

CONGRESS EYES BALLOT BOX, SHELVES BILL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—Three major legislative proposals were placed on the "don't open-until-after-election" shelf today as congress concentrated on political campaigns back home.

1. To lower the draft age from 20 to 18.
2. To abolish state poll taxes in federal elections.
3. To mobilize the nation's manpower in an all-out war effort.

The house decided not to act on senate revisions in the "teen age draft bill until a quorum was present, although Senator Gurney (R-S. D.), co-sponsor of the measure, expressed hope an agreement could be reached in conference late next week.

Enmeshed
The bottleneck holding up the legislation consisted of two senate amendments. One would require at least 12 months training for "teen-age conscripts before sending them to combat, a provision opposed by the war department. The other, less controversial, would defer from the draft, men whose work is essential to farming.

The poll tax measure, previously passed by the house, came out of the senate military committee with a 13 to 5 vote of approval that left it enmeshed in a parliamentary tangle.

Manpower Muddle
This was regarded primarily as a move to delay what appeared to be almost certain senate approval of the bill before this congress ends the first of the year and after its southern opponents have talked their full span of opposition.

The manpower proposals remained in a muddle which Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, did little to clear up when he indicated before the senate military committee yesterday he had no desire for legislation at this time.

OUR MEN IN SERVICE

BROTHERS—Two sons in the armed forces puts two stars in the service flag of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roark of Modoc Point, Duncan, 25, shown at left, is serving as apprentice seaman in the navy and William, 29, is in the U. S. marine corps, both in the air forces. Duncan enlisted June 9, 1942, and is studying at the Dearborn, Mich., machinist's mate school. He was formerly employed by the North American airplane factory in Los Angeles from where he enlisted. William, or "Bill" as he is familiarly known, enlisted December 19, 1941, just after war was declared. He was graduated from the Jacksonville, Fla., machinists' mate school and is now awaiting orders. He holds the rank of corporal. Bill was employed for a number of years by the Oregon State highway department and before his enlistment was stationed at Chemult.

INSTRUCTS NOW—Corp. Robert Mundlin, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mundlin of 3125 Boardman street, now holds the rating of instructor, air corps technical school, Sheppard Field, Tex. Young Mundlin enlisted in the air corps in March and was immediately sent from Portland to Fort Lewis and from there to Sheppard. He was graduated September 1 from airplane mechanics' school and with his excellent record was named instructor.

Appreciation for the open arms with which Klamath Falls greeted convoyed soldiers here during the summer of 1941 is still held by some, a letter disclosed today.

In a note to Mrs. C. D. Groves, 1434 Lakeview street, Officer Candidate Tommy Dunn of Fort Benning, Ga., said the following:

"I sure would like to express my appreciation for the swell time you people of Klamath Falls showed us when we stopped there. A soldier doesn't forget things like that. I danced until my feet were sore. Thanks again, to you and all the other people of that swell little town."

Sgt. Dunn, scheduled to graduate today from officers' candidate school, was a member of one of the groups of army men billeted here overnight during the extensive troop movements through Klamath Falls to and from maneuvers over a year ago.

MERRILL YOUTH ADVANCES—Promotions have been rapid for Eugene Beasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Beasley of Merrill. Interested in aviation since his graduation from the Merrill high school, he was rated as a first class seaman when he joined the navy air corps for service in the emergency repair line. One month later he was promoted to a petty officer's rating and at present is preparing for his second class rating. He will spend a few days here on furlough with his family before returning to his post at North Island air station, San Diego.

REPAIR MAN—Private Cleo Haskins, who enlisted in the United States army as soon as he turned his 18th birthday, is now with a repair detachment at Duncan Field, San Antonio, Tex. Private Haskins left here in 1936. He is the grandson of Mrs. Lulu Haley of Klamath Falls.

SOLOMON NEWS SENDS MARKET INTO CELLAR

By VICTOR EUBANK
NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (AP)—Stocks turned downward today on a moderate selling movement credited to concern over the battle for Guadalcanal island.

In the final hour declines in the pivotal industrials ranged from fractions to a round 2 points.

Transactions amounted to about 700,000 shares.

A good part of the selling, brokers reported, represented profit cashing, which was encouraged by yesterday's irregular rise to the best average levels since early November.

Westinghouse, American Telephone, Detroit and Allied Chemicals all off 1 to 2 points. Fractional slips were recorded by U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, United Aircraft, Douglas, American Smelting, International Nickel, American Can, Johns-Manville, Goodrich, Standard Oil (NJ) and Texas Corp. Bell Aircraft carried a modest gain on the announcement of a $2 dividend. A similar payment was authorized a year ago.

Rails followed the main trend but losses were not heavy. Pennsylvania was better supported than the rest on talk of a possible increase in the December dividend.

Bonds slanted lower and commodities were mixed.

CHICAGO WHEAT

CHICAGO, Oct. 27 (AP)—Weakness in rye contracts, which were off about 2 cents at one time, unsettled other grain pits today and prices generally were lower. Other grains, however, displayed more resistance to the decline than rye.

Large receipts of rye from northwestern markets was considered a major cause for the slump in that grain. Traders said the demand for rye is limited, with little coming from distillers and none from exporters.

Wheat dropped about a point shortly after the opening, but managed to rally later. There was a resting demand for the December contract at $1.24. Buying credited to mills was reported in the corn market.

The corn market was extremely quiet. Lack of buying interest made for an easy undertone.

Wheat closed 1/2 cent lower to 1/4 cent higher, December $1.24 1/4, May $1.26 1/2, corn was unchanged to 1/4 cent lower, December 79 1/2-2c, oats were unchanged to 1/4 cent off and rye down 12 cents.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, Oct. 27 (AP-USA) Very little activity was reported in the Boston wool market today. Scoured three-eighths fleece wool was sold at $1.12. Graded territory quarter blood wool was sold at a clean basis price of 96 cents. Buyers in some instances are awaiting the awarding of blanket orders before making additional purchases of medium wools.

Every young man who aspires to any public influence in America will henceforward have to care more and more about what used to be called "foreign affairs" and are now seen to be our world affairs.—Dr. Dixon Ryan Fox, president Union college.

KLAMATHITES RUN FOR MORE COFFEE

Klamath Falls grocers reported a run on coffee Tuesday, and several stores said they would be "out" before the end of the week.

The run started Monday with the announcement of the impending rationing program. Some stores had signs, "One pound per customer," and others did not limit their patrons. In fact, one store had a boldly printed sign, "Help Yourself."

Several stores said they had had a steady run for a month or more and did not notice an increase in coffee buying this week.

Death of Portland Woman Laid to Acute Alcoholism

PORTLAND, Oct. 27 (AP)—A preliminary autopsy indicated Mrs. Lawrence Travis, 39, whose bruised body was found in her home Sunday, died of acute alcoholism, Detective John Abbott said yesterday.

Her husband was held for the district attorney, pending a complete autopsy report. Detective Sergeant Carl Crisp said Travis admitted going on a 10-day drinking spree with his wife, but had no explanation for her death, which apparently occurred several days before the body was found by her brother.

WARTIME CONSTIPATION WAS MY TROUBLE!

"And then I learned lack of 'bulk' is one of its common causes."

"And what a difference that made! You see, I knew this wartime living had upset my usual habits of working, sleeping and eating. But I overlooked the fact that in this rush, my meals were likely to be improperly balanced—and I just wasn't getting the 'bulk' I needed.

"And this very lack is one of the most frequent causes of wartime constipation. Medicinal laxatives gave me only temporary relief, because they don't correct the cause. "But KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN sets right at the cause by supplying the needed 'bulk.' You just eat ALL-BRAN regularly and drink plenty of water. Why not try ALL-BRAN yourself? It's made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek."
