

Jim Jurkovich, University of California halfback (44), straight-arms a would-be Southern California tackler and runs for a 14-yard gain around right end before being brought down by Mel Bleeker (15), Trojan quarterback, in their game at Los Angeles. Other Bears are: Tom Mason (56), and George Nicholson (73). Don Clark (60) is a Trojan. Southern California won 21 to 7.

Shift Comes In College Grid Poll

Georgia Tech and Georgia Lead All Despite Upsets In Writers' Gridiron Poll

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 (AP)—It isn't likely that last Saturday's collection of upsets will be duplicated this weekend but that doesn't mean there won't be a lot of shifting in the next Associated Press poll to determine the 10 best collegiate football teams.

Right now Georgia and Georgia Tech are at the top of the ladder of public opinion as expressed by 112 experts and it isn't likely that the Sinkwich, Davis, Trippi and company outfit will be much disturbed by Chattanooga.

But Georgia Tech, with its head coach ordered from the gridiron by his physician, runs smack into Alabama, in second place two short weeks ago and still in fifth position despite its defeat by Georgia.

Another battle finds fourth place Notre Dame tangling with Michigan, in sixth place although it lost earlier in the season to both the Iowa pre-flight cadets and to Minnesota.

The complete first 10, with their first place votes in parentheses and their points figured on a basis of 10 for each first place vote:

Georgia (85)	1088
Georgia Tech (14)	988
Boston College (10)	819.5
Notre Dame (1)	772.6
Alabama	418.6
Michigan	349
Wisconsin	208.6
Texas	207.6
Tulsa (1)	205.5
Ohio State (1)	204.6

The second 10: Tennessee, Iowa, Illinois, Washington State, William and Mary, Minnesota, Penn, University of California at Los Angeles, Hardin-Simmons, Williams.

Wildcats Sweep Over Bonanza 14-12, Then Whip Ashland 20-0

The KUHS Wildcats made a clean sweep of their two games last week, winning from Bonanza Wednesday 14-12, and then romping over the Ashland "B" team Saturday 20-0.

The Ashland game was the Wildcats all the way. Only once in the second quarter did an Ashland drive look dangerous. It was stopped short when Benson intercepted a pass. Hill scored early in the game for the Wildcats with a 35 yard end run. Biggers dashed 55 yards early in the second half for the second touchdown, and Hill scored again later for the third marker.

Notes

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 10 (AP)—Buck Fawcett, who held down the fullback position during only three plays against Washington will start at that spot for Stanford in the Oregon State football game Saturday, Coach Marchie Schwartz announces.

Fawcett's appearances have been brief because of a twisted leg which is now on the mend. The Indians went through only a light drill yesterday.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 10 (AP)—Oregon State's Beavers scrimmaged against Stanford plays today in preparation for the Saturday Coast conference game at Palo Alto.

The freshman team threw Stanford plays at varsity players who stressed pass defense. Trainer Del Allman said Fullback Choc Shelton and Halfback Bob Libbee, both severely bruised in the Montana game, would be ready to play by Saturday. The team will leave here Thursday.

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 10 (AP)—Right Half Frank Akins, who twisted an ankle when he jumped for one of Bob Kennedy's long passes in the Michigan State game last Saturday, may be on the bench this weekend when Washington State

Pelicans "All Set" for Lava Bears Wednesday

Pelican Line Outweighs Bears; Tough Game Seen

By WES GUDERIAN
Herald and News Sports Editor
"We're all set," Coach Frank Ramsey said Tuesday in reference to the Pelicans' Armistice day game with the Bend Lava Bears. "The boys realize what this game means and are playing 'heads up' ball."

"This could be one of the toughest games of the season. Buck Petersteiner, right half, may be out of the game with a sprained ankle, which was still sore last night. But if it gets tough for the first string, we've got a second string and a third string which play as good ball as the main line."

According to Ramsey, the tentative lineup for the afternoon Wednesday game will be much the same as for the Grants Pass game. Vallancour and Watson will officiate as co-captains. Tuesday's practice will consist of chalk talks to give the team a physical rest before the struggle.

Past games statistics show that the Bend Lava Bears—the Pelicans' last hurdle before claiming the state title—could be one of the toughest games on the Pelican schedule with an upset as possible as the Oregon-UCLA upset last weekend.

Bend has claimed eight victories in the traditional Armistice day game, while the Pelicans have captured but three. Four of the games in the 18-year-old struggle were ties. Medford, Klamath's great rival, can show only three defeats by the Pelicans, though a much greater string of victories.

While Bend has the edge in the number of games won in this struggle, their record this year—which is the team now being played—is not so startling. In the five games they have played, only 50 points have been garnered by the Lava Bears to 48 for their opponents in the following contests:

Bend 30, Burns 14
Prineville 12, Bend 0
The Dalles 7, Bend 7
Medford 7, Bend 0
Bend 13, Salem 6

The Pelicans, on the other hand, have a much more impressive array of scores, having amassed a total of 199 points to their opponents 18 in seven games. Their record looks like this:

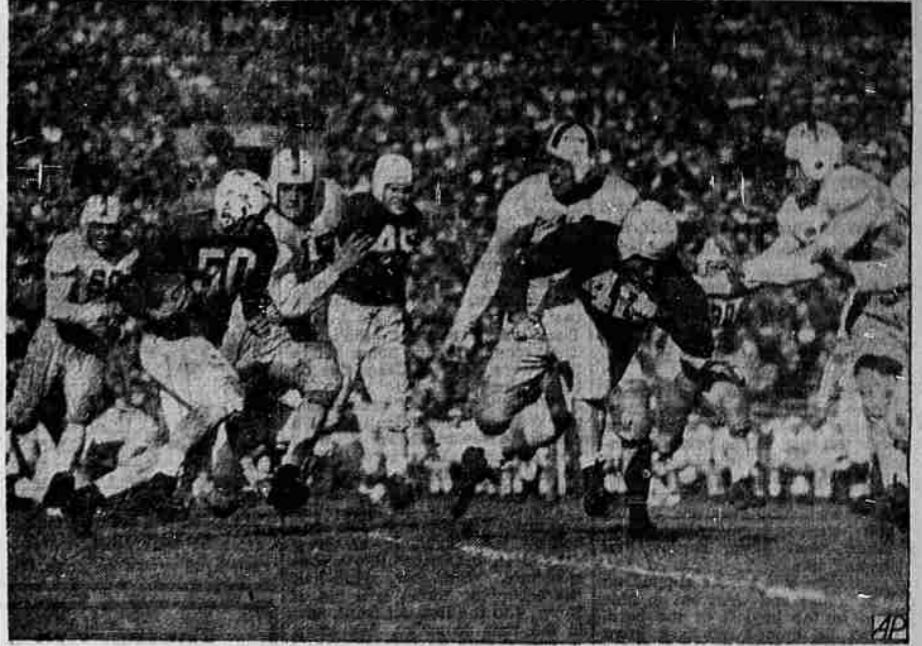

Klamath 15, Grant 0
Klamath 27, Redding 6
Klamath 34, Eureka 6
Klamath 26, Ashland 0
Klamath 23, Medford 0
Klamath 34, Eugene 6
Klamath 31, Grants Pass 0

On the basis of weight statistics, Klamath has the advantage. The Pelicans line weighs 184 pounds per man average while the Bend line, sparked by Gene Gillis, 210-pound left tackle, weighs an average of 175. The Pelican and Bend backfield hits an even average of 165.

The Lava Bear backfield will probably consist of Helmer Wallan, left half; Bob Jappert, right half; Phil Brogan, fullback; and Corin Weber, quarterback.

Like the Pelicans, the Bears have good reserves. Bend Coach Ted Gebhard has used three complete teams in one game, with the second string nearly equal to the first. However, the Pelicans have probably the best reserves in the state. Game time is 2 p. m.

Dana Gains Seven Yards for Stanford

Behind interference of Teammate Fred Boensch (48), Ross Dana (50), Stanford halfback charges around the University of Washington line for a seven-yard gain in the first period of their grid game at San Francisco. Weinmeister (13) of Washington is doing his best to catch Dana. Stanford won 20 to 7.

Michigan, Irish in Grid Tilt

First Football Meeting Since 1909 Irish Victory

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 10 (AP)—Among Notre Dame's most cherished football victories is one over Michigan in 1909, when a flaming-haired kid named Harry Miller joined the ranks of Irish grid greats by leading the way to a 11-3 decision.

The two schools haven't met since. The abrupt end of relations left Notre Dame with only that one win in a nine game series with the Wolverines—one of the poorest inter-school records the tradition steeped Irish have in their archives.

Notre Dame and Michigan will renew their rivalry Saturday after a lapse of 33 years and a capacity crowd of 58,000 was expected for the game they long have awaited—one that was planned as the peak of Notre Dame's centennial schedule more than two years ago.

Among the expected guests are Michigan's old coach, Fielding H. Yost, who retired two years ago as the school's director of athletics, and Harry (Red) Miller, the star of the 1909 encounter.

Two players in particular are eager to meet the Wolverines and have been promised the opportunity. They are Halfbacks Tom and Creighton Miller, sons of the hero of the 1909 Irish squad, Harry, and nephews of another noted Notre Dame gridder—Don Miller, one of the famous four horsemen.

Trojans on March to Victory

The Trojans of the University of Southern California were well on their way to a 21-7 victory over the University of California when this view was made at Los Angeles. Mickey McCordle (28), Trojan halfback, is seen in one of his spectacular runs in the first quarter.

Quarterbackers to Meet With Kiwanis If Pelicans Win

In the event of a victory over Bend Wednesday, the Quarterback club has scheduled a meeting with the Kiwanis club at their regular Thursday noon con-fab at the Willard hotel, at which will be discussed the possibilities of an "extra game" with some outstanding opponent.

However, if the Pelicans fall in defeat before the Lava Bears, no meeting will be held. All members of the Quarterback club and all football enthusiasts are urged to attend.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10 (AP)—Horse racing's national goal of two million dollars this season for war relief was considered attained today after Chicago's five race tracks tallied up $604,750 as their contributions.

Chicago's original quota was $250,000. Sportsman's park topped the list with $193,134. Washington park, Arlington park, Hawthorne and Lincoln fields were the other contributors.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Nov. 10 (AP)—Tony Canedo of the Green Bay Packers claims the shortest touchdown pass on record.

"The ball was on the one inch line when I passed to Don Hutson for a touchdown," insisted Tony.

"Why did you ever pass in a spot like that?" scolded one of the coaches.

"Ceil Isbell tossed a four-inch not long ago for a record and I wanted to beat it—you don't get an opportunity like that very often," grinned Tony.

Sports Briefs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 (AP)—This (if read) probably will draw rebuttals from at least 47 places, but off this season's football records we figure it will be just too bad for other states if those Ohio grid coaches ever carry out their threat to route all their good players to Ohio State . . . As if the Buckeyes weren't already good enough, just think what they'd be if you added, say, Frankie Sinkwich and his catcher, George Poschner, now at Georgia; Eddie Prokop from Cleveland and Georgia Tech; Hills Hume and Jack Martin of Navy; Rochester's Jimmy Seerst, leading scorer in the east, and those Colgate freshmen from Columbus, Jack Clifford and Walt McQuade, who were two good reasons why Columbia lost that "basketball" game Saturday . . . Anyway, you no longer can say the way to get a football team is to head for the Pennsylvania coal mines.

COURTING FAME
A letter from J. W. Hutton, athletic director at Hamline university (at St. Paul, Minn., in case you don't know) extols Hamline's basketball record and asks "what do you need to get on the Cards at such places as Madison Square Garden or the Chicago stadium?" . . . Ned Irish's answer is "get a better record than Hamline's" . . . That may sound rough, but after all, Ned has to pick teams that will fill the garden, and they don't do that unless they play the "name" clubs . . . P. S.: Hutton would like to book a good eastern game for his boys before they put on Uncle Sam's uniforms . . . With something of the same idea in mind, the Manhattan Beach coast guard outfit is in the market for a post-season football game that will give a real good team a chance to show its stuff.

Coach Charley Bachman of Michigan State is perfectly satisfied when Fullback Ed Ripmaster lives up to his name by ripping up the opposition, but he stud-ders to think about a freshman tackle who'll be coming up to the varsity next year . . . The kid is George Killmaster . . . Maybe Charley had better quit being a master mind.

SERVICE DEPT.
Fred Apostoli, who "came back" for six victories and a draw in seven fights since he joined the navy, has been transferred to sea duty from the Norfolk training station . . . "The navy has done a lot for me," explained Fred, "and I'm going out to try to do something for it."

One of Dan (football Dodgers) Topping's pals at the Quantico marine base is Bill Terry—but not the one who asked if Brooklyn is still in the league.

FIGHTS
By The Associated Press
NEW YORK—Jackie Wilson, 14, Los Angeles, knocked out Bernie Miller, 14, Newark, stopped Jerry Fiorello, 14, Brooklyn, (2).
BALTIMORE—Lou Brooks, 18, Wilmington, Del., outpointed Tony Musto, 19, Chicago, (12).
LOS ANGELES—Joey Paralta, 18, Tampa, Pa., outpointed Able Kaufman, 19, Philadelphia, (10).
PHOENIX—Mike Bellizzi, 13 1/2, New York, outpointed Ruby Garcia, 13, Puerto Rico, (10).
PHILADELPHIA—Elli Phillips, 15, Philadelphia, outpointed Peter Scalzo, 13, New York, (10).

County Grid Teams Meet Friday for Season Deciders

SPT 314—COUNTY GRID
The last games of the county football season will be played this weekend with Merrill meeting Bonanza at Bonanza and Malin struggling with Henley at the Henley field.

Henley's overwhelming 40-0 victory over Merrill last Friday at the Merrill field, and Bonanza's 27-12 defeat of Malin puts this week's games as the deciding factor in determining the championship game for the county schools.

Bonanza's powerhouse should defeat Merrill this week, and, after last week's victory over Merrill, Henley should down Malin. In this event both Henley and Merrill will be tied for first place. Both teams have already played a 6-6 tie at the beginning of the season.

meets Idaho in Moscow, Coach Babe Hollingbery said today. Jelly Anderson, sophomore right end, also is on the shelf with a bruised hip, but probably will be ready for action Saturday.

The coach said neither he nor the team were taking the tilt lightly in spite of the general impression that Washington State should win as it pleases.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 10 (AP)—Oregon took its last full workout today before training for Los Angeles and a game against Southern California Saturday.

Tommy Roblin again was at fullback, and Coach John Warren praised his work in the UCLA game, in which Roblin sparked the Webfoots to a 14-7 upset win.

The Webfoots will leave tomorrow.

SEATTLE, Nov. 10 (AP)—That fellow Frankie Albert gave Washington altogether too much trouble when Stanford was beating down the Huskies' Coast conference football title hopes—and here he comes again.

After a day of rest, the Huskies were to start today drilling in a few new plays to toss at the Albert-led St. Mary's Pre-Flight eleven here Saturday. The biggest crowd of the season is expected for the game, with prospects slated for service men in Alaska. A civic committee, firemen and policemen are booming the ticket sales.

Joe Gordon, second baseman for the New York Yankees, has been named the most valuable player of the American league for 1942, thus preserving the tradition that this award usually goes to a member of the pennant-winning club.

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Earl Elliott, 14-year-old Junior high school student, wondered what made phosphorous blaze so hotly on tracer bullets and in incendiary bombs.

So he took a small piece from the laboratory jar, and stuffed it in his pocket to take home for further study.

He was almost to his seat when his trousers burst into flame. A schoolmate helped put out the fire. Hospital attendants later said his injuries were not serious.

But Earl got his answer. He knows now that exposure to air makes phosphorous blaze.

Umpire Crowell Gets Laugh at Penn State When Fumble Halts Working Scoop Play

By BOB HIGGINS
Head Coach, Pennsylvania State College
Two years ago our center, Gajecki, was chosen to represent the East in the Shrine Game in San Francisco. The West used a quick lineup play. The halfback, who had carried on the previous down, became the center, scooped the ball to a fast man.

We were playing Colgate the following season. I knew Andy against Colgate. Krouse, our wingback, was to run a wide reverse. The referee would bring the play in 15 yards. Our team would spread, Krouse would scoop the ball to Pepper Petrella and Penn State would lead 6-0.

Petrella received the kickoff and ran to the Colgate 20 before Indian Bill Geyer caught him. We might have scored with straight football but our quarterback immediately called the scoop.

Krouse was to run the wide reverse first—and he fumbled! Colgate recovered and soon was on our 20.

We had practiced the play for a month. I even explained it to Umpire Bill Crowell in detail, so there would be no dispute.

It wasn't much fun for us coaches when it backfired, but Bill Crowell got a great kick out of it.
