

BLY STUDENTS SCOUR REGION FOR SCRAP IRON

BLY — The Bly high school has been covering every square inch of territory in a desperate hunt for much needed scrap iron. Every garage, attic, basement, back yard, dump pile, and any other place where available scrap can be found, has been uprooted the past couple of weeks.

H. R. Crane of the Crane mill at Bly made the scrap iron drive possible by ordering a large railroad car to haul the iron into Klamath Falls, at his expense. There the iron will be sold at its highest value.

Not only did Mr. Crane make the drive possible but he also sponsored a contest to encourage the students. He is offering a prize of $15 to the class that collects the most and best iron.

The people around town lent the students their pick-ups and trucks to haul the iron in. A few of them were: Jim Havens, A. A. Protsman, A. L. Book, W. E. Titus, H. R. Crane and many others.

Last year the money that the student body received from their scrap iron went for United States war bonds. This year it will go for football equipment for the high school football team.

BUSCH WILL HELP TRUCK OPERATORS

James H. Busch, examiner for the office of defense transportation, will be at the courthouse basement Tuesday and Wednesday to assist commercial vehicle operators in making out their applications for certificates of war necessity.

Mailing of application forms for certificates of war necessity to every registered owner of a commercial vehicle has been completed and the forms should be filled in and returned to Detroit immediately according to Marshall E. Nauman, Medford district manager of the ODT motor transport division.

Any owner of a commercial vehicle who did not receive a form may obtain one at the Medford ODT office, Nauman said, or from Busch while he is here Tuesday and Wednesday.

He also warned that unless the applications are sent in promptly the owner faces the danger of having his truck tied up indefinitely on November 15.

After that date no commercial vehicle not carrying a certificate of war necessity may purchase gasoline, oil, parts or tubes, which will put the vehicle off the road until the certificate is obtained.

Janice Barnstable Pledged at College Of Puget Sound

Janice Barnstable, daughter of Mattie Barnstable of 123 High street, has been pledged Chi chapter of Kappa Phi at the College of Puget Sound in Tacoma.

Kappa Phi is the national Methodist women's sorority.

Miss Barnstable is a freshman at the college. She graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1940.

The U. S. will be called upon to meet greater competition after the war. This will mean that the government and its industries must place themselves on a more efficient basis than ever.

from the EXPLOITERS with profits for a few!

This measure is Senate Bill No. 43, passed by overwhelming vote in Senate and House, signed by the Governor, making it a law. Referendum has been invoked by those who would exploit, by "sea fishing," the gamest of game fish—steelhead.

Does not affect Columbia River commercial fishing.

Play fair with the boys in the service, so they may find their "steelhead" fishing when they return.

Old Bell at Merrill Goes Into Scrap Drive

MERRILL, Oct. 22—Gone for the scrap drive is the old fire bell that for years has been a marker on Front street. The donation was ratified by the city council and the fire department and the decision gives 800 pounds of metal to the country. The bell, third to toll the news of fires in the city of Merrill, was used for 20 years before it was replaced by the present electric fire siren. Cracked upon delivery it was never replaced.

The first fire bell of bell metal was swung in 1908. This one was melted when the old city hall burned. The second one cracked during operation and the third, although the minute crack was never found was never clear in tone.

Fire Chief Ben Faus, who has seen the department through all the ups and downs of a volunteer organization, helped load the bell to be taken to the scrap heap. Original cost was $135.

Bly

Mrs. Lois Ihstrom and daughters Betty and Florence, have returned to Bly. The Ihstroms were formerly residents of Bly, but have recently lived in Medford. They plan on making their home here permanently and the girls have entered school here.

Leonard Michelson and Frank Meiser left for Fort Lewis, Washington, Sunday evening. They have enlisted in the United States air corps and are now taking their final tests. Before enlisting, both boys took a special preparatory course in Klamath Falls.

Mary Louise Boynton left Thursday night to spend the week-end with her father in Emmett, Idaho. It was a very hurried trip for she returned Sunday evening. She made the trip with relatives. She was planning to move back to Idaho, but returned to Bly to finish her school year.

Johnny Allen and son received a large shipment of cattle from the Obenchain ranch, Thursday October 22.

U. S. Valentine, son, and friend, were in Bly Sunday. Valentine was out on business and his son went on a fishing trip on the north fork of the Sprague river.

Cynthia Hall and her young daughter, Adrienne, Marie Coke and Martha Givah spent Monday of this week in Klamath Falls attending to business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Donaldson have been visiting Mrs. Donaldson's sister for the last two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bell. The Donaldsons are from Portland and are spending their vacation here. Jack Rohr is also visiting at the Bell ranch during the hunting season.

Mrs. George Beck and daughter Kay, returned from Portland last week where they had been visiting for some time.

Sergeant Edward McGinnis has recently returned to March Field, California, where he is now stationed. He was home on a ten-day furlough to visit all his friends and relatives here at Bly. He left Monday night aboard the nine thirty train headed back to that good old army life.

John Able and P. W. Larkey spent Friday and Saturday of last week hunting pheasants near Baker, Ore.

An old school bus was purchased by E. P. Ivory of the Ivory Pine mill to transport people back and forth to Bly every day. The bus goes to town every afternoon and anyone can go in that care to. This bus was purchased with the hope that more of the ladies going in to Bly to do their shopping every day, would all go together. This would save many miles on those rubber tires that may be needed much more later. More and more of the ladies are using this new method of transportation to solve their shopping problem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith of Bly spent the weekend at Ashland visiting Mrs. Smith's parents.

Earl Walker has returned to Bly to make his home here permanently. He is now helping L. L. Griffin haul in his winter's supply of wood. He plans to go to work for H. R. Crane in the Crane lumber mill very soon.

Mrs. William Casebeer and her father, Mr. Bowers of Klamath Falls were weekend guests at Bly. Mr. Bowers hunted Saturday and Sunday but had no luck. They returned to Klamath Falls Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan of Ivory Pine were in Klamath Falls on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thuman Sunderland of Oakland, Calif., were guests of Earnest and Al Coke from Sunday evening until Tuesday morning. From here the Sunderslands went on to Medford, to visit Bob Coke.

Guy Stoddard, warehouse examiner from the Lawrence Warehouse Co., was out to the Ivory Pine mill on business Monday.

The Bly Girls' league had a skating party in at Pool's Rollerdom in Klamath Falls last Friday night. Many of the girls were just learning, but all had a very good time. The girls were chaperoned by Evelyn and Orelia Hudson, Kay Bishop and Beulah Elliott. Mrs. Elliott did not attend the party, but visited friends in Klamath Falls instead.

Mrs. Hubert West of Ivory Pine surprised herself and a very fine buck deer early Sunday morning. Mrs. West said her husband had told her where to go and she thought she might as well try it. After she had gone a little way she sat down upon a rock to rest and out walked a big one, it had horns too. It took but one shot to lay him low which surprised her greatly. It is Mrs. West's first deer and she is mighty proud of it. Can you blame her?

Mr. and Mrs. Ross McMillan spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls shopping. Mrs. McMillan came home with a very beautiful set of silverware, which she stated was her Christmas present.

Mrs. George Butler entertained the Pine Needles club, Thursday at her home. A Halloween party was planned for this Saturday night to be held at the cook-house. Games were played after the business meeting was concluded and a good time was had by all that attended.

5 CARS SMASH ON WEED HIGHWAY

Five cars were involved in an accident on the Weed highway about four miles north of the state line Sunday at 4:30 a. m., according to a report at the sheriff's office.

It all started when a car driven by Sally Allen smashed into the rear of a machine operated by Otto Holmes, 32. Holmes said he was driving slowly, but the driver of the other car claimed Holmes had stopped.

Sally Allen, Joan Johnson and Carol Mayfield, riding in the Allen car, were shaken up but not seriously hurt.

After the two cars had collided, three other cars crashed into them on the highway. Fog was thick at the time and drivers of the other machines could not see the wrecked cars, it was reported.
