

Hallowe'en Theme At Venture Meeting

Ten New Members Initiated Into Klamath Falls Chapter at Session in Pelican Party Room

A Hallowe'en theme of lovely flowers and great bowls of apples and corn stalks decorated the Pelican party room Tuesday evening, October the twentieth, when ten new members were initiated into the Klamath Falls chapter of the Venture club.

Initiation of the following girls took place after the dinner meeting. Frances Ballin, Shirley Mayhew, Mary Jane Metler, June Ellen Olson, Clara Oetjen, Pat Shaw, Phyllis Smith, Virginia Ellen Smith, Mary Trulove, and Jean Wiesendanger.

Unable to attend were Geraldine Manning and Dorothy Laursen who will be installed later.

Mrs. Rose Poole, Soroptimist, gave a report on the sixth regional conference of Venturists and Soroptimists which was held at Tacoma, Washington, recently.

The Klamath Falls Venturists received a big hand when it was announced that the first WAVE from the states represented at the conference, Oregon, Washington, and Idaho, was Lauretta O'Brien of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Poole stated.

Later in the meeting Beverly Siemens announced that the Klamath Falls Venture club would lose another girl to the WAVES, Beverly Sanders.

During the evening little Dolores Morris entertained the group with several accordion numbers and Mary Lou Timmons, accompanied at the piano by Lola Marie Wiseman, sang two patriotic songs.

The meeting was opened by acting-president Barbara Sellers who led the flag salute and the singing of "God Bless America." Frances Ballin accompanied the group.

Soroptimists and sponsors present included Laura Bertram, Mildred Burdick, Olive Cornett, Eileen Hicks, Rose Poole, Coral Sabo, and Jean Young.

Members present were Dorothy Buchanan, Catherine Johnson, Joyce Leech, Dorothy O'Sullivan, Beverly Sanders, Barbara Sellers, Beverly Siemens, Betty Lou Vannice, and Margaret West.

The next meeting of the Venture club will be held Tuesday evening, November the third, at the home of Catherine Johnson, Ramona apartments at half past seven o'clock.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY GIVEN WEDNESDAY EVE

The annual Hallowe'en party of Wednesday club of St. Paul's, was enjoyed Wednesday evening in the parish house with Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mrs. Roberta Webb, Miss Orpha Hudson and Miss Edna Kavanagh as hostesses.

Guests arrived to find the room dimly lighted by Jack-o-lanterns while weird witches and black cats danced on the walls. Corn stalks stood in each corner and the floor was covered with leaves. Tables held gay Hallowe'en cloths and bats and pumpkins were tallies. Doughnuts and cider made up the dessert.

In cards high score went to Mrs. Warren Bennett, low to Mrs. Frank Bogatay and traveling to Mrs. Phil D. Schroeder.

The next meeting will be held November the fourth and will be a "Dues Paying Party." A brief business meeting will precede the card party. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Frank Tarr and Mrs. Raymond Rugar.

LUNCHEON PLANNED FOR FRIDAY

Members of Aloha Past Matron club will meet for a one o'clock luncheon and social afternoon, Friday, October the twenty-ninth, at the Masonic temple on Klamath avenue. Hostesses will be Mrs. C. G. Reymers, Mrs. O. F. Konscho, Mrs. H. G. Wortley, and Mrs. Charles Gilbert.

Everybody is asked to wear old clothes. Prizes will be given for the most original, the best, and the worst make-ups. The party will begin about nine o'clock. Mrs. Clarence Humble is in charge of decorations; prizes will be in charge of Leroy Erdmann, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, and Mrs. Lyle O. Mills; floor managers will be Leroy Erdmann, Will Wood, Jack Oldham.

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, worthy matron, and Mr. Leroy Erdmann, worthy patron, extend a cordial invitation to all members and visiting members to dress in the most outlandish clothes they can find, and come to the party.

WOMEN GATHER FOR ALL DAY MEET THURSDAY

The Women's Society of Christian Service held an interesting and exceptionally well attended meeting Thursday in the parlors of the First Methodist church. The study group in the morning was followed by luncheon, an executive meeting, and a program arranged by Mrs. J. K. Reno which presented Latin-American topics. A number took part in the discussion.

Tea was served at four o'clock by Mrs. Paul Deller's group. Delegates home from the conference held this past week in Eugene, gave excellent reports of the meeting where they were privileged to hear a number of missionaries from foreign fields.

Mrs. Della Holmes Cobb of Lakeview was a weekend visitor at the home of Mrs. Elsie Sweasy of the Greer apartments. Mrs. Cobina Wright Sr., New York and Hollywood resident, also made a brief visit here en route to the William Randolph Hearst ranch, "Wynnton," near McCloud, California.

Klamath Maid Weds

Viola Gurtle Bride in Rites Read in Sacred Heart Church

Miss Viola Gurtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gurtle of 2011 Eberlein avenue, became the bride of James Francis Schnabel, son of Mrs. Rose Schnabel of Lookout street in a ceremony read at eleven o'clock Saturday morning, October the tenth, in Sacred Heart church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a seed pearl yoke and a sheer veil of fingertip length. Her flowers were pink rosebuds and white tuberose.

Miss Jean O'Sullivan was the bride's attendant and wore a pink chiffon gown with a small blue sweetheart hat and she carried a bouquet of white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

William Krueger, life long friend of the groom, was best man.

Just before the ceremony Miss Madeline Mahoney sang, "Panis Aggelicus" and the wedding processional and recessional was played by the organist. The Reverend Father Timothy Casey officiated. The altar was banked with white chrysanthemums.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Receiving with the young couple was the bride's mother who wore a brown afternoon frock with brown accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage.

Tea was poured by Mrs. George Ferril and Mrs. Clyde Turner, aunts of the bride. The table was attractively decorated and centered with the wedding cake which was cut by the bride and groom.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Schnabel left on a brief wedding trip in the south. They will be at home here in the Alpha apartments.

For traveling the bride wore a wine velvet street frock with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias and white tuberose.

At the last meeting of the club, when Mrs. George Biehn entertained at her home on Pine street, members present were Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mrs. J. J. Keller, Mrs. Carl Sandell, Mrs. R. G. Molschenbacher, Mrs. Rose Thompson, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Albert Langer, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mrs. Maude Hosley and Mrs. Anna Funk.

Holiday Bazaar Planned by Group

Another holiday bazaar has been announced with the Women's Council of the First Christian church naming Saturday, December the twelfth, as the date for their annual fête. The bazaar will be held in the First Federal Savings and Loan building, 540 Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stilwell are parents of a son born at Hillside hospital Wednesday evening. Both mother and child are doing nicely. Mrs. Stilwell is the former Winfield Southwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Southwell of this city. Mr. Stilwell is with the United States navy stationed at Terminal Island, San Pedro.

Theta Rho members are sponsoring a card party to be held in IOOF hall Saturday evening, October the thirty-first, at eight o'clock. Refreshments will be served by the committee in charge.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following: Addie May Nixon, Mrs. E. S. Edwards, Mrs. E. V. Haynes, Mrs. Loyall Lust, Mrs. Chester Greenwell, Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, Mrs. Earnest Genger, Mrs. Fred Van Dozer, Mrs. Freeman Merewether, Mrs. Dwight Gilchrist, Mrs. Elizabeth Carey and Mrs. Frank Thompson.

Mrs. Walter Lassett, 1919 Lowell street, entertained at a dinner party on October the twentieth in honor of her husband's birthday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larsen and Mrs. George Hillis.

The International Relations group of AAUW will meet with Mrs. Dean Miller at her home on Pine street Wednesday evening, October the twenty-eighth, at eight o'clock.

Chrysanthemums To Be Displayed

Klamath Women Attend District Meeting of Garden Clubs Held in Medford

The regular meeting of the Garden group of the Klamath Falls Library club will be held Monday, October the twenty-sixth, in the small club room of the city library with a chrysanthemum display of both specimens and arrangements. Mrs. Karl G. Cummings will be in charge of the day's program, with the round table discussion "Putting the Garden to Bed for the Winter" under the direction of Mrs. Roland Oakes and Mrs. E. D. Lamb. There will be a very interesting talk on "Indian Uses of Native Plants" given by Mrs. Frank Payne, who has made a study of this subject.

At the Siskiyou district meeting of the Oregon State Federation of Garden clubs held at the Medford hotel, Medford, on October the twentieth, the local club was represented by Mrs. E. D. Lamb, state president, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, state secretary, and Mrs. H. E. Getz.

At this meeting, Mrs. L. G. Gentner, district vice president, made an appeal to each club member in this southern area to donate at least one flower vase for use in the hospital at Camp White. Mrs. Gentner quoted an officer from Camp White hospital as saying "Remember these boys are sick, and being far from their homes as well, are also very homesick and flowers help immeasurably to ease this."

Major Newman of Camp White attended the meeting and made an appeal for bulbs, iris, shrubs and other perennials to beautify Camp White. He said in part, "You know we have literally miles of grounds out there and they are very bleak at present and we would be very grateful for anything you would care to give us for this purpose."

COUNCIL ENTERTAINS TROOP LEADERS

On October the seventh, in St. Paul's Episcopal church parish house, the program committee of the Girl Scout council entertained troop leaders at a fall party. Attending were Mrs. LeRoy Carter, leader of the troop from Altamont Junior high school; Mrs. Arthur Skinner of Fremont school; Dea Jean Hardy, Altamont Junior high; Mrs. Walter Hanson, Altamont Junior high; Mrs. Stewart Patty, Mills school; Gertrude Liddell, Pelican; Mrs. H. R. Burrit, Altamont elementary school; Mrs. R. E. Quick, Altamont elementary school; Evelyn Craig, Conger school; Mrs. Melvin Frost, Conger; Hazel Morrison, Mrs. G. H. Newman and Mrs. L. A. Murphy, members of the program committee.

A fire in the fireplace, and decorations of autumn leaves and apples on the mantelpiece and on the buffet table made the room attractive. At the close of the afternoon the guests were served coffee.

BRIDE, GROOM GUESTS IN CITY FROM TACOMA

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Dennis Franklin Huntley (Edrial Mills) are guests for several days at the home of Mrs. L. L. LaFontaine in the Linda Vista apartments, following their marriage which was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church at Tacoma, Washington on Saturday, October the seventeenth.

Mrs. LaFontaine, brother of Sergeant Huntley, who has been stationed at Fort Lewis went north for the wedding at which she was matron of honor, and was accompanied by the bride and bridegroom on her return home.
