Little Aurora Provencal entertained with a Hallowe'en party Friday after school for a group of her little friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ruth Provencal on California avenue. Games were played with refreshments served at a table gay with grinning pumpkins and orange caps. Guests of Aurora were Shirley Mattoon, Judy Morris, Nancy Warren, Cora Lee Logsdon, Kathleen Junge, Kathleen Hamplock and Sara Stewart.

Thursday evening there was a gay costume party given by Marilyn Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson, and Jean Selby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Selby, at the Johnson home, 1878 Melrose street. Guests were a group of the hostesses' schoolmates and they arrived in costume appropriate to the occasion.

Those enjoying the affair were Dewey Lambert, Mary Jane Howard, Mary Hooker, Barbara Badger, Billie Ann Morgan, Carol Lee Robinette, Beverly Brown, Jane Tingle, Diane Swansen, Jean Fahlander, Diane Binkley, Nancy Shapleigh, Geraldine Chapman, Sandra Moore and Marilyn Moore.

Carmel Finnigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Finnigan, asked a group of little friends to her home on Washington street from five to half past eight o'clock tonight. The guests will come in costume and games have been planned including the traditional bobbing for apples. Carmel will be hostess to Mary, Susan and Cecile Vandenberg, Ellen Murphy, Nora Murphy, David Ross, Nicholas and Roger Long, John Ross, Billie June and Lavetta McTaggart, Esther Jean and Lee Trippett, Tony Tenney, Maribell Bryant, Matthew and Jimmy Finnigan.

Guests will wear appropriate masks and costumes to Jimmy Ivory's Hallowe'en party tonight at eight o'clock at the E. P. Ivory home on Manzanita street. Jimmy will be host to Bob Cramer, Bob Mead, John Leech, Earl Wisecarver, Jean Gilchrist, Margaret Bullard, Britta Lion, Betty Green, Betty Jo Brown, Dennis Knowles and Charlotte Ivory.

HALLOWE'EN FAVORS AT PORTER PARTY

LeRoy Porter's seventh birthday anniversary was properly celebrated on Tuesday after school when a group of the neighborhood boys called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Porter, 2031 Van Ness street, for birthday cake and ice cream.

The Hallowe'en motif was used on the table and the birthday cake was gorgeously decorated in orange frosting with black cats and witches.

Guests invited to the party were Jack and Greg Schulze, Jimmy Peak, Jimmy Erdmann, Max Heiken, Billy Harlan, Donald and Gerald Johnston, Donnie Drury, George Brandt, Ingram Montgomery and Ernest Dennis, and the host's sister, Karen Porter.

Dinner After Rehearsal

Daggett Entertain Friday Evening in Pelican Party Room.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett of Prineville were hosts at dinner in the Pelican party room Friday evening at half past eight o'clock to members of the wedding party of their daughter, Lisbeth Ann, and John Walter Lidstrom, immediately following the rehearsal in the church.

Deep red chrysanthemums were used to center the long table where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Mersereau, Mrs. Paul Crapo, Mrs. George Filcraft, Mrs. C. H. Daggett, Miss Mersereau, Miss Phyllis Foster, Miss Mary Jane Jenkins, Miss Mary Louise Vincent of Portland, Miss Virginia Bubb, Mr. Lidstrom, William Tackman, Roy Lidstrom, Jack Dudry of Bend, and the hosts.

KLAMATH GIRL ENLISTS FOR WAVES DUTY

Beverly Reed Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Reed of 213 McKinley street, is another of Klamath Falls' young women to join the WAVES, and will report December the fifteenth for active duty.

Beverly has just returned from Seattle after having been officially sworn in on October the twenty-sixth. She was one of eighteen out of sixty selected for the post. A graduate of Klamath Union high school, active in the Venture club and other organizations in the city, Beverly has many friends who offer their best wishes in her work with the WAVES.

THE DuBarry

ADOLESCENT TREATMENT

Schoolgirl complexions are often not what mothers (and the girls themselves) would like them to be. With a keen understanding of "teenage" problems, Richard Hudnut has evolved this simplified DuBarry adolescent treatment. Let our DuBarry Adviser tell you about this treatment... explain the psychological importance of an improved complexion at this trying age.
