitations were issued to "members of the Gun club." Cat tails and wild grass decorated the porch and bird prints were used in the living room. Bridge tables were "blinds" and on each tally and score pad was the silhouette of a hunter against the sky.

Guests came in suitable hunting costume. High score in bridge went to Mrs. A. C. Backes, second to Mrs. LeRoy Carter who will entertain the group in a fortnight, traveling to Mrs. Phil Brixner and low to Mrs. Earl Hamilton. Others present were Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mrs. Harry W. Bathany, Mrs. Martha McCollum, Mrs. A. D. Lambert, Mrs. Phil Fahlander, Mrs. Lynn Rasmussen and Miss Gertrude Tolle.

BARN PARTY SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY EVE

A "barn party" will be given this evening at half past seven o'clock when Barbara Roskamp and Charlotte Carter entertain at the H. E. Roskamp home in the Roosevelt apartments for Mary Lou Timmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Timmons, who leaves with her family to reside in Portland.

The basement rooms will be decorated with corn stalks and other "barn" equipment. Honoring Miss Timmons will be Sally Mueller, Joan O'Neill, Betty Westlund, Ruth Merrill, June Bosworth, Mary Havens, Marilyn O'Neill, Lois Cade, and Lola Whisenant.

Bud Losse, Dick Etherton, Jerry Snyder, Tommy Snyder, Fred and Ted Reeves, Rodney Murray, Scott Reed, George Eller, Bob Thompson, Jimmy Palmer, Dale Constans, Jerry Hicks and Jimmy Howard.

MRS. BALSIGER ENTERTAINS CLUB FRIDAY

Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger entertained for members of her card club on Friday afternoon at her home on Melrose street. A special guest was Mrs. Fred Bechtel, formerly of this city and now of Southgate, California.

Honors in cards went to Mrs. Merle West and Mrs. Ed Ostendorf with a gift for Mrs. Bechtel. Members of the club are Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. Ed Ostendorf, Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, Mrs. Joseph Rosser, Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. Merle West, Mrs. J. I. Beard, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Sr., and Mrs. Balsiger. Also guest of the group were Mrs. Lillian Hagman and Mrs. Fred Cofer. Mrs. Beard will entertain in November.

Lieutenant and Mrs. George Goehring and their two small children left Thursday for San Luis Obispo where they are mer residents, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke while here.

VISITORS HONORED AT DINNER PARTY

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Menti of 2243 Huron street, included Lieutenant Commander Hillyer, marine air corps flight surgeon, First Lieutenant Fay Domke, marine air corps, First Lieutenant Grant Metzger, marine air corps, and Chief Machinist Mate Elmer McNeerney, United States navy. The visitors arrived Saturday evening of last week from the U. S. navy base, Los Alamitos, California. Lieutenant Domke was a college classmate of Mr. Menti.

A dinner party honored the visitors Saturday evening with the four visitors and the following guests present, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rickbell, Mr. and Mrs. Don Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crapo, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Max Menti, Mrs. John Whiteline, Mrs. Elsie Durkee, Miss Vera Ottomano and the hosts.

Members of the party saw the flyers off Sunday morning at the Klamath Falls airport, as they returned by plane to their air base at Los Alamitos.

SISTERS

Judy, three and one half, and her little sister, Katy, just two, are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Berglund of Hood River, formerly of Klamath Falls. They are here with their mother visiting friends and relatives for several weeks.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Regent Home From Meet

Mrs. Dixon To Report On Sessions at DAR Meeting Here

Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, regent of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, returned Monday from Portland, where she attended a state board meeting of the DAR society, held at the University club rooms, with Mrs. William Horsfall, of Marshfield, state regent, presiding. Lieutenant Hathaway, recruiting officer for the Women's Army Auxiliary corps, was the luncheon speaker. Mrs. Dixon reports that Lieut. Hathaway thrilled her listeners with a most inspiring view of what women can and are doing to help in the war effort.

The rummage sale to be held by Eulalona chapter, all day Saturday, October the thirty-first, promises quantities of useful articles for the winter season. The place is on Ninth street, between Main and Pine. Those who have clothing or any other thing suitable for rummage sales, are asked to phone Mrs. Harry Goeller, 4684, Mrs. Odell, 6883, or Mrs. Dixon, 6444.

The next regular meeting of Eulalona chapter will be held in the small club rooms of the City Library, Monday evening, November the second, at eight o'clock. Hostesses will be announced later. The program will be a round table discussion of war personalities, including General MacArthur, Admiral Nimitz, General Timoshenko, Chiang Kai-Shek, and Auchenlech. Having a part in this discussion will be Mrs. Lloyd Goble, Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. William Dawson Foster, Mrs. Claude Davis and Mrs. L. H. Stone.

DANCING CLUB POSTPONES WINTER PLANS

The war has put a crimp in a lot of things this year, and unless there is a decided demand for parties, the Winter Dancing club will not resume its affairs this season, for the first time in more than thirteen years.

It is possible that, if members request a mid-winter party, that at least one such function will be sponsored. The committee may be contacted. Those to be called are Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mrs. Henri Conradi, Mrs. Forrest Losse, Mrs. Leland Conroy or Mrs. Carrol Colvin.

SLUMBER PARTY AT MILLS HOME

Mary Ann Mills entertained with a slumber party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Mills, 1147 East street, Friday evening. The guests enjoyed the Eugene Klamath game and later had supper at the Mills residence. Guests of Mary Ann included Miss Connie Hunt, Miss Joyce Sample, Miss Jean Hilton, Miss Ruth Landry, Miss Gwyneth Moore, Miss Dorothy Collier and Miss Joan Bennett.

DINNER GIVEN BEFORE FOOTBALL GAME

Just before the Klamath-Eugene football game on Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Lorenz and Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenz entertained at the home of the former on High street with a buffet supper. Guests included a group of friends who have attended games together this season.

Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Britt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton, and the four hosts.

VISITORS HONORED AT GATHERING

Lieutenant and Mrs. Douglas Gardner of Cheyenne, Wyoming, were honored at an informal party given Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., entertained for them at their home, 1545 Eldorado.

The Gardners, with their young son, James Douglas, have left for Cheyenne after visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson.

Guests at the party included the Gardners, Mr. and Mrs. Justin McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Parnell, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cotter, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Divens.

Mrs. Lloyd Porter entertained for members of her bridge club at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

University Women Entertain at Tea

Mrs. Naomi Preston Addresses AAUW at Stearns Home on Saturday Afternoon.

A delightful affair of last Saturday was the fall tea given by members of the Klamath chapter of the American Association of University Women at the home of Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns. Tea hours were from two until five o'clock. Guests and members were greeted at the door by Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. Dean Miller, president of AAUW.

A short business meeting was held in the reception room. Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt presented Joy Kent in "Sing, Smile, Slumber" by Gounod, and "When April is Here," with flute obligato by Jean Underwood. Mrs. Louis Reed sang "Carmena" by Lane Wilson and "In My Garden" by Isabella Firestone.

SPEAKER

Pattie Lee Coghill of New York will be the honor guest at a tea to be given in St. Paul's parish house, Eighth and Jefferson streets, at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, October the twenty-seventh.

Silver Tea Plans Made

Auxiliary To Entertain At the Presbyterian Church

The Women's auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will sponsor a silver tea in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon, October twenty-ninth, from half past two to half past four o'clock. Members of other churches in the city are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. A. B. Epperson is chairman of the tea committee and is being assisted by Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm and Mrs. J. L. Olson. Mrs. Effie Rideout is arranging an interesting musical program which will include the following numbers, a solo by Miss Ruth Henry, piano-accompaniment solo by Loyal Heath, piano solo by Harold Peyton, reading by Mary Jane Howard, and duet by Eleanor Thomas and LaVerne Reed.

MISS HILL TO WED SUNDAY MORNING

A wedding of interest this weekend is that of Miss Dorothy Hill, daughter of Mrs. F. L. Hill, and Mr. John Kerns, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns Sr. The ceremony will take place Sunday morning, October the twenty-fifth, at ten o'clock in the living room of the new Kerns home on the Keno highway.

Mrs. Edwin Halliwell of Medford, sister of the bride, will be her only attendant. Best man will be Mr. Benjamin Kerns, who is coming home from Oregon State college this weekend for the ceremony. A number of others from out-of-town will be present. A wedding breakfast will be served after the service at the Kerns home.

Life expectancy among the Chileans is around forty years. Diseases flourish. Sanitation is very bad. Fifty per cent of the people have some ailment all the time. Medical care and modern hospital care were limited, until recently, to the wealthy. Mrs. Preston expressed the wish that our interest in South America would not vanish at the close of this war but that through exchange of ideas and development of their vast resources we could bring about closer relationships and thereby attain hemisphere solidarity.

The tea table was attractive with a low bowl of begonias in white, pink and yellow. Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. Percy Murray and Mrs. Dean Miller poured. Those serving on the tea committee were Mrs. Arthur Larsen, chairman, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. Nelson Reed, Mrs. Sam Mushen, Mrs. S. D. Earhart, Mrs. Beverly Thomas, Mrs. John McFee, Mrs. L. E. Juniper, Miss Virginia West, Miss Emilie Haldeman. Cookies were donated by members of the committee and Mrs. Louis Seruys, Mrs. Arthur Cole and Mrs. Cox.

Members of Gaiety club were honored with a bridge party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Houston on Pacific Terrace.

SHAMPOO TRICKS by Ogilvie Sisters

Keep your hair beautifully clean, shiny and obedient with these fine shampoos by the seven master mixers.

Castile Soap Shampoo . 50c
Latherless Shampoo . 50c
Permanent Wave Shampoo 50c
Reconditioning Oil . 1.00
(Not oil shampoo de luxe)

All the Ogilvie shampoos are pure - easily rinsed - leave hair with high sheen.

TOILETRES DEPARTEMENT

Everybody's

808 Main

Phone 3625