REVIVAL MEETS WILL CONTINUE THROUGH WEEK

The revival services now in progress at the First Baptist church, Eighth and Washington streets, will continue through the following week, according to the pastor, the Rev. C. C. Brown.

The pastor states that those attending have manifested a deep interest in the services during the first week. He believes that the timely, pungent messages being delivered by the evangelist, Dr. R. L. Powell of Tacoma, constitute a strong gospel appeal to the Christian people of the Klamath community. "Dr. Powell preaches the Word in wisdom and power. He holds a high standard of conduct and service before his audiences, and presses the claims of Christ upon every heart."

Friday night Dr. Powell is to conduct a special and extraordinary service. He calls this service the open Bible dedication service. Every church member is urged to attend the services Friday evening.

Dr. Powell will speak to the juniors, intermediates, and high school students at the Bible school hour Sunday morning. His subject for 11 a. m. is "The Manifested Grace of God." At the close of the Sunday night service there will be a youth fire-side service at the home of Mrs. Melvin McCollum, 1139 Crescent avenue.

"Christ and Country" will be the subject Monday night and the boys who have gone into the service of the country will be honored in exercises appropriate to the occasion. The name of every man in the service from the families of the First Baptist church will be read and honored. Services begin at 7:45 each evening. There will be no service Saturday night. The public is urged to attend these revival services.

The First Presbyterian church is located on North Sixth at Pine street. The pastor is the Rev. Theodore Smith who will speak at both services. The director of the choir is Miss Lillie Darby and the organist is Mrs. Arthur Hall Denison. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Organ prelude, "Theme," from Faust and Roberts. The professional is "The Church's One Foundation," by Wesley. In response to the opening sentence the choir sings "Grace and Praise," by Cleahan. Choir and congregation unite in singing "The Doxology" and, after the invocation and Lord's prayer, "The Gloria Patri." During the period of quiet meditation the choir sings "Hear Our Prayer, O Lord," and after the prayer, choir and congregation unite in singing "Our Father's God to Thee, Author of Liberty." The choir offertory is Schumann's "We Give Thee But Thine Own" and the organ offertory is "Idyl," by Stults. There will be two special numbers: solo, "My Redeemer and My Lord," by Miss Joy Kent; anthem, "My Jesus As Thou Wilt," by Weber.

The pastor will speak on "The Greatest Thing in the World." The service closes with the benediction, the choir dismissal, "Threefold Amen," and the organ postlude, "March," by Steere. Evening worship at 7:30 o'clock. Prelude, "Canzonetta in D," by Von Wilim. The offertory is "Meditation," by Halvey, and the postlude is "Postlude," by Himmel. The pastor will speak on "First Thessalonians, Praise and Prayer."

Christian Science Churches

"Everlasting Punishment" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 1. The Golden Text will be "My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction: for whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth" (Prov. 3:11, 12).

Among the citations which will comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether" (Ps. 19:8-9).

The Lesson - Sermon also will include the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Truth, Life, and Love are the only legitimate and eternal demands on man, and they are spiritual lawgivers, enforcing obedience through divine statutes."

Controlled by the divine intelligence, man is harmonious and eternal. Whatever is governed by a false belief is discordant and mortal" (p. 184).
