

Bonanza Club Elects

Mrs. Frazier To Serve As President of Garden Club

BONANZA—The Bonanza-Langell Valley Garden club held its final meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Benson Dixon. New officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. Harry Frazier, Langell Valley, president, and Mrs. F. W. Brown, Bonanza, secretary-treasurer. The club voted to give a large percentage of the treasury funds to some war cause and Mrs. F. W. Brown and Mrs. Ada Sparreton were appointed to attend to this donation.

The club has had a very successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Ed Gowan, past president, and has made many helpful plans for gardening in the coming year.

BONANZA—A very enjoyable Hallowe'en party was given by the Bonanza Library Clubwomen at the clubhouse, Tuesday night, October the twenty-seventh. The clever games played were entertaining and caused much laughter, with prizes being given to the winners. At the close of the evening a treat of cider and doughnuts was served. Those present were: Mrs. Jack Horton, Mrs. Birdie Burk, Mrs. F. W. Brown, Mrs. LeRoy Coyner, Mrs. E. B. Hibbs, Mrs. V. Loomis, Mrs. Clyde Horsley, Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. John Driscoll, Mrs. William Bechtoldt, Miss Edith Pankey, Mrs. Rawleigh Corrothers, Mrs. John Hayden.

BANQUET ENJOYED AT FORT KLAMATH

FORT KLAMATH—Seventy-five adults and children were present Saturday evening for the annual banquet given by members of the Civic Improvement club for their husbands and families.

For the occasion, the club rooms were decorated with a profusion of Michaelmas daisies and other late fall blooms, the Hallowe'en motif being carried out in colored tapers, and other incidental decorative accessories.

At the close of the dinner, a program was presented, including the following numbers, "Hills of Home," sung by the Fort Klamath choir, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carl Wilson; recitation by six-year-old Audrey Varum, "The Snapdragon and the Bee"; "There's a Long, Long Trail," duet by Mrs. T. R. Nicholson and Mrs. J. B. Thomas, accompanist, Mrs. Carl Wilson; recitation, "Our Flag," by Mrs. Frank Denton, with musical accompaniment by Mrs. Guss Page; "Land of Hope and Glory," sung by the choir. The program concluded with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the gathering.

Mrs. Guss Page entertained on Thursday evening at her home in Fort Klamath with a dinner party given in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband.

Places were marked for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Race, Mr. and Mrs. William Brewer, Gene Page, Mrs. Guss Page, and the guest of honor, Guss A. Page.

Following the birthday dinner, games were the diversion of the evening until a late hour.

KLAMATH FOLKS VISIT IN SALEM

Presiding at a family dinner Friday evening at their home in Division street were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Goodfellow. Incentive for the affair was the presence of the couple's three children and their families.

Captain and Mrs. Robert Goodfellow arrived in the capital from San Luis Obispo Friday. Captain Goodfellow, who is stationed at Fort Ord, is now on leave. They will remain in Salem for several days.

Also in the capital visiting are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kern Buck of Klamath Falls, who were present at the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drager motored from Stayton to be with the other members of their family.—Capital Journal.

Cards have been received from Mrs. Embert Fossum and young daughter, Janet Martha, who are visiting Mrs. Fossum's mother in Westboro, Wisconsin. Lieutenant Fossum is now on maneuvers and will join his family in Denver within a month or six weeks.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS FRIDAY

The Friendship club met at the home of Mrs. T. J. Webb, 1835 Melrose street, on Friday, October the twenty-third. After a brief business meeting the hostess assisted by Mrs. Eugene H. Love served dessert luncheon to Mrs. C. O. Dryden, Mrs. C. W. Stanley, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. William Bishop, Mrs. S. A. Gaster, Mrs. Freda Jackson, Mrs. Oscar Schupp, Mrs. Leon Crapo, Mrs. Harvey Lohr, Mrs. Ed Tomlin, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. Sid Evans, Mrs. Bruce Hull, Mrs. A. W. Pollard, and Mrs. R. H. Grumbles.

Bridge followed, with Mrs. Pollard receiving the award for high score, Mrs. Dryden, low, and the guest prize went to Mrs. Schupp.

The next meeting is to be held on Friday, November the twenty-seventh, at the home of Mrs. Bruce Hull, 4625 Cannon avenue. Mrs. Hull will be assisted by Mrs. Pollard.

PARTIES HONOR MATRONS

SPRAGUE RIVER—Three Sprague River matrons were honored with showers at the home of Mrs. Paul E. Friday, October the twenty-third. The matrons were Mrs. Don Giles, Mrs. S. Maphet and Mrs. Theodore Schatz.

The guests were entertained with music before opening their gifts. Each received many lovely gifts, and many unable to attend sent their gifts.

Mrs. Cole asked the blessing and refreshments were served to the following guests: the matrons honored, Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Maphet and her two children, Mrs. Don Giles and daughter, Mrs. Theodore Schatz and children, Mrs. E. Houck and son, Mrs. Noble Bruley and son, Mrs. W. Books and children, Mrs. Arlie Rose, Rev. Mrs. W. C. Cole and Mrs. Ruby Maphet.

Mrs. Aldo Ferrari, Sprague River matron, was honored with a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferrari in Klamath Falls on Sunday. Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Ferrari, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferrari and daughter, Norah, Mr. and Mrs. James Balcomb and Mrs. Price Beeler of Oakland.

PROGRAM SLATED AT BPW MEETING

"Understanding Chile's Behavior" will be the topic of the address to be given by Mrs. Naomi Preston at the Monday evening dinner meeting on November the second in the Willard hotel for Klamath Falls members of the Business and Professional Women's club.

Miss Augusta B. Parker is chairman of Monday evening's meeting and members of her committee include Nell Olson, Stella Bowne, Ida Edsall and Louella Johnson.

The meeting will open with the flag salute, singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," a brief discussion of the city charter to come before the voters next Tuesday, and singing of "America, The Beautiful." Mrs. Preston will speak, followed by the singing of a group of Latin American songs.

The BPW book clubs will meet November the twenty-third, the Edith Canning group with Miss August Parker and Miss Lillie Darby, 827 Eldorado, and the Minerva club with Delphia Hoyt, 2965 Blsbee street.

NEWS OF THE THEATRES

Never before in her brilliant career has charming Sonja Henie performed such breath-taking swirls and spins on ice as she does in her latest screen hit, 20th Century Fox's gay new musical, "Iceland," now playing at the Esquire. Sonja dances her way into the heart of costar John Payne, when he lands in her native Iceland. Jack Oakie and Sammy Kaye and his orchestra are featured in the film.

Lee Bowman and Jean Rogers in "Pacific Rendezvous," a story of naval intelligence on the job to keep our convoys sailing, opening tomorrow at the Pine Tree. The U. S. navy film, "Battle of Midway," and a second hit, "Affectionately Yours," complete the program.

Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon, who come to the Pelican screen tonight at midnight at "Mrs. Miniver"—called by audiences everywhere "one of the best pictures of all time."

The Independent Study club met on Wednesday, October the twenty-eighth, with Mrs. W. C. Little, 2444 Orchard way, with Mrs. Pearl Marin as co-hostess. The luncheon was served at one o'clock, and the afternoon was spent sewing on a quilt. The next meeting will be on November the eleventh with Mrs. Agnace Lowe, on Lowell street.

Decorations For Camp

Lost River Garden Club To Send Gifts To Cantonment

MERRILL—Lost River Garden clubbers meeting at the home of Mrs. W. C. Bailey Tuesday planned to make Christmas decorations to be sent to Camp White at Medford for the holiday season. The members will meet for an all day session and potluck luncheon just before Christmas at the library club rooms to complete the project. Vases for flowers are also to be sent to the camp.

Winter bouquets made from weeds were arranged and at the close of the meeting the hostesses served cider and doughnuts to Mrs. Wilford L. Smith, Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Mrs. Luther Haskins, Mrs. Lewis Kandra, Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Manning, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. C. E. Sharp and Mrs. Robert Burleigh. Present officers will be held over until next year.

DORRIS CLUBS MEET DURING WEEK

DORRIS—Members of the Get Together club traveled to Mt. Shasta recently to meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Goodwin, former Dorris resident and member of the club. Luncheon was served on their arrival and the afternoon was spent playing whist. Club members presented Mrs. Goodwin with a cream and sugar set as a farewell gift.

Those making the trip were Mrs. Elsie Ramsey, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. J. H. Hadwick, Mrs. A. V. Humphrey, Mrs. D. R. Grace, Mrs. Ida Otto, Mrs. Jennie Lang, Mrs. John Thackara, Mrs. Maude Holmes, Mrs. Bertha Kandy, Mrs. E. Goode and Mrs. Don Doolin.

DORRIS—Mrs. Robert Olson was hostess to Tuesday bridge club members at her home October the seventh. Members present were Mrs. Aldan Fenwick, Mrs. Paul Thoreson, Mrs. Sax Avery, Mrs. Earl Selberg, Mrs. Ed Anderson, Mrs. Paul Evans, Mrs. Murray Marshall and the hostess. High score for the afternoon was taken by Mrs. Avery. Mrs. Fenwick placed second and Mrs. Evans low.

DORRIS—Mr. and Mrs.

Merle Goode entertained with a birthday dinner Sunday at their home in Macdoel, in honor of their son, Dale. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Holmes of Klamath Falls, John Starr, the honoree and the host and hostess.

DORRIS—Mr. and Mrs. George Menchen, of Petaluma, arrived last Saturday for a visit at the home of Mrs. Menchen's niece, Mrs. Enock Israelson. Mrs. Menchen is also an aunt of L. M. Chase. Their grandson, Robert Menchen, accompanied them in order to hunt in this vicinity. The party expects to leave Sunday.

MIXERS MEET FOR CARD PARTY

The Merry Mixers met on Thursday evening, October the twenty-second, with Alberta Allen, 2461 Orch 1 Way, due to the absence of Mrs. W. C. Little, the scheduled hostess. Pinochle was played during the evening, with Eleanor Curtis holding high score and Ruth Anderson low. Those present were Jo Paup, Pearl Paup, Billie Snider, Ruth Anderson and Alberta Allen.

On Saturday evening, October the thirty-first, the members and their families will meet in the social hall on Garden avenue at eight o'clock for a Hallowe'en party. The next regular meeting, with Opal Butler the hostess, will be at the home of Venita Bowen, 1619 E. 1 Main street.

EULALONA CHAPTER PLANS MEET

Eulalona Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet in regular session Monday evening at eight o'clock at the Library club. Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. B. E. Hayden and Mrs. E. D. Lamb will be hostesses.

The program hour will be devoted to round table discussions of war personalities, six minutes each. Mrs. Lloyd Goble will discuss General MacArthur; Mrs. Robert Odell, Admiral Nimitz; Mrs. William Dawson Foster, General Timoshenko; Mrs. Claude Davis, Chiang Kai-Shek; Auchenlech will be the one assigned to Mrs. L. H. Stone.

The dates of November thirteen and fourteen have been set by Roosevelt PTA as the time for their rummage sale in the building next to the gas company offices.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED AT TURNER'S

TURNER'S CENTER—Ralph James Turner was honored on Saturday, October the twenty-fourth, on the occasion of his seventh birthday. Twenty-four of his schoolmates and friends helped him celebrate the event. Highlight of the afternoon was the large table decorated with Hallowe'en colors. Two birthday cakes with candles were cut, and served with ice cream.

The children were given bright orange and black basket favors filled with Hallowe'en candies. Those bidden to the party were: Shirley Johnston, Charley Wall, Bonnie Jean Seaver, Joan Seaver, Beverly Phelps, Shirley Phelps, Beverly Hurlbut, Myron Hurlbut, Reina Hurlbut, Jackie Hiederer, Betty Davison, Ann Gallaspy, Charles House, John Sachs, John Cal Ridgway, Louis Zarosinski, Ralph Steiber, Carol Jean Nelson, Linda DeLap, Richard Barrow, David Bowdoin, Lyle Herrick and Kernan Turner.

Anniversary Observed Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger observed their fifth wedding anniversary at their home on Pacific Terrace Thursday evening when they asked a group of friends in for cocktails and bridge.

PINE NEEDLE CLUB MEETS SATURDAY

BLY—The annual party of the Pine Needle club for members and their husbands was held at the cookhouse at the Ivory Pine Mill Saturday evening, October the twenty-fourth. There were five tables of games including Chinese checkers, cribbage, pinocle and Tripoli. The prize for the woman with the highest number of points was won by Eleanor Ellingson while Jimmie McMillan got the highest score for the men. The consolation prize was awarded to Betty Elder.

Refreshments were served at the late hour to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Elder, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ellingson, Mr. and Mrs. Ames Michelson, Mr. and Mrs. John Able, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Raupach, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Larkey, Mr. and Mrs. George Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stillwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ross McMillan, Betty Kelly, Eleanor LaBrie, Greda Stillwell and Lenore McMillan.

Twenty-five pledges to Pacific university's two lower division service societies were announced this week from Forest Grove. A Klamath Falls girl, Helen Cox, was pledged to Boxerettes society.

Attention!
Sufferers From Rectal Ailments and Varicose Veins!
DR. LEE BORG
Head of the department for rectal disorders and varicose veins for Los Angeles County Hospital Unit No. 2, will hold a Special Clinic
At the Offices of Dr. Wayne McAtee, 122 So. 7th
Tuesday - Wednesday - Thursday
Friday - Saturday,
November 3 Thru 7th
★ Free Examination
★ Reduced Rates for Treatment During This Clinic.
TELEPHONE 5535 FOR APPOINTMENT
Dr. Borg is recognized as an authority on rectal ailments and varicose veins. Take advantage of this opportunity! Make your appointment now!

A Testimonial
to the
Devoted and Efficient
Public Service
of
EARL SNELL

Earl Snell's record of service to the general public during his two terms as Secretary of State has been outstanding. As an automobile dealer I know well the co-operation Earl Snell has given the motoring public.

I Know Earl Snell as a man of high character and a public servant of ability and sound policy. Therefore, I earnestly recommend him to the voters of Klamath county. You can take my word for it—a vote for Earl Snell for Governor is a vote for progress and stability for our state.

Elmer H. Balsiger

Paid Advertisement by
BALSIGER MOTOR CO.

Income Tax Collections For 1942
Will Provide An Estimated
Surplus of 6 Million Dollars

Bill 312 Will Return to Klamath County
$253,000

To Reduce Your Property Tax Levy
VOTE MEASURE 312 YES

Paid Advertisement
by Klamath County O.S.T.A.