

PELICANS BLACK OUT CAVEMEN, 31 to 0

Mast, Foster, Schortgen Carry Ball for Championship; State Title Looms

By MALCOLM EPLEY
Klamath's super-charged Pelicans

flattened the Grants Pass Cavemen, 31 to 0, on Modoc field Friday night to win the Southern Oregon conference championship and clinch a tighter claim on the state high school gridiron title.

Mast, Foster and Schortgen packed the ball for long gains through holes ripped wide open by the hard-charging Pelican line, and when it was all over Klamath had run up nearly 400 yards from scrimmage.

The outcome was never in doubt, but the plucky Cavemen made a game of it with a brilliant if desperate passing attack that twice carried them within the Pelican 10-yard line before the Klamath defense tightened to stop them.

Big Night for Mast

Versatile Don Mast had a great night, gaining almost monotonously five, six and eight yards through the center of the Cavemen line. The great Klamath fullback carried the ball 23 times for 145 yards of ground gains and tossed two passes good for 18 yards. He accounted for the first Klamath touchdown on a short plunge through center in the first.

Sensational play of the evening came when the unbelievable Ralph Foster, Klamath's long run artist, came through with a 90-yard gallop from scrimmage in the second quarter.

Taking the ball on his own 10, Foster made a long sweep to the right. The scrimmagers untangled and everybody took after Ralph, who by that time was charging up the right sideline. At the Klamath 40, several Cavemen (it looked like 12) had Foster hopelessly boxed against the side. Tacklers' hands were all over him.

But out of the swarm came Foster, dancing almost in mid-air. He stumbled, regained his stride, and was off for another 60 yards for a touchdown, slowing down almost to a trot at the end as Pelicans fended off amazed Cavemen who had taken up the chase again.

long time. The breakaway was executed almost at the spot where Foster last week reversed the Eugene field on another 90-yard touchdown romp. Both incidents had spectators ga-ga as well as opponents.

Foster accounted for one other Klamath touchdown, on a 10-yard stab inside left end. The last two of the five touchdowns were made by Silva, who plunged seven yards to score for the second string, and by Prairie, third string lineman, who romped 70 yards late in the fourth after intercepting a Caveman pass.

Weather conditions, despite dire predictions earlier in the week, were ideal as Grants Pass received the kickoff to start the conference championship event.

Tough Pelican Line

The Cavemen found the Pelican line impregnable at the start, and Skow kicked to the Klamath 32. Klamath took over and made three first downs in quick succession. There was a signal mix-up and Foster fumbled. Mast kicked over the Caveman goal line.

Grants Pass was stopped again and Skow's punt was almost blocked, but it took a queer bounce to the Klamath 26. Foster went four yards, Mast plunged twice for 25 yards through gaping holes in the middle of the line. Mast faked a pass and rolled to the Caveman 36 as the first quarter ended.

Mast slipped through again to the 31, but an attempted lateral, Mast to Mayfield, was intercepted by Caveman End Lathrop. A minute later Selby came back to intercept a Caveman pass on the Grants Pass 40.

Mast made five on two plunges, Foster faked a pass and made it a first down on the Grants Pass 25. Mast successively made four, six, nine, and four and Foster added one to the one-yard line. Then plunging Don carried it through for the first score. Vaillancour's kick was good. Klamath Falls 7; Grants Pass 0.

Fumble Helps KF

Klamath scored again a moment later when Watson fumbled Blohm's kick-off on the Caveman 10. On the next play, Foster followed well interference to go over at the left corner of the field. Vaillancour's boot hit the upright. Score: Grants Pass 0; Klamath Falls 13.

But the Cavemen were not through, and a moment later pulled a sleeper play that very nearly scored. Clayton took Blohm's kickoff on the 10 and ran it to the 24. Smith, Caveman quarter, lay down on the sideline after the runback, and on the next play, Gray lobbed a high, wobbly pass to Smith who carried it to the Klamath 49 before the surprised Pelicans caught up with him.

Two more passes, Conner to Smith and Conner to Clayton, carried the ball to the Klamath nine, and another one to Clayton placed it on the five. Clement, Klamath lineman, stopped the scoring threat by intercepting Clayton's pass.

Then Came Foster

He was downed on the Klamath 7. Foster made three through the line and on the next play produced his spectacular 90-yard specialty that made it Klamath Falls 19; Grants Pass 0. Vaillancour's try for point failed.

The half ended a moment later with the ball in Caveman possession on their own 20. After an exchange of punts at the beginning of the second half, Schortgen and Mast mixed them up for a series of gains to the Caveman 20. Schortgen was nailed for an 8-yard loss, two passes failed and the Passmen took over on downs on their 28.

The Cavemen then began a sustained passing drive. Four successive first downs took the ball to the Pelican 15, and Smith then sneaked through to the 10. But the Ramsyemmen stiffened, nailed Edwards for a 7-yard loss, and took over on downs.

Schortgen raced 13 yards, but a fumble by Mast was recovered by Caveman Marshall. The Grants Passmen were again within scoring distance, on the Klamath 31, but could get nowhere and Skow kicked out of bounds on the Pelican 8.

Mast and Schortgen began running wild again and the Klamath's marched to the GP 40 before losing on downs. Conner tried a pass but Schortgen nabbed it and whisked to a touchdown, which was called back for a clipping penalty on Klamath. The ball was given to Klamath on the GP 42.

The second Pelican string was in now, and McKay and Silva boomed the weary Cavemen to a first down on the Grants Pass 32. Together they made another 12 yards and a first down, and then Silva spun through for a touchdown. Patzke's kick was wide. Klamath Falls 25; Grants Pass 0.

McKay kicked off and the Cavemen opened another passing attack that carried to the Klamath 39. Then Prairie intercepted Gray's pass and ran 70 yards for a touchdown. Another try for point failed. The score stood at Klamath 31; Grants Pass 0 and the rout ended a minute later.

Despite the lopsided score, GP was really no cinch. The air-minded Caveman backs, Clayton, Gray and Conner, whipped many a beautiful pass and their receivers caught a lot of them for long gains. Three Geepee passes were good for 25 yards each, and altogether the Cavemen completed nine for 142 yards. That's a lot of good passes in any man's game. The Cavemen furthermore showed rugged spirit and in that department, particularly, shone over the Eugene Axemen, who played here the previous week and took a similar shelling from the terrific Pelicans.

Grants Pass did not measure up to reports about it that have been coming over the hill, but maybe just nobody can look good against these Pelicans.

They have one more game, the Armistice afternoon affair with Bend, which should be an easy one for Klamath. If they get over that hurdle, the Pelicans will be in a position to claim the state title. Coach Frank Ramsey's men have now defeated seven teams in two states, and the scores are getting so decisive all game look like breathers. Reserves are getting a lot of experience and Ramsey now has 'em about three deep for any position.

Alex Agase came from the bottom of the pile, where most guards spend their afternoons, to score two touchdowns and give Illinois a surprising 20-13 victory over Minnesota. Agase, who also wrestles, returned to college this fall at the suggestion of Marine Corps officers after enlisting in the reserve.

Everybody Talks, But Gopher Win Remains

CHICAGO, Oct. 31 (AP)—Now that most everyone, including Referee James Masker and Commissioner John L. Griffith, has had a say in the controversial drop kick episode that ultimately brought Minnesota a 16-14 win over Michigan last Saturday, the case was closed today—and Michigan still was without a victory over the Gophers in 10 years.

Masker this week admitted a lapse in not calling a five-yard penalty on Minnesota for too many times out in the last nine seconds of the first half, when the disputed play occurred.

Griffith, Western conference commissioner, in a statement said that "College games are never played over and scores are not reversed, no matter what may have happened, once the game is ended."

In his statement, however, he concluded after hearing reports and studying movies of the game that omission of the penalty (for taking time out to substitute after Minnesota already had exhausted its legal limit of three) was the only defect in the sequence of happenings.

Michigan officials contended that had the penalty been assessed with the clock ticking off the final seconds, Bill Garnas would not have had time to kick the goal.

However, Masker did not concede that the lapse altered the outcome of the game.

Saturday's dispute was the first big one in a major game since the famous "fifth down" incident in the 1940 Cornell-Dartmouth game, when Cornell scored on a pass in the last three seconds to win 7-3. Later when Referee Red Friesell admitted the error, Cornell officials insisted Dartmouth be declared the winner and the record books carry a 3-0 defeat for Cornell.

Sports Briefs

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP)—There's many a slip—which is about as good a way as any to sum up the prospects for the big-league hockey season that gets started tonight. . . . Nobody knows how it will end, but you can figure that its showing will be a good indication of the future of baseball and other sports. . . . For instance, with about 40 per cent of last year's players already in the armed forces, hockey clubs are loading up with guys like Ebbie Goodfellow and Sweeney Schriner, who either had retired or were about to; they're using former third-stringers and minor leaguers in spots of the more important spots and bringing in as many 17 and 18 year old rookies as they can. . . .

Half-Dozen Elk Killed In 5 Days

PENDLETON, Oct. 31 (AP)—With the elk season in its fifth day, only six known kills had been reported here. First in was Harold Kester of Pendleton with a bull elk. One other carcass came in Thursday to Pendleton and early Friday four—two bulls and two cows—were shipped through here by a Portland party of seven hunters.

It was not expected large numbers of carcasses would be showing up until Sunday or Monday. Many hunters went into the hills intending to spend most of the week, and weather is cool enough to keep the meat in good condition.

Tulsa U Remains Unbeaten

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP)—Three teams suffered their first gridiron defeats of the season last night but four others continued on their all-victorious way and Tulsa (Okla.) university remained unbeaten, untied and unscored on.

Tulsa's golden hurricane, swirling through the Missouri valley conference at a 40-point clip, blanked Drake university, 40-0, with young Clyde Leforce outshining and veteran fullback, Glen Dobbs. It was the third conference victory for the Oklahomans, each of 40 points or better, their sixth of a nine-game schedule and it boosted their scoring record to 296 points for the season.

Augustana of South Dakota stopped North Dakota, 19-0, for its seventh straight triumph; St. Thomas downed St. John's 18-0, for victory number five and Duquesne of Iowa kept its record clean by knocking Wartburg out of the unbeaten ranks, 25-6, for its seventh win in as many starts.

South Carolina pushed the Citadel from the select circle of unbeaten, untied elevens, 14-0, in a Southern conference game, striking through the air for both touchdowns in the final period. It was the first victory of the season for South Carolina and the first loss in five starts for the Citadel.

FORT GEORGE WRIGHT, Wash., Oct. 31 (AP)—It's an open secret around this military campus that the second air force football team has its bombing sights leveled at a post-season "bowl" game and if the bombers get the brushoff you will hear Private Jones and Yardbird Smith screaming "we was robbed."

Eddie Goddard Makes Up This One on Field; Babe Hollingbery Won't Kick If It Works

By BABE HOLLINGBERY
Head Coach, Washington State College

We won a great game from Stanford in Pullman in 1938 on a play which was made up on the field by Eddie Goddard.

It worked—so I kissed him. Otherwise, I'd probably have taken his suit away.

We had been using a shift in which the backs lined up on one side and the line unbalanced to the other. From this we ran and used a flood pass to the weak side.

Goddard noticed that the defensive left halfback was sucking to the left trying to intercept the pass.

He made up the following play: The ball was snapped to the passing back, who faked the flood to the left. Goddard hesitated five counts, cut out to the right, took the pass as diagrammed and ran 33 yards to score the winning points.

J. Bivins, Mauriello Bout Set

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP)—Boxing's war-time "duration champ" of the heavyweights probably will come out of a November 27 Madison Square Garden bout between Tami Mauriello and Jimmy Bivins, and the prospect shouldn't make Joe miss a minute's sleep or a platter of fried chicken.

For, while Mauriello showed plenty of power in the stretch to overhaul the tiring Des Moines veteran, Lee Savoldi, in the last two heats, win a 10-round decision in the Garden last night and get the shot with Bivins, he didn't uncover anything that puts him in Louis' league yet.

And as for Bivins, although he holds decisions over Mauriello and Bob Pastor in recent operations, he still is barely more than a light-heavyweight. He'll probably be the betting favorite when he and Mauriello collide, and since Louis has said he didn't figure on fighting any more, the Cleveland could conceivably, by beating Tami, stay right on top after the war.

Out of last night's brawling came quite a few nervous break-downs among the village's better-known bookmakers. They had installed Tami a 1 to 3 shot to knock off Savoldi, and the betting action was brisk. Yet, so close was the tussle that at
