

Pelicans Steamroll Eugene, 34-6

Foster Scores Thrice as Unbeaten Klamaths Rumble Toward Title

By BOB LEONARD
Herald and News Sports Editor

The Pelican gridiron juggernaut, piloted once again by little Ralph Foster, rambled onward toward the mythical state championship last night by rolling over the highly touted Eugene High Axemen, 34-6, on Modoc field, for the Klamaths' sixth straight topheavy triumph.

Rapid Ralph, hero of the Pelican victory over Medford last week, climaxed a 72-yard drive early in the first quarter by scorching wide around right end for 10 yards and a touchdown, added another in the third quarter from the one, and dashed 90 yards with an intercepted pass for his third score of the unexpectedly easy evening.

Eugene's only score came within two minutes of the end as Co-Captain Howard Stewart punched over from the one-yard line against a Pelican team composed of second and third stringers. They had threatened only once before—in the middle of the second when Stewart, Spady and Bob Kramer bulled and passed from their own 37 down to the Klamath eight where the Pelicans stiffened and took the ball on downs.

Billed and built-up as a clash of titans, the contest early developed into a combat between a Goliath and a David sans slingshot. In the first half, the Axemen were able to get their hands on the ball only four times, including three from kickoffs, and initiate only 15 plays. Meantime the bulky Klamaths carried the ball 40 times for 238 yards and two touchdowns.

It took the unbeaten home-towners only five plays to spanning drive. Bernard Vaillancour made Foster's first tally good for seven points with a precisely-placed conversion.

Receiving the second kickoff the Axemen tried two plays, then Kramer kicked to the Pelican 23. Marching once again the Klamaths clicked off yardage at will down to the Eugene 18 but lost the ball on downs when Don Mast's pass failed to meet Nell Mayfield in the end zone.

The first Eugene play thereafter was a fumble by Stewart after he had cracked center for 11 yards. Picking up from there the Klamaths surged through the end of the first quarter and into the second down to the Eugene three.

A daring, resourceful pass, Mast to Mayfield, this time was good on fourth down for the second score. Vaillancour again converted.

Eugene's menace was halted on the eight and, with Hank Schorzen and Gordon McKay packing the ball, the Pelican second stringers had crunched down to the Eugene four when the half ended.

The Klamaths battered down for their third tally within six minutes of the third period. It was set up by a 30-yard run-back of a Eugene punt to mid-with a one-yard thrust for the touchdown. Regular Left Tackle Pat Patzke converted and it was 34-0 early in the final period.

From there on it was all Eugene as the white-suited lads sifted through and around the Klamath line to stalk 70 yards for their sole score. The push was apparently broken up when Guard Rolland Tutor intercepted a pass and hustled 40 yards for a score but the play was called back and Klamath penalized five yards for offside.

The Pelicans, tremendous from first to last, amassed 308 yards from rushing to Eugene's even 100. They added 36 over-head to the invaders' 64, totaling 344 to 164 from scrimmage. Piling up 17 first downs from scrimmage and one via the air, the Klamaths outgained Eugene there, 18-9.

Mast, playing a slashing game at fullback, toted the ball 17 times for 95 yards while Foster juggled it 13 times for 116, not including the interception. He averaged 8.8.

It's Cricket But It Puzzles Arizonans

By JACK LEPLER
MESA, Ariz., Oct. 24 (AP)—Up until today cricket, to most Arizonans, was merely the name of a pesky insect that gnaws holes in a guy's best suit and attempts to cover up the crime with innocent chirps.

The more erudite westerners were aware that Englishmen played a game of rather vague description called cricket. A cup of tea somehow seemed associated with home plate—beg pardon, wicket.

But that sort of misunderstanding is all past. Or is it?

Cricket, as a sport, came to Arizona last night. Not only was the match in the local baseball park the first cricket match of the 300 spectators had seen, but it was believed to be the first ever played under lights anywhere.

Cadets of the Royal Air Force from nearby Falcon field shed their sky blue flying uniforms and donned appropriate cricket raiment for an "international" match between English and Scots teams.

The English won, 103 to 71, in one inning of three hours.

American spectators were politely restrained throughout the proceedings. They followed the multiplying score in a puzzled manner until a booming drive over the fence brought them to their feet with shouts of "a homer!"

They retired to their seats when the announcer advised that the batsman had just knocked "a full boundary." Anyway, it was good for six runs.

Tulsa Retains Skein, Drubs St. Loo, 41-0

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—Tulsa (Okla.) university still topped the dwindling list of college football teams that are unbeaten, untied and unscored on today and four others remained among the undefeated ranks after last night's games which saw at least three clubs knocked off for the first time.

Playing their fifth game of a nine-game schedule, Tulsa's Missouri valley champions crushed St. Louis university, 41-0, in a conference contest and boosted their scoring total for the season to 256 points.

Glenn Dobbs led the Tulsa attack, scoring two touchdowns and tossing passes for two more.

74,000 Fans Watch Massillon High Team

MASSILLON, O., Oct. 24 (AP)—If the terrific Tigers of Massillon high school aren't the nation's No. 1 scholastic football team—both on the field and at the gate—the 26,000 fans in this steel-making town would like to know who has 'em beat.

Massillon's Tigers knocked over undefeated Steubenville 33 to 13, as 18,400 fans looked on last week for their 48th straight contest without a defeat; 72nd victory against a single loss and two ties in the last eight campaigns; and for a five-game attendance total of 74,000, with a four-game at-home average of 18,500.

That attendance average is better than 95 per cent of the nation's colleges can boast for their early-season home games.

At least, it's a better mark than Army, Cornell, Fordham, Navy, Princeton, Harvard, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, Alabama, Georgia Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Denver, Utah and the entire southwest conference have chalked up this season.

On top of that, Massillon is only 1250 persons per game behind L. S. U. and 250 back of Stanford.

Games with Mansfield, Warren, Toledo Waite, Erie (Pa.) East, and Canton McKinley are still in the offing, and the Tigers hope to reach last year's 10-game attendance of 151,500.

Two years ago, in Coach Paul Brown's last season before he moved to Ohio State to set a new attendance mark of 486,848 for eight games, the Massillions drew 187,000 fans. That was a record for the Tigers.

Midwest Has No Monopoly on Backs, South Boasts Big Array

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

All the midwest has to do to find out that it has no monopoly on outstanding backs is read the accounts of games played by southern teams.

Tennessee's multiple backfield combinations, paced by the remarkable Bobby Cifers and his understudy, Walt Slater, upset Fordham, 40-14.

Jack Jenkins, spearhead of Vanderbilt's attack and a blocker from Blockersville, scored in his 12th consecutive game when he bucked over from the two-yard line as the Commodores sank Purdue, 26-0.

Russ Craft twice scored off tackle and again on a 38-yard gallop as Alabama turned back Mississippi State, the Southeastern Conference champion, 21-6. Working well with Craft were Russ Mosley and Don Sails.

Georgia has an almost sure shot All-America in Flatfoot Frankie Sinkwich, but there are others.

FROTH THROWS PASS TO BEAT NOTRE DAME

It was fullback Ralph Plaster who scored first for Georgia Tech in the 13-5 upset of Notre Dame, and it was a freshman, Clint Castleberry, who hit Pat McHugh with an eight-yard touchdown pass and victory.

This seems to be an off-year for Duke, but neighboring North Carolina has fine backs in Clay Croom and Bill Sigler.

North Carolina State sends 190-pound Art Faircloth into the line like a charging bull.

Clemson has a stout blocking back in Marlon Craig. Wake

Forest has Johnny and Russ Perry.

Forest has Johnny and Russ Perry.

JOHNSON OF W. AND M. ONE OF GAME'S FINEST

Tulane was rather expected to repulse Auburn, but the Plainsmen trotted out a fine set of backs in Clayton, Gafford, Finney and Reynolds, who outdid the Greenies led by Lou Thomas, McDonald, Ely and Brignac.

Rice bumped Louisiana State, but that doesn't mean Bernie Moore is without men who can lug the leather. He has Kosmar, Harris, Van Buren and Gorinski, among others.

Blondy Black is a corker for Mississippi State. Skeeter Coye scoots for Furman.

Mississippi gets a lot of help from Jones, Yandell, Connerly and Woodward.

There are numerous others, of course, not the least of whom is Harvey (Stud) Johnson of William and Mary, one of the finest fullbacks, kickers and all-round players of the game.

Kapter Warms Up by Playing, And Sticks

By LYNN WALDORF
Northwestern's Head Coach Alex Kapter, Northwestern's rock-ribbed left guard, still gets a chuckle whenever he recalls his first college game against Kansas State last fall. Midway in the game, I looked along the bench and spotted sophomore Kapter.

"Start warming up, Alex," I said.

The eager Waukegan boy thought I told him to enter the game.

He rushed out on the field. Before he could be stopped, he reported to the referee and took his place in the lineup.

On the first play he broke

Medford Wins Over Bend on Sleeper, 7-0

BEND, Oct. 24 (Special)—A sleeper pass play from the 14-yard line was the margin of victory for Medford's Tigers over the Bend Lava Bears in a hard-fought game here last night. The final score was 7 to 0.

Bend drove to the Medford two-yard line just before the gun ended the first half.

In the second half, the Bears were caught by surprise on an old-fashioned deadman play. Bayliss of Medford remained unnoticed on the sidelines after one play, and on the next took a pass from Al Adams, Medford back.

Bayliss' kick for the point was good.

Bend made seven first downs and Medford made six. Bend also led in yardage gained.

Holcomb Stars, But Fresh Fall, 6-2, to Rooks

CORVALLIS, Oct. 24 (AP)—Fleet Ben Holcomb, former The Dalles high school star, staged a virtual one-man football offensive for the Oregon frosh last night, but his team dropped a 6-2 decision to the Oregon State rooks.

Holcomb carried the ball for 106 of his team's 118 yards from scrimmage and either caught or threw passes good for an additional 119 yards.

But the rooks unleashed a 68-yard drive in the second half for a touchdown. Another former mid-Columbia player, Don Samuels of Hood River, plunged the final yard.

Set it through the want-ads.
